McLeod,2009-07-24 Contrary to popular opinion there is more to Sikhism than the distinctive dress First of all there is the emergence of Guru Nanak the founder of Sikhism and the long line of his successors There are the precepts many related to liberation through the divine name or nam There is a particularly turbulent history in which the Sikhs have fought to affirm their beliefs and resist external domination that continues to this day There is also more recently the dispersion from the Punjab throughout the rest of India and on to Europe and the Americas With this emigration Sikhism has become considerably less exotic but hardly better known to outsiders This reference is an excellent place to learn more about the religion It provides a chronology of events a brief introduction that gives a general overview of the religion and a dictionary with several hundred entries which present the gurus and other leaders trace the rather complex history expound some of the precepts and concepts describe many of the rites and rituals and explain the meaning of numerous related expressions All this along with a bibliography provides readers with an informative and accessible guide toward understanding Sikhism

The Oxford Handbook of Sikh Studies Pashaura Singh, Louis E. Fenech, 2014-03-27 The Oxford Handbook of Sikh Studies innovatively combines the ways in which scholars from fields as diverse as philosophy psychology religious studies literary studies history sociology anthropology political science and economics have integrated the study of Sikhism within a wide range of critical and postcolonial perspectives on the nature of religion violence gender ethno nationalism and revisionist historiography. A number of essays within this collection also provide a more practical dimension written by artists and practitioners of the tradition. The handbook is divided into eight thematic sections that explore different expressions of Sikhism. Historical literary ideological institutional and artistic expressions are considered in turn followed by discussion of Sikhs in the Diaspora and of caste and gender in the Panth. Each section begins with an essay by a prominent scholar in the field providing an overview of the topic. Further essays provide detail and further treat the fluid multivocal nature of both the Sikh past and the present. The handbook concludes with a section considering future directions in Sikh Studies.

Finding God Among our Neighbors, Volume 2 Kristin Johnston Lergen, 2017-02-01 For too many students Christian theology is learned in isolation from other religions traditions. With this the second volume of her important work Kristin Johnston

Largen returns to expand the systematic theology she began in the original volume. Largen places the work of Christian theology soundly within the interreligious dialogue that is the defining feature of our time. In doing so, she prepares students of theology for the task of understanding and articulating their Christian beliefs in the context of a religiously and culturally diverse world. In the original volume, Largen focused her work on three loci: God, Creation, and Humanity. In this second volume, she expands the project to include salvation, the Church, and the Holy Spirit. As before, each locus is set within the broader context of interreligious dialogue by considering how the varied beliefs of the world's religious traditions inform our understanding of our own tradition. This volume explores indigenous religions: Sikhism, Confucianism, and Daoism, in particular.

Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08. This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections.
ABOUT VOLUME ONE: Friendship is an outcome of, as well as a condition for, advancing interfaith relations. However, for friendship to advance, there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions. Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues, seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions. It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations, in particular, the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews, his closest personal friend. Contributors: Balwant Singh Dhillon, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Ruben L. F. Habito, Ryan McAnnally Linz, Stephen Butler Murray, Eleanor Nesbitt, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Johann M. Vento, and Miroslav Volf.
ABOUT VOLUME TWO: Healing of Memory This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present-day relations. Its operative notion is the healing of memory, developed by John Paul II. Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes. Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is, in some ways, a cross-religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present-day relations. At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope. If memory informs our past, hope sets the horizon for our future. How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future? And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good? Between memory and hope, this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations. Contributors: Rahuldeep Singh Gill, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Flora A. Keshgegian, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Muhammad Suheyl Umar, and Michael von Brück.
ABOUT VOLUME THREE: Sharing Wisdom The essays collected here, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom, learning, teachings, messages for good living. How should religions go about sharing their wisdom? These chapters, representing six faith traditions—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, and Buddhist—explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions, why and how it should be shared internally and externally, and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing. This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sender Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Who Are the Sikhs?
