Narrative And Imagination Preaching The Worlds That Shape Us:

Narrative & Imagination Richard L. Eslinger, 1995 Eslinger's book provides a short course on narrative hermeneutics and imagination theory along with a proposal for integrating the two in preaching Kiwimade Narrative Sermons Myk Habets, 2015-01-29 This collection of over forty narrative sermons illustrates the science and art of taking a text of Scripture almost any text and crafting it into a narrative that effectively and affectively communicates the content of Holy Scripture in ways that impact the congregation Spanning the canon of Holy Scripture the present volume represents a snapshot of current preaching by Baptist women and men from Aotearoa New Zealand in an attempt to teach by illustration what narrative sermons may look like and to model the potential they have to communicate God's Word written Originally preached to a diverse range of congregations each sermon has been re-written for publication and illustrates biblical fidelity imaginative creativity and contextual sensitivity Kiwimade Narrative Sermons is a key resource text for classes on homiletics a refresher course for seasoned ministers of the Word and a devotional aid in its own right Pitfalls in Preaching Richard Eslinger, 1996 Richard Eslinger discusses with insight humor and concision what he sees as the most critical pitfalls in the various contexts of preaching and offers practical strategies for avoiding them Transforming Culture Christine Gunn-Danforth, 2009-01-01 This book introduces Jonahre a Biblically based Prophetic Imagination cinematic genre Jonahre can be implemented by following a three phase interdisciplinary process that allows production teams to submit their content intent style and format to reflect a Biblical pattern of storytelling and establish an alternative consciousness with the audience When implemented this process creates a powerful tool for transforming culture by combining communication theory and theology into a mold for communicating Spirit filled messages via moving image media The first in a trilogy of Jonahre films will be released November 2009 Preaching with All You've Got David Day, 2006 Becoming a Living Sermon Beyond spoken words what is it that really helps preachers get their message across Seasoned pastor and preaching professor David Day explores the ways in which preachers may embody their messages in their own person in the words they use through the use of objects pictures literature and drama and in the response of their audience An eloquent and compelling volume suitable for communicators from a broad range of Christian denominations it offers a practical workbook of ideas that preachers can begin using in their very next sermon FEATURES Contains many helpful examples case studies excerpts from real addresses and two or three exercises in each chapter Great as a classroom supplementary textbook Books on preaching are full of good advice writes Day This book is bursting with good ideas and inspiration but I would not call it advice It is far too refreshing and amusing to be called advice With a practical array of shalts and shalt nots both the experienced preacher and the learner will be spurred to hone their art not just that of delivering communication but of enabling transformation When it comes to preaching Day is keen to communicate propositions through pictures and theory through experience Embodying the Word does not simply describe how to do it it embodies the technique itself through countless examples and illustrations The Revd Dr Jo Bailey Wells Associate Professor of the Practice of Ministry and Bible Director of Anglican Studies Duke Divinity School

Preaching After God Phil Snider, 2012-08-01 Preaching After God is written for progressive preachers trying to find ways to effectively communicate with those who increasingly identify as the nones i e those who aren't sure what to make of God and or Christianity including those who believe in God some of the time or none of the time or all of the time which Snider tends to think includes all of us some of the time and some of us all of the time By drawing on the insights of several prominent postmodern theologians and philosophers Snider provides possibilities for preaching that highly resonate with postmodern listeners who are often suspect of religion Six lectionary based sermons are included as examples www.philsnider.net

Professional Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education Should Become More Scientific Larry Van De Creek, 2013-04-03 Does the scientific process belong in pastoral counseling Professional Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education Should Become More Scientific Yes and No examines the widespread ambivalence among pastoral caregivers and educators over the growing inclusion of science in pastoral care and counseling methodologies Twenty three seasoned professionals in the field give candid and sometimes emotional accounts of their interest in and reservations about the role scientific research plays in their profession Some authors look at the issue from a historical perspective others voice additional concerns A few make concrete proposals on how chaplaincy can become more scientific The result is a unique insight into the relationship between the secular and the religious The question of whether science belongs in pastoral care and counseling is moot pastoral care already makes extensive use of psychological testing and psychotherapeutic skills all products of scientific thinking But as technology becomes more dominant and health care delivery reflects a more corporate perspective pastoral caregivers and educators are divided on whether the changes represent the significant opportunity to improve a ministry or the surrender of the ministry's very essence The essays collected in Professional Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education Should Become More Scientific Yes and No go a step farther breaking down the issue of faith versus science into more specific questions for pastoral caregivers such as Can what you do be measured Do you have an obligation to embrace the challenge of change Is becoming more scientific a necessity for staying in touch with your health care peers How cost effective is the pastoral care you provide if it doesn't include the scientific process Could a reluctance to incorporate science into your counseling cost you your job Professional Chaplaincy and Clinical Pastoral Education Should Become More Scientific Yes and No presents thoughtful and thought provoking debate that is a must read for all pastoral caregivers and educators

