time to teaching and conducting String Quartet No 2 dates from 1906 and was premiered to great critical acclaim It is in three movements The first movement Andante Allegro begins with a slow broad rising introduction It is the most important melodic theme of the entire quartet and serves as its motto motif The Andante is immediately interrupted by a brief Allegro burst of energy An Adagio interrupts the Allegro momentarily before it is allowed to begin in earnest Particularly striking is the fact that it takes place at a rapid tempo while simultaneously the main theme the motto is played at its original slow tempo It sounds as if one is hearing two widely different tempi at once It is an extraordinary effect and makes an incredible impression The second movement Presto acciacato is a scherzo opening with a relentless driving rhythm in the cello Superimposed periodically on top of this rhythm are warning chords which create a menacing mood of evil The choral theme of the trio is a pure and innocent prayer The final movement might well have been subtitled Apotheosis Although beginning Molto Adagio it consists of several other important sections More accurately it should be entitled Molto Adagio Animato Adagio Andante Allegro It begins in a hushed mood similar to the trio section of the preceding scherzo Suddenly there is a powerful angry outburst as the Animato dramatically explodes full of passion our sound bite begins here In the final part of the Animato we hear for the first time the entire exposition of the opening Adagio powerfully stated by the viola against a ethereal accompaniment in the violins playing high on their e strings The dramatic high point is reached toward the end of the Andante when it comes time for the restatement of the opening motto The two violins slowly climb ever higher the second echoing the first each step of the way <http://www.editionsilvertrust.com/dohnanyi/string-quartet-no2.htm>
