The Adventures of Imshi John Prioleau, 1923 To some of the readers of the following pages I feel unlike most writers of travel books that I need offer no apology for adding yet one more to the swelling army of these They have brought it upon themselves During the six months when I drove my car from London to Genoa from Genoa to Marrakesh from Marrakesh to Kairuan from Kairuan to Gibraltar Seville Madrid the Pyrenees and home through France I was the embarrassed recipient of scores of letters from kindly folk all over the world asking me to put into a book with pictures the adventures of Imshi which I have had the honour to describe in the columns of the Daily Mail as we went along I have tried to give them what I thought they asked for To the other readers I have only one excuse to offer I believed that that very considerable body of the motoring public of Great Britain and Ireland who with me look upon a car and especially a post war car as something which should be fit to take its owner all over the world where roads exist might like to have first hand evidence of motoring conditions in the Countries of the Sun since the terror of war swept over them I have no notion of attributing to Imshi the qualities of an explorer Preface 7 8

Africa... Table for One Tami Loehrs, 2025-07-15 Have you ever experienced a loss so great you felt you couldn't go on How many times did you hear Don't worry time heals all wounds This advice is complete and utter bullshit Time does not pick up pieces of a priceless vase shattered on the floor It just continues to pass until all the delicate fragments are carefully picked up and glued back together That takes excruciating patience focus and tenacity Over time with great effort the vase begins to take shape again But it will never be the same For me time stopped when my husband of twenty years was diagnosed with the deadliest of all brain tumors a Glioblastoma The beautiful life we once knew extinguished in an instant He fought valiantly for two and half years but when he left me forever on March 12 2021 I prayed for an end to my suffering An end to time Six months of trying to drink myself to death with dribs and drabs of over the counter drugs not so over the counter drugs and a diet of microwave hot dogs and Uber Eats proved unsuccessful Until one morning I was ripped from an alcohol induced slumber by the loving arms of my dead husband I heard his words whisper in my ear as though he was still lying next to me go to Africa A place I had dreamed of since I was child A place I talked about endlessly throughout our marriage During my thirty day expedition the healing powers of Africa began to stitch up the cavernous tears in my mutilated heart The darkness in my soul began illuminating once again And everywhere I went the animals came to me as though they felt my anguish I was putting in the work Picking up all the shattered pieces Accepting the refurbished version of me covered in the scars of a sloppy repair job Learning how to live without the other half of me A Table for One The Rāmāyaṇa of Vālmīki Vālmīki,2022-01-18 The definitive translation of the classic Sanskrit work in a single volume paperback edition
