Alternative Schooling and Student Engagement Nina Bascia, Esther Sokolov Fine, Malcolm Levin, 2017-08-14 This book explores the unique phenomenon of public alternative schools in Toronto Canada and other large urban areas Although schools of this kind have existed for more than a century very little has been written about the alternative school movement These alternatives focus more on child centered instruction give many students and teachers opportunities to organize the school differently provide a greater voice for teachers students and parents and engage students far more with experiential learning When traditional school structures are failing to meet the needs of many children and youth there is a rapidly growing need for information and discussion about alternatives that will encourage their talents and serve their needs This book draws attention to the issue of alternative schooling to help make it more accessible to a wider audience

Narrative Life Neil Hooley, 2009-04-29 Indigenous education is one of the great challenges facing humanity in the historic quest for a democratic and peaceful future The 370 million Indigenous peoples of the world demand that the racist and colonial wrongs of the past be rectified and that they stand as equals in confronting the social political and cultural problems that surround us all Education offers a way forward whether concerned with the public good schooling for all citizens including universal primary education and expanding secondary education the education of women regardless of background the inclusion of local cultures literacy and numeracy for all as a democratic right and the provision of comprehensive education that enables both personal aspiration cultural satisfaction and economic pathways What this means is that all children no matter where they live no matter what their background or the colour of their skin should expect to have access to education of the highest quality This does not impose a particular style of education for local communities but respects that educational directions must be decided independently by countries themselves Within this general context there is also something most profound about Indigenous knowing of appreciating Indigenous perspectives and applying these across all knowledge across all subjects of a curriculum Rather than accepting the one often highly conservative and dominant view of knowledge teaching and learning for all schools Indigenous perspectives offer other insights and means of analysis reflection and critique These can open up fields of creative and critical learning for all children including the dispossessed marginalised and disenfranchised

Transformative Teaching Darrell Dobson, 2008-01-01 This is a book that supports teachers teacher educators and educational researchers as they strive for ways to make their work more authentic more meaningful and therefore more spiritual Dobson describes the practices of exemplary teachers offers a theoretical framework for transformative teaching and includes useful examples that the reader can readily include in her own teaching and or research Dobson offers two innovative methods of teacher reflectivity Interacting Narratives and Archetypal Reflectivity and an original methodology of teaching literature and the arts that draws on the insights of depth psychology Interwoven throughout the book is Dobson's own story that of an at risk student who was deeply affected by his high school experiences with drama and literature The book will be of interest to teachers in all fields but particularly in literature and the arts It will appeal to teacher educators educational researchers those interested in analytical psychology those interested in narrative approaches to teacher education and those interested in narrative approaches to educational research It will be useful in courses that focus on the construction of teachers professional knowledge and reflective practices as well as methodology classes in literature drama and all the arts The book will also be of interest in qualitative arts based research methodology classes The Quest for Meaning ,2009-01-01 The Quest for Meaning Teaching Learning and the Arts presents a narrative arts based approach to pedagogy and research in higher education Through narratives of experience the book offers revealing poignant examples of the transformative power of the arts and of narrative inquiry in learners lives and of the centrality of story in their ongoing quest for meaning The Quest for Meaning will be valuable in a wide range of graduate and undergraduate settings It provides a framework for the development of new pedagogies which integrate the theory and practice of narrative arts based approaches to education The work makes a contribution to the fields of narrative and arts based inquiry and pedagogy qualitative research methods holistic and integrated studies and self directed inquiry It will appeal to a range of audiences who are interested in this creative integrative approach to education and who want to gain insights into how students learn from their own unique perspectives Grounded in Dr Beattie s interconnected approach to research and pedagogy the book begins with her own story of teaching learning research and the arts This provides the backdrop to an account of a collaborative pedagogy designed to enable students to conduct in depth narrative inquiries into their lives and to learn how to do narrative arts based research with others The author provides insights into the practices and processes of solitary and collaborative inquiry and the interaction and integration that take place within the three kinds of dialogue she proposes the dialogue with the self the dialogue with others and the dialogue between the dialogues The book s other twelve narratives show from learners unique perspectives how the creation and re creation of their ways of ways of knowing and being is a distinctively individual process involving all aspects of their humanity Individually these narratives provide valuable glimpses into the challenges the joys the frustrations and emotionality and the important personal satisfactions involved in the processes of learning unlearning and re learning In their own voices these learners tell of the diverse ways in which they became more responsive to their own inner lives to the perspectives and understandings of others and to the creation of more meaningful narratives for their current and future lives Collectively the narratives highlight the importance of recognizing personal experience in settings of higher education They also present compelling evidence for acknowledging the significance of inquiry creativity imagination dialogue interaction and integration in enabling learners to bring the whole of their being to the learning process to the exploration of the stories by which they live and to the creation of new narratives for their future lives Being with A/r/tography ,2008-01-01 Being with A r tography is a collection of essays that explain and exemplify the arts based research methodology called a r tography Edited by four scholars who are artists researchers and teachers a r tographers this book is a methodology book for practitioners in arts based educational research In addition to an introductory essay which contextualizes and theorizes the methodological framework of a r tography the book is divided into three main thematic sections that are integral to a r tographical research 1 self study and autobiography 2 communities of a r tographic practice 3 ethics and activism The book concludes with a consideration of issues related to assessment validity and interpretation Being with A r tography will be an excellent core text in graduate courses that focus on arts based educational research as well as a valuable text in pre service teacher education programs The book will also be significant for qualitative research courses in all the social sciences and the health sciences including communication studies nursing counseling psychology and arts therapy The book provides a clear and comprehensive introduction to a r tography Even though a r tography as a research methodology is relatively new in the scholarly field Being with A r tography spells out how scholarly practitioners who are artists and researchers and teachers have been pursuing this kind of research for a long time

