Only Victims A Study Of Show Business Blacklisting:

Only Victims Robert Vaughn, 1996 In a dramatic change of role the noted television and film star has written a vivid and incisive account of the House Committee on Un American Activities probe of the entertainment industry from 1938 to 1958 Formed to investigate alleged subversives by the late fifties the committee had succeeded in ruining the careers and sometimes the lives of many of Hollywood and Broadway s top writers and performers Quoting generously from transcripts of its hearings Vaughn shows how the committee s primary purpose was punitive rather than legislative and concludes that its most serious damage to American theatre and film is not easily documented the loss of all the words never written or spoken because of the impact and the fear of the committee s misdeeds

Only victims Robert Vaughn, 2004      The Hollywood

Motion Picture Blacklist Larry Ceplair, 2022-09-06 Seventy five years ago the Hollywood blacklist ruined lives stifled creativity and sent waves of proscription and censorship throughout United States culture When the Hollywood Ten refused to answer the questions of the House Committee on Un American Activities about their membership in the Communist Party they were sentenced to prison the five who were under contract were fired by their studios and all were blacklisted from reemployment until they purged themselves of their communist taint By the 1950s this blacklist publicly stigmatized nearly three hundred other Americans in the entertainment industry who invoked the First and Fifth Amendments in their refusal to apologize for their Communist ties or provide the names of other members Dozens of others were graylisted as the result of rumors The Hollywood Motion Picture Blacklist Seventy Five Years Later offers new insights on the origins of the blacklist the characteristics of those blacklisted and the probability of future proscriptions of the blacklist type Author Larry Ceplair draws on previously published work while introducing new material to vigorously recount the events that took place between the US government Hollywood unions and motion picture studios Ceplair thoroughly examines the role of Jewish identity in many anti communist efforts a concept that has never been fully examined by scholars and analyzes the actions of subpoenaed witnesses who were forced to choose between cooperating with the House Committee or joining the blacklist This fascinating book is an illuminating examination of a dark period in American history and the fragility of our rights to free speech and due process

Stay Tuned Christopher Sterling, John Michael Kittross, 2001-11-01 Since its initial publication in 1978 Stay Tuned has been recognized as the most comprehensive and useful single volume history of American broadcasting and electronic media available This third edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to bring the story of American broadcasting forward to the 21st century affording readers not only the history of the most important and pervasive institution affecting our society but also providing a contextual transition to the Internet and other modern media The enthusiasm of authors Christopher H Sterling and John Michael Kittross is apparent as they lead readers through the development of American electronic mass media from the first electrical communication telegraph and telephone through radio and television to the present convergence of media business entities programming and delivery systems including the Internet Their presentation is engaging as well as informative promoting an interest in history and making the connections between the developments of yesterday and the industry of today Features of this third edition include chronological and topical tables of contents new material reflecting modern research in the field a new chapter describing historical developments from 1988 through to the current day an expanded bibliography including Web site and museum listings an updated and expanded glossary and chronology and extensive statistical data of the development of television and radio stations networks advertising programming audiences and other aspects of broadcasting Designed for use in undergraduate and graduate courses on the history of American mass media broadcasting and electronic media Stay Tuned also fits well into mass communication survey courses as an introduction to electronic media topics As a chronicle of American broadcasting this volume is also engaging reading for anyone interested in old radio early television and the origins and development of American broadcasting

Nonviolent Action Ronald M. McCarthy, Gene Sharp, Brad Bennett, 2013-07-04 This comprehensive guide to research sources and theories about nonviolent action as a technique of struggle in social and political conflicts discusses the methods and techniques used by groups in various encounters Although violence and its causes have received a great deal of attention nonviolent action has not received its due as an international phenomenon with a long history An introduction that explains the theories and research used in the study provides a practical guide to this essential bibliography of English language sources The first part of the book covers case study materials divided by region and subdivided by country Within each country materials are arranged chronologically and topically The second major part examines the methods and theory of nonviolent action principled nonviolence and several closely related areas in social science such as conflict analysis and social movements The book is indexed by author and subject

