Naming The Silences God Medicine And The Problem Of Suffering:

Naming the Silences Stanley Hauerwas, 1990 Drawing heavily on stories of ill and dying children to illustrate and clarify his discussion of theological issues Stanley Hauerwas explores why we seek explanations for suffering and evil so desperately in today's world Modern medicine he declares has too often become a noisy way to hide the gaping silences created by the painful experience of childhood illness and death Alternatively he shows us a God who can give a voice to that pain in a manner that at least gives us a way to go on From publisher's description Naming the Silences Stanley Hauerwas, 2004-10-07 Hauerwas explores why we so fervently seek explanations for suffering and evil and he shows how modern medicine has become a god to which we look in vain for deliverance from the evils of disease and mortality The Evidential Argument from Evil William L. Rowe, Paul Draper, Richard Swinburne, Eleonore Stump, Alvin Plantinga, William P. Alston, Stephen J. Wykstra, Peter van Inwagen, Bruce Russell, Richard M. Gale, 2008-10-17 Is evil evidence against the existence of God A collection of essays by philosophers theologians and other scholars Even if God and evil are compatible it remains hotly contested whether evil renders belief in God unreasonable The Evidential Argument from Evil presents five classic statements on this issue by eminent philosophers and theologians and places them in dialogue with eleven original essays reflecting new thinking by these and other scholars The volume focuses on two versions of the argument The first affirms that there is no reason for God to permit either certain specific horrors or the variety and profusion of undeserved suffering The second asserts that pleasure and pain given their biological role are better explained by hypotheses other than theism Contributors include William P. Alston Paul Draper Richard M. Gale Daniel Howard Snyder Alvin Plantinga William L. Rowe Bruce Russell Eleonore Stump Richard G. Swinburne Peter van Inwagen and Stephen John Wykstra Health, Healing and the Church's Mission Willard M. Swartley, 2012-08-02 Does the Christian community have the resources to develop a coherent response to today's health care challenges In a comprehensive survey covering the full scope of the Bible and three millennia of Christian belief and practice Willard Swartley fleshes out the central place of health care in the church's mission Naming the Silences Stanley Hauerwas, 1993 Sanctify them in the Truth Stanley Hauerwas, 2016-01-28 In Sanctify them in the Truth Stanley Hauerwas provides an overview of the development of theology and ethics He considers how the two disciplines interrelate discusses the nature of sin how any account of sin requires a more determinative account of moral law the nature of sanctification the body as a subject for Christian holiness and the relationship between sanctification and truthfulness The volume ends with sermons Hauerwas emphasizes the freedom the sermons create as they remind us that the words we use are not our words The inclusion of sermons also underlines Hauerwas' point that the truth of the gospel cannot be discovered apart from its embodiment in specific communities of faith The Christian life he argues is not about being in possession of the truth defined as a set of timeless and universal principles of belief and action Rather it is about learning and living the life of truthfulness toward God and one another For this Cornerstones edition Hauerwas has provided a new preface that places the work in the present debate and brings this remarkable work to a new audience The Center for Bioethics and Human Dignity Presents Dignity and Dying John Frederic Kilner, Arlene B. Miller, Edmund D. Pellegrino, 1996 This book offers a more well founded perspective for considering some of the significant ethical issues in the field of medicine and health care God's Not Forgotten Me Tricia Williams, 2022-05-24 What happens to faith if you get dementia Does the real you disappear Does your relationship with God evaporate as neurons begin to disconnect Will you forget God Here the voices of Christians from the evangelical tradition bring insight to the profound questions faith encounters amidst the disorientation of dementia even when my brain falls apart nothing can separate me from the love of God faith is stronger Tricia Williams seeks deeper understanding of their faith experience and practice through careful listening and theological reflection within the boundaries of a biblical agenda who I am knowing God experience and practice of faith the shadows of suffering embodied memory spiritual growth and hope for now Fresh theological insights and challenges for the church call for creative practices to nurture the faith of disciples of Jesus who live with this disease They must remind me In this book these voices reveal a growing positive experience of faith in the light of dementia and of hope in Christ Faith does not end with diagnosis God has not forgotten me And Death Shall Have Dominion:

