Naked Spheres Of Ink:

Naked Spheres of Ink G. Elton Warrick, 2004 There are instructions and guidelines for most things How is it then that we have so many misguided people I have come to the conclusion most people are the same as other people However those other than the majority are as different as the sun and the moon the earth and space And yet each of us desire to be unique to be recognized as individuals apart from the crowd Nevertheless most of us will not be remembered by future generations A few of us work hard at putting our uniqueness to word through poetry This book is my meager attempt at sharing part of my observations and fantasies into verse in my own poetic way I have tried to include in this book a mix of forms and styles Some forms are formal most are not I have included a few sing song street rhymes some sophisticated most not You may discover a few Rap poems and others which are experimental It is kind of like throwing Spheres of Ink onto a collection of pages and to be hopeful that they adhere enough and are created skillfully enough that some of them will be remembered by association of my name After I am dead and my ashes scattered I hope some of this poetry will survive me perhaps this very copy you are reading now And that somewhere down the line of time others will discover poetry they like from this small collection The most wasted of all days is one without poetry If you discover my spheres of ink have landed where they shouldn't or that your poetic taste differs I do apologize in advance for wasting your valuable time In that case remember that some poetry is not to be tossed aside lightly it should be launched into outer space This book is dedicated to honest opinion This book does not demonstrate genius not even close mediocre at best that is my honest appraisal of the poetry in this book However my ego can always use stroking Therefore if you like the verses here please tell someone Encourage them to purchase a copy for themselves or to give one or more as gifts

The Babylonian Planet Sonja Neef,2021-11-04 What is astro culture In The Babylonian Planet it is unfolded as an aesthetic an idea a field of study a position and a practice It helps to engineer the shift from a world view that is segregated to one that is integrated from global to planetary from distance to intimacy and where closeness and cosmic distance live side by side In this tour de force Sonja Neef takes her cue from Edouard Glissant s vision of multilingualism and reignites the myth of the Tower of Babel to anticipate new forms of cultural encounter For her Babel is an organic construction site at which she fuses theoretical analysis and case studies of artists writers and thinkers like William Kentridge Orhan Pamuk and Immanuel Kant Her skilful interrogations then allow her to paint a portrait of art and culture that abolishes the horizon as a barrier to vision and reclaims it as a place of contact and relation By combining the Babylonian concept of the encounter and the planetary concept of the whole earth Neef creates a space an astro culture in which she can examine topics as varied as language translation media modernity migration and the moon In doing so she instigates a renewed cultural understanding receptive to the kinder forms of cultural encounter and globalisation she hopes will come Publications Wren Society,1943 The
