Narrative Religion And Science Fundamentalism Versus Irony 1700 1999:

Narrative, Religion and Science Stephen Prickett, 2002-03-28 Stephen Prickett explores the narrative in ways of thinking about the world over 300 years

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Health, Illness and Disease, 2021-10-25 The study of health care brings one into contact with many disciplines and perspectives including those of the provider and the patient There are also multiple academic lenses through which one can view health illness and disease This book brings together scholars from around the world who are interested in developing new conversations intended to situate health in broader social and cultural contexts This book is the outcome of the second global conference on Making Sense of Health Illness and Disease held at St Hilda's College Oxford in July 2003 The selected papers pursue a range of topics and incorporate perspectives from the humanities social sciences and clinical sciences This volume will be of interest to researchers and health care practitioners who wish to gain insight into other ways of understanding health illness and disease

Tradition and Innovation in English Retailing, 1700 to 1850 Ian Mitchell, 2016-02-24 Three decades of research into retailing in England from the seventeenth to nineteenth centuries has established a seemingly clear narrative fixed shops were widespread from an early date modern methods of retailing were common from at least the early eighteenth century shopping was a skilled activity throughout the period and consumers were increasingly part of and aware of being part of a polite and fashionable culture All of this is true but is it the only narrative Research has shown that markets were still important well into the nineteenth century and small scale producer retailers co existed with modern warehouses Many shops were not smart The development of modern retailing therefore was a fractured and fragmented process This book presents a reassessment of the standard view by challenging the usefulness of concepts like traditional and modern examining consumption and retailing as inextricably linked aspects of a single process and by using the idea of narrative to discuss the roles and perceptions of the various actors in this process such as retailers shoppers consumers local authorities and commentators The book is therefore structured around some of these competing narratives in order to provide a richer and more varied picture of consumption and retailing in provincial England

Nineteenth-Century Religion and Literature Mark Knight, Emma Mason, 2006-11-16 This work introduces key debates movements and ideas relating to the Christian religion and connects these to literary developments from 1750 1914 The authors provide close readings of popular texts and use these to explore complex religious ideas

Nature and Scripture in the Abrahamic Religions: God, Scripture and the rise of modern science (1200-1700) Jitse M. van der Meer, Scott Mandelbrote, 2008 These volumes describe how the development of the different styles of interpretation found in reading scripture and nature have transformed ideas of both the written word and the created world

Redeeming Science Vern S. Poythress, 2006 By delving into the intricate and immutable laws of nature as well as opposing beliefs the author presents a Christian response to science that urges the world to pay tribute to the God who created nature and cares for it

Original Dickens and the Bible Jennifer Gribble, 2020-12-10

At a time when biblical authority was under challenge from the Higher Criticism and evolutionary science what providence meant was the most keenly contested of questions This book takes up the controversial subject of Dickens and religion and offers a significant contribution to the interdisciplinary area of religion and literature In a close study of major novels it argues that networks of biblical allusion reveal the Judeo Christian grand narrative as key to his development as a writer and as the ontological ground on which he stands to appeal to the conscience of a Christian people Engaging the biblical narrative in dialogue with other contemporary narratives that concern themselves with origins destinations and hermeneutic decipherments the inimitable Dickens affirms the Bible s still active role in popular culture The providential thinking of two twentieth century theorists Bakhtin and Ricoeur sheds light on an exploration of Dickens s narrative theology Storying Domestic Violence Jarmila Mildorf,2007-01-01 A master of driving pace exotic setting and complex plotting Harold Lamb was one of Robert E Howard s favorite writers Here at last is every pulse pounding action packed story of Lamb s greatest hero Khlit the Cossack the wolf of the steppes Taking Psychoanalytic and Psychometric Perspectives toward a Binocular Vision of Religion Barbara Keller,2020-06-02 Psychoanalytic and Psychometric Perspectives on Religion suggests to combine perspectives from psychoanalysis and academic psychology from nomothetic and idiothetic research for more depth of vision for the current psychology of religion In this interdisciplinary study Barbara Keller demonstrates the potential of integrative perspectives by analysing topics such as religious development religion and personality and the process of working with religious issues in psychotherapy Options for the study of lived religion are discussed taking into consideration North American and European contexts of religious experience and of psychological and psychoanalytic discussion Clergy: The Origin of Species Martyn Percy,2006-12-19 Explores the origins and development of the clergy using a variety of sources and insights from thinkers such as Darwin and Foucault Modernity and the Reinvention of Tradition Stephen Prickett,2009-05-07 An original investigation into how tradition has developed over the centuries into our modern understanding of the term Phenomenology or Deconstruction? Christopher Watkin,2009-03-03 Phenomenology or Deconstruction challenges traditional understandings of the relationship between phenomenology and deconstruction through new readings of the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty Paul Ricur and Jean Luc Nancy A constant dialogue with Jacques Derrida s engagement with phenomenological themes provides the impetus to establishing a new understanding of being and presence that exposes significant blindspots inherent in traditional readings of both phenomenology and deconstruction In reproducing neither a stock phenomenological reaction to deconstruction nor the routine deconstructive reading of phenomenology Christopher Watkin provides a fresh assessment of the possibilities for the future of phenomenology along with a new reading of the deconstructive legacy Through detailed studies of the philosophy of Merleau Ponty Ricur and Nancy he shows how a phenomenological tradition much wider and richer than Husserlian or Heideggerean thought alone can take account of Derrida s critique of ontology and yet still hold a commitment to the ontological This new reading of being and presence fundamentally re draws our understanding of the relation of deconstruction and phenomenology and provides the first sustained discussion of the possibilities and problems for any future deconstructive phenomenology

