Adelman,Larry R. Frey,2020-07-24 This book examines the concept of community focusing on how communication practices help manage the tensions of creating and sustaining everyday communal life amidst the crisis of human loss While acknowledging how the contradictory and inconsistent nature of human relationships inevitably affects community this intimate and compelling text shows how community is created and sustained in concrete communication practices The authors explore these ideas at Bonaventure House an award winning residential facility for people with AIDS where the web of social relationships and the demands of a life threatening illness intersect in complex ways Facing a life threatening illness can defy meaningful social connections but it can also inspire such ties sometimes in ways that elude us in the course of daily life By understanding how collective communication practices help residents forge a sense of community out of the fragility and chaos of living together with AIDS we are able to better understand how communication is inexorably intertwined with the formation of community in other environments Based on seven years of ethnographic research including participant observation in depth interviews and questionnaires this book weaves together narratives and visual images with conceptual analysis to uncover the ongoing oppositional forces of community life and to show how both mundane and profound communication processes ameliorate these tensions and thereby sustain this fragile community Because the average length of stay for a resident is seven months in which time he or she moves from being a newcomer to a community member to someone the community remembers the text reflects this short but crystallized life starting with the day a new resident opens the door to the day he or she passes away The writing is rich intimate engaging personal compelling and vivid The stories told discuss such deeply personal topics as the dilemmas of romantic relationships in a context fraught with many perils issues of power authority and control that enable and constrain social life and communicative practices that help residents cope with bereavement over the loss of others as well as their own impending deaths The text concludes by examining the lessons learned from Bonaventure House about creating and sustaining a health community and serves as an inspiration for strengthening interpersonal relationships and communities in other environments Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Vol.2 Robert Aldrich,Garry Wotherspoon,2005-07-25 Who s Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian

The World the Sixties Made Van Gosse,Richard R. Moser,2008 How can we make sense of the fact that after decades of right wing political mobilizing the major social changes wrought by the Sixties are more than ever part of American life The World the Sixties Made the first academic collection to treat the last quarter of the twentieth century as a distinct period of U S history rebuts popular accounts that emphasize a conservative ascendancy The essays in this volume survey a vast historical terrain to tease out the meaning of the not so long ago They trace the ways in which recent U S culture and politics continue to be shaped by the legacy of the New Left s social movements from feminism to gay liberation to black power Together these essays demonstrate that the America that emerged in the 1970s was a nation profoundly even radically democratized Journal of a Sufi Odyssey - Volume I Shaykh Tariq Knecht,2018-11-09 With respect to things which can be said this trilogy is one of the most revealing excursions into the nature of the Sufi path that has been written in the last 736 years There are four kinds of people within and without There are those who know and know that they know These rare dimensions of the Self are spiritually realized and one should seek them out and learn from them There are those who know but don t know that they know These individuals are asleep and should be woken up There are those who don t know and know that they don t know These souls are able to learn and should be taught There are those who don t know and don t know that they don t know These are the ignorant ones and they should be avoided AIDS-Trauma and Politics Aimee Pozorski,2019-06-26 AIDS Trauma and Politics considers American literary representations of the social and political silence surrounding the AIDS crisis in the U S in the 1980s The book offers close readings of such authors as Paul Monette Mark Doty Rafael Campo Sarah Schulman Tony Kushner and Larry Kramer in order to argue that the AIDS crisis was born largely without a witness and as a result marks a significant trauma in U S history Grounded by trauma studies AIDS Trauma and Politics argues that the arts exemplified here by literature and film uniquely underscore social problems otherwise overlooked by such discourses as politics the law and journalism Defining the 1980s AIDS crisis as a perfect case this book proposes to redefine trauma not simply as an event that happened too soon but rather as an ongoing series of oversights resulting in a failure to acknowledge or witness the humanity of those who suffer The Advocate ,2006-02-28 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Reflections of a Sufi Anab Whitehouse,2018-11-06 The fifty two chapters not counting five appendices that make up the main body of this book encompass lectures articles and letters e mails written over a period of about eleven years from about 1998 through 2009 The material covers a variety of thematic topics both within Islam in general as well as in relation to its mystical dimension of tasawwuf known in the West as the Sufi path or sufism in particular Taken collectively the chapters and appendices provide a very good introduction to both the Sufi path and Islam