From Pulpit to Fiction Allen Permar Smith, 2007 This book examines the authority and power of a sermonic text through its ctive qualities The author argues that a sermonic text functions in the manner of a work of ction and creates an event and space that forces a decision upon the reader The text creates a place where the Kingdom of God is about to happen and is happening Consequently the reader is forced to make a decision Will he or she go and do likewise or reject the Kingdom of God In this way a sermonic text acts like a work of

ction and invites a reader into its space and event If the reader of the sermonic text chooses temporally to enter the event of the text the reader has the potential to participate in its dynamics and is forced to make a decision either to believe or not believe Like a work of ction it does not require those external guarantees of authority that are found in the community of faith its doctrines creeds and ecclesiology Rather the authority of the sermonic text is intrinsic as in a work of fiction and stands on its own The discussion is interdisciplinary drawing upon literary theory cultural theory and theology

Metamorphosis Sarah Travis,2019-07-30 Post Christendom Christian leaders and preachers in North America struggle to respond to anxiety and despair about the future of the church Declining participation fewer resources decreased influence and confusion about pastoral and ecclesial identity lead to fear for the survival of the institutional church Preaching must speak to the despair and confusion faced by congregations today as well as cast a hopeful vision for an uncertain future This book argues that preachers can change the narrative of the church post Christendom by urging an exit from Christendom ecclesiology and promoting the construction of an identity that embraces vulnerability and incarnation instead of power and permanence Counterintuitively failure decrease and marginalization constitute good news for the church Through wide ranging conversation partners including postcolonial theory and theology social science systematic theology and homiletic literature this book engages preachers and scholars who seek to reimagine both gospel and ecclesial identity in order to bring new life to communities in despair Preachers participate in a process of metamorphosis in which the church s self understanding is transformed into a vulnerable incarnate community that leaves behind the character of Christendom

Feminist Reconstructions of Christian Doctrine Kathryn Greene-McCreight,2000-03-09 What is the relationship between feminist theology and classical Christian theology Is feminist theology Christian and if so in what respect and to what extent This study seeks to analyze and evaluate the relation of feminist reconstructions to traditional Christian teaching Greene McCreight uses the extent to which the biblical depiction of God is allowed to guide theological hermeneutics as a test of orthodoxy She looks at the writings of a wide range of contemporary feminist theologians discusses their doctrinal patterns and demonstrates how the Bible is used in undergirding their theological reconstructions Imagination and Adolescent Trauma Mary Caswell Walsh,2020-01-02 Exploring the role of imagination in trauma recovery the author shares the arresting dreams and stories of traumatized adolescents Describing the impact of trauma on adolescent health and development the author provides promising research into the use of breathing skills HRV Biofeedback and dream work to promote healthy breathing emotion regulation and restorative dreaming Research suggests that these interventions can decrease post traumatic distress and assist in the creation of meaningful posttraumatic narratives The author explores the role of embodied imagination in adolescent spiritual development and posttraumatic growth These interventions provide clinicians and pastoral caregivers with simple and effective ways of helping adolescents heal from trauma in holistic and dynamic ways that respect the integrated constitution of the human person "The Eyes of Your Heart" Alison