Transfiguration Svein Aage Christoffersen, Martin Wangsgaard Jürgensen, Nils Holger Petersen, 2010-04 Transfiguration is a peer reviewed journal offering discussions of the relationship between art forms and Christianity in the European tradition from the early Church until today There is an increasing interest in the more or less precisely defined religious contexts of the art forms There is thus a demand for a theological journal that is not limited to the traditional matters within the discipline The term theology is here used in a broader sense that includes the modes of expression and thought which have come into existence in a historical energy field between religious practice and aesthetic display chapter an outline of a particular subfield and traces its development up to the present day Debates how the discipline may look in the future Represents all the major issues methods and positions in the field Confronting Religious Absolutism Catherine M. Wallace, 2016-10-27 Papal infallibility and biblical inerrancy provide the conceptual foundations of theocracy which is to say religiously based totalitarianism These absolutist doctrines emerge for the very first time among the Victorians they are not ancient beliefs at all They appear in the 19th century right alongside secular varieties totalitarian thought and in response to all the same cultural anxieties Reactionary religious leaders used these doctrines to oppose scholarly conclusions in geology and evolutionary biology That much everyone knows What is not as well known is the fact that their principal target was Christian humanist biblical scholarship an unbroken 500 year tradition of inquiry undertaken primarily by Christian clergy and seminary faculty The alternative to faith based totalitarianism is faith based upon the imagination our most sophisticated cognitive skill Faith rooted in the moral imagination does not depend upon abject deference to an array of rigid doctrines and improbable claims Wallace contends that faith is best understood as a creative process and religion is best understood as a multi media art and originally the Mother of all arts The arts convince they do not command They persuade they do not prove The arts provide humane resources whereby we grapple with life's deepest mysteries Symbolism like quantum mathematics is a tool for grappling with inescapable paradox at the heart of reality It is an ancient strategy for articulating what we discover at the elusive mind body interface The Alchemy of Conquest Ralph Bauer, 2019-10-08 The Age of the Discovery of the Americas was concurrent with the Age of Discovery in science In The Alchemy of Conquest Ralph Bauer explores the historical relationship between the two focusing on the connections between religion and science in the Spanish English and French literatures about the Americas during the early modern period As sailors conquerors travelers and missionaries were exploring new worlds and claiming ownership of them early modern men of science redefined what it means to discover something Bauer explores the role that the verbal conceptual and visual language of alchemy played in the literature of the discovery of the Americas and in the rise of an early modern paradigm of discovery in both science and international law The book traces the intellectual and spiritual legacies of late medieval alchemists such as Roger Bacon Arnald of Villanova and Ramon Llull in the early modern literature of the conquest of America in texts written by authors such as Christopher Columbus Amerigo Vespucci Jos de Acosta Nicol's Monardes Walter Raleigh Thomas Harriot Francis Bacon and Alexander von Humboldt Edinburgh Companion to the Bible and the Arts Stephen Prickett, 2019-08-07 Examines the changing relationship between the Bible and the arts showing how the arts portray biblical stories in various ways and through various media and how the Bible is actually multiple entities fiercely contested translations in many languages Generously illustrated with examples including painting architecture and stained glass
