Learning from Victims' Family Narratives Morag C. Kennedy,2025-07-08 Offering a new perspective on intimate partner abuse and homicide this book recognises the families of victims as legitimate agents of knowledge in terms of the harm experienced by their family members and considers how this harm is extended to the families themselves Examining harm from both an offline and online point of view the book explains the multipurpose roles of offline and online harm and how these roles do not occur in isolation in terms of the victims and families abusive experiences In doing so it demonstrates the range of harm experienced in the context of intimate partner abuse and homicide and outlines the overlapping nature of offline and online harm without prioritising one form of harm over the other instead considering the harm experienced as a continuum Providing theoretical and empirical contributions that are largely absent from existing victimology and harm literature Learning from Victims Family Narratives The Impact of Offline and Online Harm in Cases of Intimate Partner Homicide will be of interest to scholars researchers students and practitioners exploring the modern conceptualisation of harm and its impact on individuals beyond the victim and perpetrator What's Cooking Mom? Narratives about Food and Family Tanya M. Cassidy, 2015-12-01 What's Cooking Mom offers original and inventive narratives including auto ethno graphic discussions of representations discourses and practices about and by mothers regarding food and families These narratives discuss the multiple strategies through which mothers manage feeding themselves and others and how these are shaped by international and regional food politics by global and local food cultures and by their own ethical values and preference as well as by those of the ones they feed Sociology and Social Anthropology in India Yogesh Atal, 2009 The Indian Council of Social Science Research the premier organization for social science research in India conducts periodic surveys in the major disciplines of the social sciences to assess disciplinary developments as well as to identify gaps in Re-Imagining Sociology in India Gita Chadha, M.T. Joseph, 2018-05-16 This book maps research in these disciplines the intersections between sociology and feminism in the Indian context It retrieves the lives and work of women pioneers of and in sociology asking crucial questions of their feminisms and their sociologies. The chapters address the experiential realities of women in the field pedagogical issues methodological frameworks mentoring processes and artistic engagements with academic work The volume s strength lies in bringing together Indian scholars from diverse social backgrounds and regions reflecting on the specificity of the Indian social sciences. The chapters cover a range of key areas including sexuality law environment science and medicine This volume will greatly interest students teachers researchers and practitioners of sociology women s studies gender studies and feminism politics and postcolonial studies Revisionary Narratives Naïma Hachad, 2019 Revisionary Narratives examines the historical and formal evolutions of Moroccan women s auto biography in the last four decades particularly its conflation with testimony and its expansion beyond literary texts It analyzes auto biographical and testimonial acts in Arabic colloquial Moroccan Darija French and English in the fields of prison narratives visual arts theater performance and digital media situating them within specific sociopolitical and cultural contexts of production and consumption Part One begins by tracing the rise of a feminist consciousness in prison narratives produced and or published in the late 1970s through the 2000s Part Two moves to analyzing the ubiquity of auto biography and testimony in the arts as well as contemporary sociopolitical activism The focus throughout the various case studies is women s engagement with patriarchal and neo imperial norms and practices as they relate to their experiences of political violence activism migration and displacement To understand why and how women collapse the boundaries between autobiography biography testimony and sociopolitical commentary the book employs a broad transdisciplinary montage approach that combines theories on gender and autobiography and takes into account postcolonial postmodern transnational transglobal and translocal perspectives Doing so the book marks auto biography and testimony as a specific field of inquiry within the study of women's postcolonial cultural productions in the Moroccan and more broadly the Maghrebi and the Middle Eastern Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women s studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors Male Bodies, Women's Souls LeeRar Costa, 2013-01-11 Get a detailed look at the Thai sex gender systemthrough analysis of the personal stories from transgendered youth in Thailand The Thai term sao braphet song a second type of woman describes males who reject the gender of masculinity for femininity Male Bodies Women's Souls Personal Narratives of Thailand's Transgendered Youth uses the narrative method stories in the words of these second type of women to analyze these transgendered experiences This previously ignored perspective of the Thai sex gender system gained through this theoretical and methodological approach offers students and general readers a rich more readily accessible foundation of knowledge about gendered subjectivity and sex gender systems Male Bodies Women's Souls Personal Narratives of Thailand's Transgendered Youth features in depth autobiographical life histories from individual Thai transgendered youth Life stories told in the participants own words provides an engaging at times touching always insightful look at Thai culture s sex gender system The authors then expertly analyze the narratives to illuminate common themes and constructions within this group allowing an opportunity for contrast and discussion on transgender experiences in other nations Male Bodies Women's Souls Personal Narratives of Thailand's Transgendered Youth analyzes the major themes in the stories including identities definitions and descriptive labels etiologies of sao braphet song ness the notion of acceptance narrator motivations for participating in the project Male Bodies Women's Souls Personal Narratives of Thailand's Transgendered Youth is illuminating reflective reading for educators undergraduate students graduate students researchers or anyone interested in discovering more about transgenderism in a specific cultural context Perspectives in Wellbeing: Narratives from the Field, 2025-04-24 Through this third volume of the series Perspectives in Wellbeing we offer students academics researchers and other stakeholders an opportunity to listen to people whose lived experiences ought to be closely considered in policy and practice.
