Myths Of The Self Narrative Identity And Postmodern Metaphysics:

Myths of the Self Olav Bryant Smith, 2004-01-01 Myths of the Self is a departure from the standard fare of postmodern thought In a unique and brilliant turn Smith argues that the best way of dealing with the topic of the self is a synthesis of a narrative theory of identity using Ricoeur as a source along with the constructive postmodern metaphysics of Alfred North Whitehead The resulting synthesis is a new and potentially invigorating spin on the genesis of postmodern thought The Metaphysics of Becoming Thomas Padiyath, 2014-01-31 This study attempts to elucidate a possible meeting point of the traditions of Eastern and Western metaphysical thinking In discussing Whitehead's and Aurobindo's views on being and becoming it seeks the possibility of a better engagement between the East and the West in the light of the philosophical insights It is an initiation into the Sitz im Leben of Whitehead's philosophy and his general thought pattern It carries a perceptive analysis to show the clear primacy of Becoming or Process in Whitehead that extends even to the Divine It also highlights Aurobindo as a unique Indian Philosopher who articulated Indian thought in Western categories He was able to integrate the evolutionary theory of the West with the Indian understanding of becoming The relationship between God and Creativity and Sachchidananda and the Supermind is studied within the context of Enlightenment and Modernity and the way of doing philosophy in the West and in the East Deleuze and Ricoeur Declan Sheerin, 2011-10-20 What is the self Is it the impregnable cogito of Descartes or the shattered self of Nietzsche Or has it become serendipitously constituted from pieces of fairy tales and novels childhood comics and soap operas a multitude of forces culled from fashion modern myth culture and recreation Or must we still convince ourselves like Rousseau that the self can never be tainted that it is above all else irrefrangible Paul Ricoeur proposed that the self is formed within the narratives we tell of ourselves that it is itself a form of narrative But is this enough Could a self cohere in a multitude of potential narratives or find unity among its stories In this book Declan Sheerin challenges the theory that the self is narrative alone or that concordance reigns over discordance in the self Drawing upon the works of Gilles Deleuze he proposes that deep to the sense of a unified represented self is a more fundamental self of difference a self that is more than merely coherent narrative Whitehead's Radically Different Postmodern Philosophy David Ray Griffin, 2012-02-01 Postmodern philosophy is often dismissed as unintelligible self contradictory and as a passing fad with no contribution to make to the problems faced by philosophers in our time While this characterization may be true of the type of philosophy labeled postmodern in the 1980s and 1990s David Ray Griffin argues that Alfred North Whitehead had formulated a radically different type of postmodern philosophy to which these criticisms do not apply Griffin shows the power of Whitehead's philosophy in dealing with a range of contemporary issues the mind body relation ecological ethics truth as correspondence the relation of time in physics to the irreversible time of our lives and the reality of moral norms He also defends a distinctive dimension of Whitehead's postmodernism his theism against various criticisms including the charge that it is incompatible with relativity theory Deep Empiricism Derek

Malone-France,2007-01-01 Deep Empiricism Kant Whitehead and the Necessity of Philosophical Theism offers a critical and comparative engagement of two great philosophers who are rarely treated together Immanuel Kant and Alfred North Whitehead Derek Malone France provides insightful readings of Kant and Whitehead as he bridges the gap between those who study Kant s transcendental idealism and scholars of Whitehead s organic realism Partakers of the Divine Jacob Holsinger Sherman,2014-04-01 An extended essay in contemplative philosophy the meeting of mystical and philosophical theology Partakers of the Divine shows that Christian philosophical and contemplative practices arose together and that throughout much of Christian history philosophy theology and contemplation remained internal to one another Further the relation of philosophy theology and contemplation to one another is of more than antiquarian interest for it provides theologians and philosophers of religion today with a way forward beyond many of the stalemates that have beset discussions about faith and reason the role of religion in contemporary culture and the challenges of modernity and postmodernity