Norma Jean Fred Lawrence Guiles, 2020-04-28 Marilyn Monroe remains the most provocative female legend of the twentieth century What you may have known about her before was only the tip of the iceberg For twenty years the men and women who knew Marilyn best saw what they knew suppressed because certain important people were still living and the tenor of the times prohibited frankness Instead rumors ballooned This book finally sets the record straight Fred Guiles whom Norman Mailer acknowledges as the chief source of fact about Marilyn has written the life behind the legend He reveals what really happened in the careening career of the pretty waif named Norma Jean Mortensen who married the boy next door became a model an actress movie star married an incompatible legend named Joe DiMaggio sought to improve the mind that came with her near perfect body married playwright Arthur Miller lent herself to the Svengalilike ministrations of Paula and Lee Strasberg became the mistress of John and then Robert Kennedy when they ran the country kept camera crews and studios waiting but not death which took her under the most unusual circumstances by the age of thirty six A legend by definition is unaltered by fact but the enthralled reader will find the revelations in this book no deterrent to the love of Marilyn Monroe by understanding at last what happened to the Queen of Need Among the people interviewed for this book are Arthur Miller

Communism in Hollywood Alan Casty, 2009 Drawing on newly available material Casty illustrates the control by the international Communist movement and the role of the Hollywood Communists themselves in fomenting the intense hostilities of the period Casty juxtaposes the actions and statements of those who testified and named names before HUAC with Communists who refused to testify and remained silent about the atrocities of the Soviet Union By providing a scrupulous account of the full scope of the Communist Party in Hollywood this book presents a more accurate picture of the moral quandaries faced during this dark period in American history BOOK JACKET

Entertainment Labor Jonathan Handel, 2013 A must have for academics and attorneys working in entertainment labor Entertainment Labor An Interdisciplinary Bibliography is a 345 page annotated bibliography of over 1 500 books articles dissertations legal cases and other resources dealing with entertainment unions and guilds and select other aspects of entertainment labor Also included are Annotations where necessary to explain the relevance of the book or article Capsule descriptions of legal cases Page references where only a portion of the book or article is relevant URLs for full text articles that are available online at no charge A detailed chapter on materials available from the unions and guilds themselves A 90 page index

Hollywood's Cold War Tony Shaw, 2007-09-19 Hollywood's Cold War

Hollywood Riots Doug Dibbern, 2015-12-17 The large literature about the politics of Hollywood in the period of McCarthy and the blacklist has largely overlooked political filmmaking during those agitated years Hollywood Riots examines the most vibrant cycle of independently produced political films made while House Committee on Un American Activities was investigating communists in the film industry In doing so it shifts the focus from the politics of Washington to the politics of Los Angeles and from the films of the Hollywood Ten to the more politically complex films of the progressive community at large Dibbern shows how the movies produced by progressives at the end of the 1950s including The Lawless The Sound of Fury The Underworld were the logical cinematic parallel to their political and journalistic advocacy fighting the conservative newspapers In these films they were recasting political events from California's recent past as politically engaged narratives that were inflected with their own fears of persecution Hollywood Riots reviews the work of notable directors like Joseph Losey and Cy Endfield as well as introducing unheralded political screenwriters and directors such as Daniel Mainwaring Jo Pagano and Leo C Popkin

The Broadcast 41 Carol A Stabile, 2018-10-16 How forty one women including Dorothy Parker Gypsy Rose Lee and Lena Horne were forced out of American television and radio in the 1950s Red Scare At the dawn of the Cold War era forty one women working in American radio and television were placed on a media blacklist and forced from their industry The ostensible reason so called Communist influence But in truth these women among them Dorothy Parker Lena Horne and Gypsy Rose Lee were by nature of their diversity and ambition a threat to the traditional portrayal of the American family on the airwaves This book from Goldsmiths Press describes what American radio and television lost when these women were blacklisted documenting their aspirations and achievements Through original archival research and access to FBI blacklist documents The Broadcast 41 details the blacklisted women s attempts in the 1930s and 1940s to depict America as diverse complicated and inclusive The book tells a story about what happens when non male non white perspectives are excluded from media industries and it imagines what the new medium of television might have looked like had dissenting viewpoints not been eliminated at such a formative moment The all white male dominated Leave it to Beaver America about which conservative politicians wax nostalgic existed largely because of the forcible silencing of these forty one women and others like them For anyone concerned with the ways in which our cultural narrative is constructed this book offers an urgent reminder of the myths we perpetuate when a select few dominate the airwaves

