A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-08 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation's colonial art history

"Australian Art and Artists in London, 1950-1965" Simon Pierse, 2017-07-05 Subtle and wide ranging in its account this study explores the impact of Australian art in Britain in the two decades following the end of World War II and preceding the Swinging Sixties In a transitional period of decolonization in Britain Australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art and a group of Australian artists settled in London where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital's most prestigious galleries The book traces the key influences of Sir Kenneth Clark Bernard Smith and Bryan Robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons ideologues and entrepreneurs for Australian art as well as the self definition and interaction of the artists themselves Simon Pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative including the mechanics of the British art world the limited and frustrating cultural scene of

1950s Australia and the conservative influence of Australian government bodies Publishing for the first time archival material letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in Britain or Australia this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate Australian artists living in London constructed a distinct vision of Australian identity for a foreign market

The Memoirs of a Young Bastard Tim Burstall, 2012 Tim Burstall the celebrated director of Stork Alvin Purple and numerous other definitive ocker comedies is credited with shaking the moribund Australian film industry out of its torpor But long before that in the early 1950s he began keeping a diary to record the world of the group of artists and intellectuals he was living among in Eltham then a rural area outside Melbourne where cheap land was available for mudbrick houses and studios and where suburban rigidities could be mercilessly flouted Burstall was in his mid twenties with two young sons and an open marriage with his wife Betty Eager to become a writer to go against the grain he kept a record almost daily of the parties and the talk in pubs and studios about art and politics and sex of Communist Party branch meetings and film societies of political rallies and the first Herald Outdoor Art Show Somehow while holding down a public relations job in the Antarctic Division and juggling his love affairs and obsession with the beautiful brainy Fay he wrote 500 words almost every day Betty according to the diaries kept the show on the road feeding friends after the pub milking goats and working in her pottery making bowls and mugs which Tim sometimes decorated at weekends These Memoirs of a Young Bastard as Burstall dubbed himself and them are among the most evocative Australian diaries of modern times Burstall can write He has an eye for the telling detail an unerring ear for cant and pomposity and most endearingly an ability to mock himself always from the perspective of a bloke of his generation

Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngannawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991 The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostoja Kotkowski was born in Poland Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953 Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive

Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage

Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography

A Quest for Enlightenment Christopher Heathcote, 2007 The most publicly accessible art of the late Roger Kemp is perhaps the magnificent tapestries that hang in the great hall of the National Gallery of Victoria This major figure of Australia's post war art world is the subject of Christopher Heathcote's latest book

Art Market Research Tom McNulty, 2013-12-27 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders

Permanent Revolution Richard Haese, 2012-02-01 In 1961 the 22 year old Mike Brown joined the New Zealand artist Ross Crothall in an old terrace house in inner Sydney's Annandale Over the following two years the artists filled the house with a remarkable body of work Launched with an equally extraordinary exhibition the movement they called Imitation Realism introduced collage assemblage and installation to Australian art for the first time Laying the groundwork for a distinctive Australian postmodernism Imitation Realism was also the first Australian art movement to respond in a profound way to Aboriginal art and to the tribal art of New Guinea and the Pacific region By the mid 1960s Brown was already the most controversial figure in Australian art In 1963 a key work was thrown out of a major travelling exhibition for being overtly sexual a year later he publicly attacked Sydney artists and critics for having failed the test of integrity Finally in 1966-67 Brown became the only Australian artist to have been successfully prosecuted for obscenity Brown spent the last 28 years of his life in Melbourne where his reputation for radicalism and nonconformity was cemented with his multiplicity of styles exploration of themes of sexuality and transgressive commitment to the ideal of street art and graffiti Against a background of the counter culture and the social and political upheavals of the 1960s and 1970s Brown's art and remarkable life of personal and creative struggle is without parallel in Australian art

When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green, Heather Barker, 2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists Modern Love Kendrah

