Chevalier, 2020-04-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty First Century examines magical realism in literatures from around the globe Featuring twenty seven essays written by leading scholars this anthology argues that literary expressions of magical realism proliferate globally in the twenty first century due to travel and migrations the shrinking of time and space and the growing encroachment of human life on nature In this global context magical realism addresses twenty first century politics aesthetics identity and social national formations where contact between and within cultures has exponentially increased altering how communities and nations imagine themselves This text assembles a group of critics throughout the world the Americas Europe Africa Asia the Middle East and Australia who employ multiple theoretical approaches to examine the different ways magical realism in literature has transitioned to a global practice thus signaling a new stage in the history and development of the genre The Captive Marcel Proust, Dennis Joseph Enright, 1993 The narrator recounts his complicated relationship with Albertine the events that lead to their separation and his retreat to Venice Scripting Suicide in Japan Kirsten Cather, 2024-10-15 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Japan is a nation saddled with centuries of accumulated stereotypes and loaded assumptions about suicide Many pronouncements have been made about those who have died by their own hand without careful attention to the words of the dead themselves Drawing upon far ranging creations by famous twentieth and twenty first century Japanese writers and little known amateurs alike such as death poems suicide notes memorials suicide maps and manuals works of literature photography film and manga Kirsten Cather interrogates how suicide is scripted and to what end Entering the orbit of suicidal writers and readers with care she shows that through close readings these works can reveal fundamental beliefs about suicide and just as crucially about acts of writing These are not scripts set in stone but graven images and words nonetheless that serve to mourn the dead straddling two impulses to put the dead to rest and to keep them alive forever These words reach out to us to initiate a dialogue with the dead one that can reveal why it matters to write into and from the void

The Wicked Remain Laura Pohl, 2022-11-01 At Grimrose Acad mie the fairy tale deaths continue And unless the curse is broken one of the girls could be next Nani Yuki Ella and Rory have discovered the truth about the curse that s left a trail of dead bodies at Grimrose But the four still know nothing of its origins or how to stop the cycle of doomed fates And each girl harbors her own secret One is learning why she was brought to the school One struggles to keep her new and deadly power under control One knows exactly how much time she has left And one trying to escape her dark destiny will come even closer to fulfilling it Can the girls change their own stories and break the curse Or must one of them die to end it forever Perfect for fans of Cinderella is Dead and GRIMM Dark Academia Fairytale Retellings LGBTQ Rep Media Buzz for The Grimrose Girls Buzzfeed called it a book definitely worth picking up One of Book Riot s Top New YA Paperbacks for Fall A Buzzfeed Top LGBTQ YA Book to Devour A Culturess Thrilling New YA Release Featured on Tor as a new Young Adult SFF A Barnes Noble OUR MONTHLY PICK for November 2021 Praise for New York Times Bestseller The Grimrose Girls Enthralling Fans of empowering feminist fairy tale retellings will love this Kirkus Reviews STARRED REVIEW Darkly haunting and achingly romantic Ashley Poston national bestselling author of Geekerella Sink your teeth into this story and let it carry you through the woods Roseanne A Brown New York Times bestselling author of A Song of Wraiths and Ruin 21

Suicide Across Cultures Meryam Schouler-Ocak, Murad Moosa Khan, 2024-09-04 Over 700 000 people globally take their own lives every year which equates to one death by suicide every 40 seconds Among teenagers and young adults suicide is the second most common cause of death after road traffic accidents Overall almost three times as many men than women die by suicide There are however significant variations in the patterns of suicide across cultures gender age geographic locations and personal history due to the complex relationship of how these factors converge One thing that remains consistent is that every death is a tragedy for family friends and all colleagues Traditions of suicidal behaviour are deeply rooted in any given culture and so examining the cultural influences can be of paramount importance in the understanding and assessment of a suicidal crisis Suicide Across Cultures offers the opportunity to expand knowledge beyond majority groups and to look further than the dominant paradigm in suicide research treatment and prevention With the majority of global suicides taking place in non Western societies minority groups are an essential area in suicide research Written by experts from around the world this fascinating textbook includes topics and regions that are not usually covered in texts on suicide and self harm It provides a unique and important insight for academics and students in psychiatry as well as anyone from the wider public with an interest in the psychiatry of suicide across cultures

The Ethics of Suicide Margaret Pabst Battin, 2015-09-11 Is suicide wrong profoundly morally wrong Almost always wrong but excusable in a few cases Sometimes morally permissible Imprudent but not wrong Is it sick a matter of mental illness Is it a private matter or a largely social one Could it sometimes be right or a noble duty or even a fundamental human right Whether it is called suicide or not what role may a person play in the end of his or her own life This collection of primary sources the principal texts of ethical interest from major writers in western and nonwestern cultures from the principal religious traditions and from oral cultures where observer reports of traditional practices are available spanning Europe Asia the Middle East Africa Oceania the Arctic and North and South America facilitates exploration of many controversial practical issues physician assisted suicide or aid in dying suicide in social or political protest self sacrifice and martyrdom suicides of honor or loyalty religious and ritual practices that lead to death including sati or widow burning hara kiri and sallekhana or fasting unto death and suicide bombings kamikaze missions jihad and other tactical and military suicides This collection has no interest in taking sides in controversies about the ethics of suicide rather it serves to expand the character of these debates by showing them to be multi dimensional a complex and vital part of human ethical thought
