Narrative Violence And The Law The Essays Of Robert Cover:

Narrative, Violence, and the Law Robert M. Cover, 1992 Essential writings of the leading scholar of law and violence Preface to Narrative, Violence, and the Law Aviam Soifer, 2010 It was wonderful to learn with Robert Cover Yet Bob Cover did not stand out as a teacher in the classic scene He was hardly a dazzling orator he did not adopt the entertainer s role for his audience nor did his classroom zing with the tension of the so called Socratic method done well His classes and even his style on the lecture platform mirrored his probing open minded everyday conversations In those conversations Bob Cover turned everyone family children law students friends workers and other scholars into his fellow students Canon of American Legal Thought David Kennedy, William W. Fisher III, 2018-06-05 This anthology presents for the first time full texts of the twenty most important works of American legal thought since 1890 Drawing on a course the editors teach at Harvard Law School the book traces the rise and evolution of a distinctly American form of legal reasoning These are the articles that have made these authors from Oliver Wendell Holmes Ir to Ronald Coase from Ronald Dworkin to Catherine MacKinnon among the most recognized names in American legal history These authors proposed answers to the classic question What does it mean to think like a lawyer an American lawyer Their answers differed but taken together they form a powerful brief for the existence of a distinct and powerful style of reasoning and of rulership The legal mind is as often critical as constructive however and these texts form a canon of critical thinking a toolbox for resisting and unravelling the arguments of the best legal minds Each article is preceded by a short introduction highlighting the article s main ideas and situating it in the context of its author's broader intellectual projects the scholarly debates of his or her time and the reception the article received Law students and their teachers will benefit from seeing these classic writings in full in the context of their original development For lawyers the collection will take them back to their best days in law school All readers will be struck by the richness the subtlety and the sophistication with which so many of what have become the clich s of everyday legal argument were originally formulated The Legacy of Hans Ionas Hava Tirosh-Samuelson, Christian Wiese, 2008-06-25 An international interdisciplinary and interreligious retrospective examination of Hans Jonas 1903 1993 that engages his ideas in light of Existentialism utopian thought process philosophy and theology Zionism and environmentalism Doing Justice to History Barrie Sander, 2021-03-09 As communities struggle to make sense of mass atrocities expectations have increasingly been placed on international criminal courts to render authoritative historical accounts of episodes of mass violence Taking these expectations as its point of departure this book seeks to understand international criminal courts through the prism of their historical function The book critically examines how such courts confront the past by constructing historical narratives concerning both the culpability of the accused on trial and the broader mass atrocity contexts in which they are alleged to have participated The book argues that international criminal courts are host to struggles for historical justice discursive contests between different actors vying for judicial acknowledgement of their interpretations of the past By examining these struggles within different institutional settings the book uncovers the legitimating qualities of international criminal judgments In particular it illuminates what tends to be foregrounded and included within as well as marginalised and excluded from the narratives of international criminal courts in practice What emerges from this account is a sense of the significance of thinking about the emancipatory limits and possibilities of international criminal courts in terms of the historical narratives that are constructed and contested within and beyond the A Companion to the Anthropology of the Middle East Soraya Altorki, 2015-04-22 A Companion to the Anthropology of the Middle East presents a comprehensive overview of current trends and future directions in anthropological research and activism in the modern Middle East Named as one of Choice's Outstanding Academic Titles of 2016 Offers critical perspectives on the theoretical methodological and pedagogical goals of anthropology in the Middle East Analyzes the conditions of cultural and social transformation in the Middle Eastern region and its relations with other areas of the world Features contributions by top experts in various Middle East anthropological specialties Features in depth coverage of issues drawn from religion the arts language politics political economy the law human rights multiculturalism and globalization The Jurisprudence of Emergency Nasser Hussain, 2009-11-11 Explores the intricate and delicate relationship between the concepts of a rule of law and emergency Lethal Force, the Right to Life and the ECHR Stephen Skinner, 2019-08-22 In its case law on the use of lethal and potentially lethal force the European Court of Human Rights declares a fundamental connection between the right to life in Article 2 of the European Convention on Human Rights and democratic society This book discusses how that connection can be understood by using narrative theory to explore Article 2 law s specificities and its deeper historical social and political significance Focusing on the domestic policing and law enforcement context the book draws on an extensive analysis of case law from 1995 to 2017 It shows how the connection with democratic society in Article 2 s substantive and procedural dimensions underlines the right to life s problematic duality as an expression of a basic value demanding a high level of protection and a contextually limited provision allowing states leeway in the use of force Emphasising the need to identify clear standards in the interpretation and application of the right to life the book argues that Article 2 laws narrative dimensions bring to light its core purposes and values These are to extract meaning from pain and death ground democratic society s foundational distinction between acceptable force and unacceptable violence and indicate democratic society s essential attributes as a restrained responsible and reflective system

Moscati, Michael Palmer, Marian Roberts, 2020-12-25 Comparative Creed Dispute Resolution offers an original wide ranging and invaluable corpus of chapters on dispute resolution Enriched by a broad comparative vision and a focus on the processes used to handle disputes this study adds significantly to the discourse around comparative legal studies Chapters present new understandings of theoretical comparative and transnational dimensions of the manner in which societies and their legal systems respond to difficulties in social relations Imagining the Other and Constructing Israelite Identity in the Early Second Temple Period Ehud Ben Zvi, Diana Vikander Edelman, 2015-01-29 This volume sheds light on how particular constructions of the Other contributed to an ongoing process of defining what Israel or an Israelite was or was supposed to be in literature taken to be authoritative in the late Persian and Early Hellenistic periods It asks who is an insider and who an outsider Are boundaries permeable Are there different ideas expressed within individual books What about constructions of the partial Other from inside e g women people whose body did not fit social constructions of normalness It includes chapters dealing with theoretical issues and case studies and addresses similar issues from the perspective of groups in the late Second Temple period so as to shed light on processes of continuity and discontinuity on these matters Preliminary forms of five of the contributions were presented in Thessaloniki in 2011 in the research programme Production and Reception of Authoritative Books in the Persian and Hellenistic Period at the Annual Meeting of European Association of Biblical Studies EABS