Morgan, Lesley Harding, 2015-09-23 Much has been written about the lives and art of Heide but finally the remaining members of the inner circle have entrusted the full story to be told through this intimate biography of John and Sunday Reed Part romance part tragedy Modern Love explores the complex lives of these champions of successive generations of Australian artists and writers detailing their artistic endeavours and passionate personal entanglements It is a story of rebellion against their privileged backgrounds and of a bohemian existence marked by extraordinary achievements intense heartbreak and enduring love John and Sunday's was a remarkable partnership that affected all those who crossed the threshold into Heide and which altered the course of art in Australia Australian Art in the National Gallery of Australia National Gallery of Australia, Anne Gray, 2002 This broad sweeping survey of the National Gallery's paintings sculptures drawings prints photographs and decorative arts and design collections features more than 400 works Indigenous and non Indigenous works are represented with iconic favourites such as Sidney Nolan's Ned Kelly series set alongside important but lesser known acquisitions The works are arranged in chronological order from 1770 to 2002 Pre colonial and Colonial through to Art Now Insightful essays from over 50 artists curators and scholars range from personal reflections by artists discussing their own works to more discursive or critical commentaries placing works in their historical context Horizon John Neylon, Greg Johns, 2002 HORIZON GREG JOHNS SCULPTURES 1970 2002 traces the ideas and career of the Adelaide based artist from his first commission in the late 1970s through to participation in recent exhibitions in New York and Bahrain The story is told by noted Adelaide writer and art critic John Neylon of the Art Gallery of South Australia His text examines all aspects of the artist's development as a creator of large scale public sculptures and explains the philosophy that has shaped the work The reader is led through a rich array of ideas and images relating to the use of sculptural form as a language in which the works serve as metaphors for the human psyche and the natural cosmic systems that define our world A number of key sculptures are examined in detail as are issues surrounding public art and its reception within the community The processes of commissioning creating and installing the sculptures are described along with intimate glimpses into the creation of each work as it proceeds from the artist's studio to the engineering works where it is fabricated and then on to its intended site

The Backroom Boys Graeme Sligo, 2013-10-05 The Backroom Boys is the remarkable but little known story of how a varied group of talented intellectuals drafted into the Australian Army in the dark days of 1942 provided high level policy advice to Australia's most senior soldier General Blamey and through him to the Government for the remainder of the war and beyond This band of academics lawyers and New Guinea patrol officers formed a unique military unit the Directorate of Research and Civil Affairs under the command of an eccentric and masterful string puller Alf Conlon The Directorate has been depicted as a haven for underemployed poets or meddlesome soldier politicians Based on wide ranging research this book reveals a fuller and more fascinating picture The fierce conflicts in the wartime bureaucracy between public servants and soldiers in which the Directorate provided critical support to Blamey went to the heart of military command accountability and the profession of arms The Directorate was a pioneer in developing approaches to military government in areas liberated by the combat troops as demonstrated by the Australian Army in New Guinea and Borneo in 1945-46 It is an issue of enduring importance The Directorate established the Australian School of Pacific Administration and had an important role in founding the Australian National University Its influence extended into post war Australia The Backroom Boys emphasises the personality of Colonel Alf Conlon as well as the talented men and women he recruited Above all this book shows how unexpectedly the Australian Army fostered a group of men and women who made a lasting contribution to the development of Australia in the decades after the war

The Third Metropolis William Hatherell, 2007 With a focus on the literary and visual arts in particular poetry the novel and painting The Third Metropolis considers the relationship of these works of art to the actual history of the city political economic and demographic