Wasn't That a Time Jesse Jarnow, 2018-11-06 The dramatic untold story of the Weavers the hit making folk pop quartet destroyed with the aid of the United States government and who changed the world anyway Following a series of top ten hits that became instant American standards the Weavers dissolved at the height of their fame Wasn t That a Time The Weavers the Blacklist and the Battle for the Soul of America details the remarkable rise of Pete Seeger s unlikely band of folk heroes from basement hootenannies to the top of the charts and the harassment campaign that brought them down Exploring how a pop group s harmonies might be heard as a threat worthy of decades of investigation by the FBI Wasn t That a Time turns the black and white 1950s into vivid color using the Weavers to illuminate a dark and complex period of American history With origins in the radical folk collective the Almanac Singers and the ambitious People s Songs the singing activists in the Weavers set out to change the world with songs as their weapons pioneering the use of music as a transformative political organizing tool Using previously unseen journals and letters unreleased recordings once secret government documents and other archival research Jesse Jarnow uncovers the immense hopes incredible pressures and daily struggles of the four distinct and often unharmonious personalities at the heart of the Weavers In an era defined by a sharp political divide that feels all too familiar the Weavers became heroes With a class and race conscious global vision that now makes them seem like time travelers from the twenty first century the Weavers became a direct influence on a generation of musicians and listeners teaching the power of eclectic songs and joyous participatory harmonies

Hollywood Divided Kevin Brianton, 2016-11-15 On October 22 1950 the Screen Directors Guild SDG gathered for a meeting at the opulent Beverly Hills Hotel Among the group s leaders were some of the most powerful men in Hollywood John Ford Cecil B DeMille Joseph L Mankiewicz John Huston Frank Capra William Wyler and Rouben Mamoulian and the issue on the table was nothing less than a vote to dismiss Mankiewicz as the guild s president after he opposed an anticommunist loyalty oath that could have expanded the blacklist The dramatic events of that evening have become mythic and the legend has overshadowed the more complex realities of this crucial moment in Hollywood history In Hollywood Divided Kevin Brianton explores the myths associated with the famous meeting and the real events that they often obscure He analyzes the lead up to that fateful summit examining the pressure exerted by the House Un American Activities

Committee Brianton reveals the internal politics of the SDG its initial hostile response to the HUAC investigations the conservative reprisal and the influence of the oath on the guild and the film industry as a whole Hollywood Divided also assesses the impact of the historical coverage of the meeting on the reputation of the three key players in the drama Brianton s study is a provocative and revealing revisionist history of the SDG s 1950 meeting and its lasting repercussions on the film industry as well as the careers of those who participated Hollywood Divided illuminates how both the press s and the public s penchant for the exciting story have perpetuated fabrications and inaccurate representations of a turning point for the film industry

Hollywood's Blacklists Reynold Humphries,2008-09-10 Are you now or have you ever been a member of the Communist Party That question was to be repeated endlessly during the anti Communist investigations carried out by the House Committee on un American Activities HUAC in the early 1950s The refusal of ten members of the film industry to answer the question in 1947 led to the decision by studio bosses to fire them and never to hire known Communists in the future The Hearings led to scores of actors writers and directors being named as Communists or sympathisers All were blacklisted and fired Hollywood s Blacklists is a history of the political and cultural factors relevant to understanding the why and the how of the various investigations of the alleged Communist infiltration of Hollywood What was HUAC What propaganda role did films play during World War II and the Cold War What values were at stake in the confrontation between Left and Right that saw the former so resoundingly defeated and expelled from Hollywood Answers to these and other questions are offered via analyses of the motives of the various players and of the tactics deployed by HUAC to reward collaboration and punish dissent

Robert Rossen Alan Casty,2013-03-13 This book calls for a re evaluation of the films of Robert Rossen Over a 30 year period he was the most accomplished writer and director who was also a longtime member of the Communist Party but his achievement has not been recognized his films have been belittled or ignored his legacy denied Rossen s films reflected his times and the American scene with a dramatic intensity and personal expression unmatched by any other filmmaker of the period The stages of his political journey from idealism about Communism to his rebellion against the Party s betrayal of those ideals influenced the rendering of his concerns and themes the flaws of human nature the complexities of motives the paradoxes of betrayal personal and political Yet Rossen testified against his fellow filmmakers and so his morals and character have been denounced his work diminished as fatally marred by his moral flaws The opposite is true Here is a thorough analysis of each of his 22 films and their place in the developing themes of his body of work It integrates this study of the films with a documented narrative of his relationship to the Party its history and conflicts its duplicities especially the relations of the Party and its followers to the oppressions of the Soviet Union And so it challenges the validity of the conventional wisdom about the moral issues of the blacklist period

