Narratology and Classics Irene J. F. de Jong, 2014 Narratology and the Classics is the first introduction to narratology that deals with classical narrative in epic historiography biography the ancient novel but also the many narratives inserted in drama or lyric    Emotions and Narrative in Ancient Literature and Beyond ,2022-04-25 Emotions are at the core of much ancient literature from Achilles heartfelt anger in Homer's Iliad to the pangs of love of Virgil's Dido This volume applies a narratological approach to emotions in a wide range of texts and genres It seeks to analyze ways in which emotions such as anger fear pity joy love and sadness are portrayed Furthermore using recent insights from affective narratology it studies ways in which ancient narratives evoke emotions in their readers The volume is dedicated to Irene de Jong for her groundbreaking research into the narratology of ancient literature    Thucydides : Narrative and Explanation Tim Rood, 2004-08-05 War is a harsh teacher wrote Thucydides in the fifth century BC Rood analyses the techniques through which Thucydides' narrative explains the origin and course of the Peloponnesian War and exposes harsh truths about how individuals and states behave Rood concentrates on how the use of techniques such as selectivity interaction of speech and narrative and manipulation of time and perspective points at one level to general human constraints at another to the self-destructiveness of Athens' imperial power The book explores some techniques that have received little attention and offers new ways of reading others it gives new insight into Thucydides' sophistication and the way he relates to his predecessors It is also important for its attempts to refute views that Thucydides' History is made up of different compositional strata or inspired by pro-Athenian bias And it addresses directly the way modern historians use Thucydides contributes to the contemporary debate over narrative history and shows the value of applying some of the concepts of recent narrative theory to historical texts    Aspects of Apuleius' Golden Ass Maaike Zimmerman, Vincent Hunink, Thomas D McCreight, Danielle Van Mal-Maeder, Stelios Panayotakis, V Schmidt, B Wesseling, 1998-07

protagonists from some of the most popular stories of the early 21st century Bonnie Bennett from the CW s The Vampire Diaries Rue from Suzanne Collins s The Hunger Games Gwen from the BBC s Merlin and Angelina Johnson from J K Rowling s Harry Potter Analyzing their narratives and audience reactions to them reveals how these characters mirror the violence against black and brown people in our own world In response Thomas uncovers and builds upon a tradition of fantasy and radical imagination in Black feminism and Afrofuturism to reveal new possibilities Through fanfiction and other modes of counter storytelling young people of color have reinvisioned fantastic worlds that reflect their own experiences their own lives As Thomas powerfully asserts we dark girls deserve more because we are more Understanding Barbara Kingsolver