Cultural Translation and Knowledge Transfer on Alternative Routes of Escape from Nazi Terror Susanne Korbel, Philipp Strobl, 2021-08-05 The book investigates and compares the role of artistic and academic refugees from National Socialism acting as cultural mediators or agents of knowledge between their origin and host societies By doing so it locates itself at the intersection of the recently emerging field of the history of knowledge transnational history migration exile as well as cultural transfer studies The case studies provided in this volume are of global scope focusing on routes of escape and migration to Iceland Italy the Near East Portugal and Shanghai and South Central and North America The chapters examine the hybrid ways refugees envisaged managed organized and subsequently mediated their migrations It focuses on how they dealt with their escape in their art and science The chapters ask how the emigrants located themselves did they associate with ethnic religious and or cultural affiliations specific social classes or specific parts of society and how such identifications were portrayed in their knowledge transfer and cultural translations Building on such possible avenues for research this volume aims to offer a global analysis of the multifarious processes not only of cultural translation and knowledge transfer affecting culture sciences networks but also everyday life in different areas of the world The Australian Legend and Its Discontents Richard Nile,2000 The Australian Legend and Its Discontent explores the narrative construction of Australia and those storylines preferred by Australians when describing themselves and their nation How do Australians figure in literature film and television the visual arts and daily conversation As an introductory reader The Australian Legend and Its Discontents is an indispensable tool for students and all those with a general interest in the nation and its people The book is complemented by electronic study and other notes for those who wish to explore further the issues of what it is to be Australian apinetwork.com The Antipodeans Deborah Clark,1999 In 1959 in Melbourne seven artists and an art historian came together to defend and to champion the place of the image in art The group comprised Charles Blackman Arthur Boyd David Boyd John Brack John Perceval Clifton Pugh and Robert Dickerson who as the Antipodeans held just one exhibition together at the Victorian Artists Society in August 1959 Bernard Smith the only non painter of the group drafted The Antipodean Manifesto which accompanied the exhibition The Antipodeans defended the figurative image against abstraction and contemporary Australian art as opposed to European modernism They worried that art was losing its humanistic values that it was becoming obsessed with abstract decoration at the expense of recognizable signs and symbols that while making great claims for its spiritual depths it threatened to alienate a broad cross section of the public Forty years later this volume shows the work of artists from the original Antipodean group in the context of abstract art of the period and demonstrates that at the end of the century both the Antipodeans and their abstract antagonists have taken on the status of classics A Skilled Hand and Cultivated Mind Harriet Edquist,Elizabeth Grierson,2008 Letters to a Critic Rodney James,2023-11-14 Described as arguably the most influential Australian art critic of the last half of the twentieth century Alan McCulloch's work as illustrator critic gallery director and author reflected on and documented much of this era of visual art in Australia As critic for the Melbourne Herald from 1951 to 1982 McCulloch was fundamental in the nascent careers of those who were to become some of Australia's most famous artists His monumental Encyclopedia of Australia Art first published in 1968 and still in print today has been acknowledged as the single most important reference work on Australian art ever published In Letters to a Critic curator and author Rodney James has mined the rich archival treasure of the McCulloch Papers to create a lively combination of biography and illustrated book of letters Witty irreverent profound and heartfelt these previously unpublished letters critical essays illustrations and works of art provide a unique insight into the art and lives of Australia's most famed art personalities as they simultaneously reveal McCulloch's role as critic gallery director and mentor Mystery Spinner Gideon Haigh,2018-01-02 An unconventional journey brilliantly documented Courier Mail So you want to know something about this funny old bowling of mine Well there's nothing to it It's really very simple in fact at times I do not know much about it myself In 1950 aged in his mid thirties tall shy shambling Jack Iverson burst forth from obscurity in suburban Melbourne bowled like no man before and became a national sensation then faded from view almost as swiftly He died in obscurity in tragic circumstances In the enthralling Mystery Spinner first published in 1999 one of the world's best cricket writers goes in search of an enigma an ordinary man in whom lurked the extraordinary Gideon Haigh has been a journalist for three decades writing mainly about sport and business He is the author of more than thirty books among them the award winning On Warne Certain Admissions and Stroke of Genius He lives in Melbourne One of the best cricket biographies I have ever read Wisden Cricket Monthly Even if you don't care for the game you might enjoy it Not your standard sporting biography Guardian A delight a gripping no pun intended read and an object lesson to anyone tempted to try their hand at biography ESPN cricinfo Magnificent Roar