Hollywood's High Noon Thomas Cripps,1996-11-13 A lively narrative history of Hollywood s classical age Over the last twenty five years the field of cinema studies has offered a dramatic reassessment of the history of film in general and of Hollywood in particular Writers have drawn on the methodologies of a number of disciplines literary criticism sociology psychology women s studies and minority and gay studies to deepen our understanding of motion pictures the film industry and movie theater audiences In Hollywood s High Noon noted film historian Thomas Cripps offers a lively narrative history of Hollywood s classical age that brings the insights of recent scholarship to students and general readers From its origin during the First World War to the beginning of its decline in the 1950s Cripps writes Hollywood operated as did other American industries movies were created by a rational production system regulated by both government and privately organized interests and subject to the whims of a fickle marketplace Yet these films did offer consumers something unique in darkened movie palaces across the country audiences projected themselves their hopes and ideas onto silver screens profoundly mediating their reception of Hollywood s flickering images Beginning with turn of the century moving picture pioneer Thomas Edison Cripps traces the invention of Hollywood and the development of the studio system He explores the movie going experience the struggle for social control over the movies through censorship the impact of sound on the style and content of films alternatives to Hollywood s oligopoly including race films and documentaries the paradoxical predictability and subversive creativity of genre pictures and Hollywood s self proclaimed shining moment during the Second World War Cripps concludes with a discussion of the collapse of the studio system after the war due in equal parts to suburbanization the emergence of television and government anti trust action

Bombs in the Backyard A. Constandina Titus, 2016-04-15 On January 27 1951 the first atomic weapon was detonated over a section of desert known as Frenchman Flat in southern Nevada providing dramatic evidence of the Nevada Test Site s beginnings Fifty years later author A Costandina Titus reviews contemporary nuclear policy issues concerning the continued viability of that site for weapons testing Titus has updated her now classic study of atomic testing with fifteen years of political and cultural history from the mid 1980s Reagan Gorbachev nuclear standoff to the authorization of the Nevada Test Site Research Center a Desert Research Institute facility scheduled to open in 2001 In this second edition of Bombs in the Backyard Titus deftly covers the post Cold War transformation of American atomic policy as well as our overarching cultural interest in all matters atomic making this a must read for anyone interested in atomic policy and politics

The Subversive Screen Brian E. Birdnow, 2019-01-17 A riveting chronicle of Communist Party efforts to propagate Communism in the United States concurrent with Hollywood s Golden Age of creativity that came to define classical Hollywood cinema From the Great Depression through World War II the American Communist Party tried to take control of the motion picture industry This comprehensive and chronological account of Communist influence in Hollywood surveys the topic from the Popular Front s fight against Fascism during the 1930s to the height of the House Un American Activities Committee hearings in the late 1940s Birdnow an established historian and chronicler of domestic Communism outlines Communist International s organizational efforts promoting international communism focusing on the work of Communist political activists such as Willi M nzenberg a media mogul with an international network Gerhart Eisler patron of a

Hollywood composer and Otto Katz a high profile publicist of the party line involved in movies in the 1930s and 1940s The book explores the covert ways in which Hollywood Communists and Soviet sympathizers attempted to tailor movie scripts to suit the Soviet agenda and discusses Communist front groups such as the Hollywood Anti Nazi League in great detail Final chapters offer convincing proof that the directors producers and screenwriters blacklisted by studios for their possible Communist affiliations known as the Hollywood Ten were members of the Communist Party

Hollywood Exiles in Europe Rebecca Prime,2014-01-14 Rebecca Prime documents the untold story of the American directors screenwriters and actors who exiled themselves to Europe as a result of the Hollywood blacklist During the 1950s and 1960s these Hollywood migr s directed wrote or starred in almost one hundred European productions their contributions ranging from crime film masterpieces like Du rififi chez les hommes 1955 Jules Dassin director to international blockbusters like The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Carl Foreman and Michael Wilson screenwriters and acclaimed art films like The Servant 1963 Joseph Losey director At once a lively portrait of a lesser known American lost generation and an examination of an important transitional moment in European cinema the book offers a compelling argument for the significance of the blacklisted migr s to our understanding of postwar American and European cinema and Cold War relations Prime provides detailed accounts of the production and reception of their European films that clarify the ambivalence with which Hollywood was regarded within postwar European culture Drawing upon extensive archival research including previously classified material Hollywood Exiles in Europe suggests the need to rethink our understanding of the Hollywood blacklist as a purely domestic phenomenon By shedding new light on European cinema s changing relationship with Hollywood the book illuminates the postwar shift from national to transnational cinema
