Quixotic Modernists Louise Ciallella, 2007 Quixotic Modernists gives close readings of two novels by two little studied writers of the early twentieth century in Spain Felipe Trigo's Las ingenuas 1901 and Maria Martinez Sierra's Tu eres la paz 1906 in relation to the canonical Tristana by Benito Perez Galdos Spain's greatest nineteenth century novelist This study shows the modern message regarding gender and modernist qualities of the prose of these works Included are discussions of Quijote intertexts proverbial language and tactics the angel and the mujer nina flower water and animal imagery and visual arts in relation to gender definition Also included are contemporary responses to the novels and material about the authors lives and Spain's social conditions in the early twentieth century Quixotic Modernists integrates these themes into a study of the novelization of difficulties in transforming contemporary gender and class roles In all three authors works this process of change in roles for both men and women becomes a quixotic enterprise in which artists as and characters search to reconnect with an elusive material social body

Erotic Faith Robert M. Polhemus, 1995-03 In this profoundly original and far reaching study Robert M Polhemus shows how novels have helped to make erotic love a matter of faith in modern life Erotic faith Polhemus argues is an emotional conviction ultimately religious in nature that meaning value hope and even the possibility of transcendence can be found in love Drawing on a wide range of disciplines Polhemus shows the reciprocity of love as subject the novel as form and faith as motive in important works by Jane Austen

Walter Scott the Brontës Dickens George Eliot Trollope Thomas Hardy Joyce D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and Samuel Beckett Throughout Polhemus relates the novelists representation of love to that of such artists as Botticelli Vermeer Claude Lorrain Redon and Klimt Juxtaposing their paintings with nineteenth and twentieth century texts both reveals the ways in which novels develop and individualize common erotic and religious themes and illustrates how the novel has influenced our perception of all art

Love Relationships Arlene Corwin, 2013-04-19 My love relationships have come in all shapes and sizes Some have had the quality of anger some of reverence some of lust some of friendship All have found resonance inside me in the end All resolved themselves sooner or later into love Love Relationships divided itself naturally into sections Love Relationships is 222 poems written over a period of 60 years A hundred nuances of relationships each with love for even lack of love is love if you know what I mean is the fundament Saturday Review of Literature ,1924 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Sugars,2015-12-01 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self-Reflexive Novel Stefano Rossoni,2025-07-24 Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self Reflexive Novel examines how the narratives of four world renowned authors namely J M Coetzee Milan Kundera Philip Roth and Mario Vargas Llosa offer a standpoint through which to address the inscription of heterosexual masculinity into Western literary legacy and the ways in which masculinity is re fashioned in contemporary self reflexive novels Considering the interconnectedness of their narratives for the first time the book explores unexamined patterns of dialogue among Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa while also contextualising their writing in the light of the European literary tradition inaugurated by Cervantes s Don Quixote and continued by Flaubert s Madame Bovary Rather than building on conventional theoretical approaches to literary studies Stefano Rossoni develops a fresh and engaging approach by looking at these two works not only as narrative texts but most importantly as theories of literature In dialogue with critical contributions that examined men s emotional illiteracy and struggle to develop a language for self reflection the book argues that the narratives of Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa engage with the tradition of the self reflexive novel and its ramifications to reflect on masculinity as a socio cultural construction Ultimately their writing reveals men s novelistic self reflexivity as a site of unintelligibility Sounds Interesting J.
