Eskimo Boyhood Charles C. Hughes,2021-12-14 Here is a unique view of life as experienced by a young Eskimo The autobiography was written by a youth in his early twenties who relates the details of his boyhood life recalling the feelings accompanying his experiences In addition to allowing Nathan simply to relate his story thereby illustrating the uniqueness of an individual life Mr Hughes sets the autobiography in a broader context which illustrates the major trends in sociocultural changes in a small and isolated corner of the world Not only were different answers required in this new evolving world but different questions were being asked not how to hunt but whether to hunt Not how to train the body but for what It is in this kind of world that we see the struggles the defeats and the victories of a boy seeking to find his identity and place in life
