and Egyptian Independence pays particular attention to women that range from the uneducated black slave to the uneducated rural Siwan woman with artistic talent to the wealthy cultured Coptic housewife to the rising late nineteenth century British female professional and finally to the eclipsed twentieth century Egyptian female national intellectual all of whom play crucial roles in the journeys of the respective male protagonists and by extension the Egyptian national project

Discourse Esra Mirze Santesso,James McClung,2017-01-27 Largely though not exclusively as a legacy of the 2001 attack on the World Trade Center Islamic faith has become synonymous in many corners of the media and academia with violence which many believe to be its primary mode of expression The absence of a sophisticated recognition of the wide range of Islamic subjectivities within contemporary culture has created a void in which misinterpretations and hostilities thrive Responding to the growing importance of religion specifically Islam as a cultural signifier in the formation of a postcolonial self this multidisciplinary collection is organized around contested terms such as secularism Islamopolitics female identity and Islamophobia The overarching goal of the contributors is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the full range of experiences within Islam as well as the figure of the Muslim thus enabling a new set of questions about religion s role in shaping postcolonial identity
