Naming Day In Eden The Creation Recrea:

The Name of God in Jewish Thought Michael T Miller, 2015-10-16 One of the most powerful traditions of the Jewish fascination with language is that of the Name Indeed the Jewish mystical tradition would seem a two millennia long meditation on the nature of name in relation to object and how name mediates between subject and object Even within the tide of the 20th century's linguistic turn the aspect most notable in the almost entirely secular Jewish philosophers is that of the personal name here given pivotal importance in the articulation of human relationships and dialogue The Name of God in Jewish Thought examines the texts of Judaism pertaining to the Name of God offering a philosophical analysis of these as a means of understanding the metaphysical role of the name generally in terms of its relationship with identity The book begins with the formation of rabbinic Judaism in Late Antiquity travelling through the development of the motif into the Medieval Kabbalah where the Name reaches its grandest and most systematic statement and the one which has most helped to form the ideas of Jewish philosophers in the 20th and 21st Century This investigation will highlight certain metaphysical ideas which have developed within Judaism from the Biblical sources and which present a direct challenge to the paradigms of western philosophy Thus a grander subtext is a criticism of the Greek metaphysics of being which the west has inherited and which Jewish philosophers often subject to challenges of varying subtlety it is these philosophers who often place a peculiar emphasis on the personal name and this emphasis depends on the historical influence of the Jewish metaphysical tradition of the Name of God Providing a comprehensive description of historical aspects of Jewish Name Theology this book also offers new ways of thinking about subjectivity and ontology through its original approach to the nature of the name combining philosophy with text critical analysis As such it is an essential resource for students and scholars of Jewish Studies

Jewish given Names and Family Names David L. Gold, 2001-12-01 This work identifies and describes over 3 000 books essays in books and articles on Jewish given names and family names throughout history spanning the Biblical period to modern times The bibliography is a highly analytic one recording published materials in a wide variety of research languages treating Jewish anthroponymy in the broadest sense from historical sociological and linguistic perspectives The bibliography will be an invaluable resource for any researcher engaged in etymological studies Jewish intralinguistics or Jewish family history

What Really Happened in the Garden of Eden? Ziony Zevit, 2013-11-26 A provocative new interpretation of the Adam and Eve story from an expert in Biblical literature The Garden of Eden story one of the most famous narratives in Western history is typically read as an ancient account of original sin and humanity's fall from divine grace In this highly innovative study Ziony Zevit argues that this is not how ancient Israelites understood the early biblical text Drawing on such diverse disciplines as biblical studies geography archaeology mythology anthropology biology poetics law linguistics and literary theory he clarifies the worldview of the ancient Israelite readers during the First Temple period and elucidates what the story likely meant in its original context Most provocatively he contends that our ideas about original sin are based upon misconceptions originating in the Second Temple period under the influence of Hellenism He shows how for ancient Israelites the story was really about how humans achieved ethical discernment He argues further that Adam was not made from dust and that Eve was not made from Adam's rib His study unsettles much of what has been taken for granted about the story for more than two millennia and has far reaching implications for both literary and theological interpreters Classical Hebrew in the hands of Ziony Zevit is like a cello in the hands of a master cellist He knows all the hidden subtleties of the instrument and he makes you hear them in this rendition of the profoundly simple story of Adam Eve the Serpent and their Creator in the Garden of Eden Zevit brings a great deal of other biblical learning to bear in a surprisingly light hearted book

The Restoration Covenant Jamie L. Perez, 2002 Noah was a man of his time He faced the same temptations and urges as his neighbors but with a difference He resisted those urges Instead of seeking instant gratification Noah was willing to wait He knew that the violence and wickedness around him brought no one any lasting pleasure as Cain had clearly illustrated Violence bred more violence until all hope of security and peace was lost Those who tried to resist it were either seduced into it or killed until only one righteous man remained If God were going to salvage mankind Noah was God's last hope This Bible study is designed to bring Noah's struggles and conflicts into your living room and into your heart You may rejoice with his victories and cry with his defeats but most importantly learn from his life God's commands were heart wrenching How could Noah willingly participate in God's plan His obedience would bring death to his family friends and society Almost everyone and everything he ever knew would be lost How could he live through such a great personal loss Gather your friends together This is an experience you will want to share Noah's legacy it is a story to remember