Searle,2009-04-01 This book develops a theory of imagining biblically that explores the contributions scripture can make to a new way of thinking about creativity reading interpretation and criticism The methodology employed in order to demonstrate this thesis consists of a theoretical exploration of current theological understandings of the imagination and their implications within the fields of literary studies The biblical texts locates the function generally defined as imagination in the heart the eyes of your heart Ephesians 1 18 This book assesses what the biblical text as a literary and religious document contributes to the concept of imagination Due to the eclectic nature of the individual books that comprise the scriptural canon the text is considered primarily in terms of its overarching metanarrative language genres and theological propositions Tracing the various trajectories the biblical text opens up and the ways in which they intersect with and modify post Romantic assumptions about the imagination reconfigures traditional definitions of this concept A Calvinistic evangelical hermeneutic is deployed to establish a theoretical concept of what it means to imagine biblically This is further substantiated by a comparative study of authors ranging from the seventeenth to the twentieth centuries John Bunyan Samuel Rutherford Jane Austen Charlotte Bronte and C S Lewis Each author s chapter incorporates a close reading of a key text which concretely examines various trajectories of imagining biblically including creativity faith morals narrative Romanticism and eschatology The conclusion returns to the biblical text and draws these elements together with a definition of the concept of imagining biblically and its implications for literary studies

Blessed and Beautiful Lisa Washington Lamb,2014-06-05 Colleges can do it Hospitals can do it Workplaces can do it Why does the church in the United States still find it so difficult to integrate across racial and ethnic divides In Blessed and Beautiful Lisa Lamb trains her sights on one often overlooked facet of forging life together the magnetic power of shared memories Those common narratives bind ethnic groups together and keep them apart This book explores the sociological and theological dimensions of social memory and considers the particularly powerful tool preaching could be for shaping individuals who are willing to risk remembering their people s past in church and for shaping churches capable of hearing those stories While keenly aware of the complex dynamics involved Lamb ultimately gives pastors and other church leaders a glimmer of hope as they seek to build reconciled communities of faith

Novel Preaching Alyce M. McKenzie,2010-01-01 In this lively and accessible book Alyce McKenzie explores how fiction writers approach the task of writing novels how they develop their ideas where they find their inspiration and how they turn the spark of a creative notion into words on paper that will captivate the masses McKenzie s study shows how preachers can use the same techniques to enhance their own creativity and to turn their ideas into powerful well crafted sermons Novel Preaching offers a wealth of advice from successful fiction writers including Isabelle Allende Frederick Buechner Julia Cameron Annie Dillard Natalie Goldberg Stephen King Toni Morrison Joyce Carol Oates and Melanie Rae Thorn and also includes a number of sample sermons from McKenzie herself

Unmasking Apocalyptic Texts Dorothy Jonaitis,2005 In this original and insightful book Dorothy Jonaitis offers a refreshing alternative to the popular view of biblical apocalyptic writing as gloom and doom fire and brimstone literature Rather she presents it as literature of hope and its authors as people who knew how to use their creative imaginations to communicate their hope filled messages The reader will come to see the apocalyptic authors of both the Old and the New Testaments as dramatists and will learn to preach teach and imagine their writings as dramatic messages to be applied in contemporary times of crisis

BOOK JACKET The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching ,2010-11-01 The New Interpreter s Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice

Developing Faithful Ministers Tim Ling,2013-01-25 Developing Faithful Ministers aims to support the work of all those involved in supervision and training relationships within the Church The Church recognising its call to serve God and the nation seeks to equip and develop its ministers to face the challenge of ministry in a society at the threshold of Christendom that is in a mission context It is a context where both the general public and the institutional church have significant expectations of those in ministry Indeed there is now an expectation of demonstrable capability prior to being licensed to any form of permanent tenure The demand for more professional demonstrably capable mission able and collaborative licensed ministers places particular weight on the efficacy of the initial training relationship Developing Faithful Ministers seeks to support those who find themselves in these relationships by offering both models of good practice and sustained theological reflection on what these drivers mean for developing ministry

Before the Face of God Hanneke Schaap-Jonker,2008 All over the world millions of people attend services every week and most of them will hear sermons What happens between the sermon and the listener Does the sermon become meaningful to listeners The present study in the fields of practical theology homiletics and psychology of religion combines quantitative and qualitative methods to offer an empirically based approach to the study of preaching Highlighting the psychological factors influencing how a sermon is heard this study draws theoretical insight from the works of D W Winnicott A M Rizzuto and D Bonhoeffer in its examination of the relationship between the meaning of the sermon and the hearer s God image personality and affective state

Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today's preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching Hearing the Old Testament Craig G. Bartholomew, David J. H. Beldman, 2012-05-02 Scholars discuss how contemporary Christians can better hear and appropriate God's address in the Old Testament from publisher description