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Alberta Journal of Educational Research ,2007 The Art of Learning to Teach Mary Beattie,2007 For courses in Student Teaching and Field Experience The goal of this text is to help teachers to create and recreate their professional knowledge through reflection and inquiry Readers are given the opportunity to examine and consider a variety of possible responses to teaching and learning situations and to relate their thinking to their own experience and developing professional knowledge Readers are invited to reflect and respond individually and collaboratively to what they read and to document their reflections responses and ongoing inquiry In this way teachers can use what they learn to build their own unique professional knowledge in teaching and to plan their future actions and professional practices Canadian Books in Print ,1975 American Educational Research Association Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,2004 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2004 Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur ,2004 For Faith and Fortune JoEllen McNergney

Vinyard,1998 Even before the massive European immigrations of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Detroit had a tradition of Catholicism Multiple immigrant groups became part of the city and considered it important to educate their daughters as well as their sons within the Church JoEllen McNergney Vinyard s comprehensive examination of parochial education in Detroit within the broader context of that city s urbanization patterns yields a richly detailed addition to our understanding of the European immigrant experience For Faith and Fortune will be of interest to historians and scholars of urban studies particularly immigration schooling and the Catholic experience Struggles and Celebration ,1990

Dimensions ,2006 Dimensions is the annual student produced journal of architecture at the University of Michigan It seeks to contribute to the critical discourse of architectural education by documenting the most compelling work produced by its students faculty fellows and visiting lecturers Taking Off the Cape Fred Steven Brill,2006 Becoming Laura Colket,Adam Carswell,Tracy Penny Light,2021-04 Becoming Transformative Storytelling for Education s Future is a collection of powerful stories about teaching and learning The book illuminates an inquiry process for educators to reflect on and tell their own stories of teaching and learning in order to fuel personal professional and organizational transformation

The inquiry and storytelling process is modeled throughout the book by the author chapters Through their educational autobiographies the authors uncover opportunities for making changes in their own educational practices as well as those of the organizations in which they work and teach The stories also surface challenges in the broader education system and the authors consider the ways to create more equitable culturally sustaining and transformative educational experiences for all students Readers can engage with the stories in the volume to inspire their own personal and professional growth and perhaps even more powerfully readers can dive into the process themselves This book provides readers with the structure and motivation to surface share and engage with their own stories of teaching and learning and to invite their colleagues into the process to collectively consider the possibilities for transformation within their own educational contexts
