Selected Works of Flavius Josephus Flavius Josephus, 1895-01-01

Now as to Hades wherein the souls of the of the good things they see and rejoice in the righteous and unrighteous are detained it is necessary to speak of it Hades is a place in the world not regularly finished a subterraneous region wherein the light of this world does not shine from which circumstance that in this region the light does not shine it cannot be but there must be in it perpetual darkness This region is allotted as a place of custody for souls ill which angels are appointed as guardians to them who distribute to them temporary punishments agreeable to every one s behavior and manners In this region there is a certain place set apart as a lake of unquenchable fire whereinto we suppose no one hath hitherto been cast but it is prepared for a day afore determined by God in which one righteous sentence shall deservedly be passed upon all men when the unjust and those that have been disobedient to God and have given honor to such idols as have been the vain operations of the hands of men as to God himself shall be adjudged to this everlasting punishment as having been the causes of defilement while the just shall obtain an incorruptible and never fading kingdom These are now indeed confined in Hades but not in the same place wherein the unjust are confined For there is one descent into this region at whose gate we believe there stands an archangel with an host which gate when those pass through that are conducted down by the angels appointed over souls they do not go the same way but the just are guided to the right hand and are led with hymns sung by the angels appointed over that place unto a region of light in which the just have dwelt from the beginning of the world not constrained by necessity but ever enjoying the prospect of the good things they see and rejoice in the expectation of those new enjoyments which will be peculiar to every one of them and esteeming those things beyond what we have here with whom there is no place of toil no burning heat no piercing cold nor are any briers there but the countenance of the and of the just which they see always smiles them while they wait for that rest and eternal new life in heaven which is to succeed this region This place we call The Bosom of Abraham But as to the unjust they are dragged by force to the left hand by the angels allotted for punishment no longer going with a good will but as prisoners driven by violence to whom are sent the angels appointed over them to reproach them and threaten them with their terrible looks and to thrust them still downwards Now those angels that are set over these souls drag them into the neighborhood of hell itself who when they are hard by it continually hear the noise of it and do not stand clear of the hot vapor itself but when they have a near view of this spectacle as of a terrible and exceeding great prospect of fire they are struck with a fearful expectation of a future judgment and in effect punished thereby and not only so but where they see the place or choir of the fathers and of the just even hereby are they punished for a chaos deep and large is fixed between them insomuch that a just man that hath compassion upon them cannot be admitted nor can one that is unjust if he

The Antiquities of the Jews Flavius Josephus, 2016-11-09 Those who undertake to write histories do not I perceive take that trouble on one and the same account but for many reasons and those such as are very different one from another For some of them apply themselves to this part of learning to show their skill in composition and that they may therein acquire a reputation for speaking finely others of them there are who write histories in order to gratify those that happen to be concerned in them and on that account have spared no pains but rather gone beyond their own abilities in the performance but others there are who of necessity and by force are driven to write history because they are concerned in the facts and so cannot excuse themselves from committing them to writing for the advantage of posterity nay there are not a few who are induced to draw their historical facts out of darkness into light and to produce them for the benefit of the public on account of the great importance of the facts themselves with which they have been concerned Now of these several reasons for writing history I must profess the two last were my own reasons also for since I was myself interested in that war which we Jews had with the Romans and knew myself its particular actions and what conclusion it had I was forced to give the history of it because I saw that others perverted the truth of those actions in their writings