Approaching the End Stanley Hauerwas, 2015-02-17 In this book Stanley Hauerwas explores the significance of eschatological reflection for helping the church negotiate the contemporary world In Part One Theological Matters Hauerwas directly addresses his understanding of the eschatological character of the Christian faith In Part Two Church and Politics he deals with the political reality of the church in light of the end addressing such issues as the divided character of the church the imperative of Christian unity and the necessary practice of sacrifice T&T Clark Handbook of Public Theology

, 2022-06-02 T T Clark Handbook of Public Theology introduces the various philosophical and theological positions and approaches in the emerging discourse of public theology Distinguishing public theology from political theology as well as from liberation theology this book clarifies central terms like public sphere the secular and post secularity in order to highlight the specific characteristics of public theology Its particular focus lies on the ways in which much of public theology has established itself as a contextual theology in politically secular societies aiming to continue the apologetical tradition in this specific context Depending on what is regarded as the most pressing challenge for the reasonable defence of the Christian hope in liberal democracies public theologians have focused on social ethics ecclesiology or Soteriology with the aim to strengthen the virtues needed for democratic citizenship Here attention is being paid to Protestant Catholic and Orthodox perspectives The volume further illustrates the characteristics of the discourse by introducing the ways in which public theologians have responded to concrete challenges arising in the spheres of politics economics ecology sports culture and religion To highlight the international scope of the public theological discourse the volume concludes with a summarizing overview of public theological debates in Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and Latin America

Julian of Norwich and the Problem of Evil Richard Norton, 2023-10-26 Julian of Norwich's Revelations of Divine Love grapples with the same fundamental question that has vexed philosophers and theologians since the advent of monotheistic religion and continues as a barrier to belief for many today Namely if God is so good how can natural disaster genocide trauma and my present suffering occur Historically there have been two apparently very different approaches to the problem the pastoral or practical on the one hand and the systematic on the other However Richard Norton suggests that these two lines of thought may not be as separate as they seem and may indeed be dependent on one another for their cohesion Drawing on Julian's medieval experience of personal and population wide suffering alongside that of more recent theologians such as Dorothy Solle and Jurgen Moltmann Norton constructs a compassionate model of theodicy that can be of use to both pastoral and systematic theologians Throughout he remains sensitive to the raw atrocity of evil while preserving a vision of God as the one who ensures that all shall be well

Why Do We Suffer? Daniel J. Harrington, 2000 Addressing difficult questions in a readable pastoral style Father Harrington helps you draw meaningful and personal connections between Scripture and your own experience Why Do We Suffer helps you understand the concepts and context of suffering in the Bible

Medicine and the Ethics of Care Diana Fritz Cates, Paul Lauritzen, 2002-03-01 In these essays a diverse group of ethicists draw insights from both religious and feminist scholarship in order to propose creative new approaches to the ethics of medical care While traditional ethics emphasizes rules justice and fairness the contributors to this volume embrace an ethics of care which regards emotional engagement in the lives of others as basic to discerning what we ought to do on their behalf The essays reflect on the three related themes community narrative and emotion They argue for the need to understand patients and caregivers alike as moral agents who are embedded in multiple communities who seek to attain or promote healing partly through the medium of storytelling and who do so by cultivating good emotional habits A thought provoking contribution to a field that has long been dominated by an ethics of principle Medicine and the Ethics of Care will appeal to scholars and students who want to move beyond the constraints of that traditional approach

The Chaplain's Presence and Medical Power Richard Coble, 2017-12-20 Why is loss present but rarely spoken of in the hospital system How does such silence carry over to the practices of chaplains who accompany dying patients and grieving families Richard Coble critically examines his experiences as a hospital chaplain to analyze the place of spiritual care in wider trends vexing healthcare today including its persistent disparities and its related inability to reckon with human decline Simultaneously he offers routes for chaplains to be a force of change
