Landscapes of Fear Yi-Fu Tuan, 2013-04-01 To be human is to experience fear but what is it exactly that makes us fearful Landscapes of Fear written immediately after his classic Space and Place is renowned geographer Yi Fu Tuan's influential exploration of the spaces of fear and of how these landscapes shift during our lives and vary throughout history In a series of linked essays that journey broadly across place time and cultures Tuan examines the diverse manifestations and causes of fear in individuals and societies he describes the horror created by epidemic disease and supernatural visions of witches and ghosts violence and fear in the country and the city fears of drought flood famine and disease and the ways in which authorities devise landscapes of terror to instill fear and subservience in their own populations In this groundbreaking work now with a new preface by the author Yi Fu Tuan reaches back into our prehistory to discover what is universal and what is particular in our inheritance of fear Tuan emphasizes that human fear is a constant it causes us to draw what he calls our circles of safety and at the same time acts as a foundational impetus behind curiosity growth and adventure
