Myths And Realities Of Academic Administration:

Myths and Realities of Academic Administration Patricia Plante, Robert Caret, 1990-03 Do new administrators really experience a honeymoon period Is a confrontation with a hostile faculty a certainty With an eye toward the ideal but a foot planted firmly in reality this book views the crumbling of ten major myths about academic administration Over 125 executives from colleges of all types and sizes were polled and responded with their experiences of today s most prevalent misconceptions Myths explored and exploded include how administrators inherit untouchables yearn for the classroom equivocate and are torn by conflicting constituencies This volume with its candid comments ventures to transcend the silence surrounding the intimate concerns pressures ideals and realities of the chief executive position while effecting new debate and personal reflection

Conceiving the Christian College Duane Litfin, 2004-09-24 This book is designed to help those who are interested in Christian higher education explore anew the unique features opportunities and contemporary challenges of one distinct type of educational institution the Christian college What distinguishes Conceiving the Christian College from the many other books on this subject is its incisive discussion of a set of crucial ideas widely misunderstood in the world of Christian higher education Now serving in his eleventh year as president of one of the nation s foremost Christian colleges Duane Litfin is well placed to ask pressing questions regarding faith based education What is unique about Christian colleges What is required to sustain them How do they maintain their bearing in the tumultuous intellectual seas of the twenty first century Litfin s themes are large but they are meant to refocus the conceptual challenges to Christian education in ways that will strengthen both the academic environment of today s Christian colleges and their impact on culture at large

Resources in Education , 2001-04 Myth, Reality, and Reform Cláudio de Moura Castro, Daniel C. Levy, 2000 Myth Reality and Reform bridges these critiques by balancing the importance of the four key functions of higher education academic leadership professional development technological training and development and general higher education The book suggests how to consolidate the strengths of higher education systems while fundamentally reforming their weaker features Documentation Abstracts , 1985 The Myths of Technology Judith Burnett, Peter Senker, Kathy Walker, 2009 This book questions whether technologies are the rational tangible scientific forward thinking neutral objects they are so often perceived to be exploring instead how powerful mythic ideas about technologies drive our social understanding and our expectations of them Against a rising tide of information we encounter significant technological scientific and medical advances which promise to create an educated humane and equal world This book explores that promise deconstructing technologies to conclude that though they do afford us significant and empowering advances they remain largely cloaked in mystery and often promise more than they can deliver Contributors from diverse intellectual backgrounds and political and epistemological stances spanning sociology and psychosocial investigations innovation studies and scientists combine philosophical inquiry and empirical case studies to create a book which is at once provocative

Hallinger,2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980 s combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development      New Myths and Old Realities Charles Frederick Warnath,1971
