THE OLD TESTAMENT Commentary Background Bible Difficulties Genesis Exodus Leviticus Numbers Deuteronomy Joshua Judges VOLUME I is an extensive guide that ventures deep into the study of the Old Testament providing comprehensive commentary historical and cultural background and exploration of Bible difficulties for the books of Genesis through Judges This book begins with a detailed examination of the foundations of the Old Testament covering a range of topics such as the Inspiration of the Old Testament archaeology's role in unveiling Biblical history the significance of chronology the textual criticism of the Old Testament and much more It dissects the origin and evolution of Hebrew manuscripts the history of Hebrew writing and how these documents became the Canon of the Old Testament The book also presents an in depth study of the Documentary Hypothesis theory and provides a thorough exploration of God's name debunking common misconceptions Following the Old Testament studies the book embarks on a thorough analysis of the first seven books of the Old Testament Genesis Exodus Leviticus Numbers Deuteronomy Joshua and Judges Each book review commences with the identification of the author place and time of writing followed by highlights of the book A comprehensive commentary for each book is provided that carefully unpacks the text and context In addition each review provides an extensive analysis of the historical and cultural background and sheds light on the Bible difficulties associated with each book assisting the reader in resolving and understanding these perceived contradictions Finally the value of each book is discussed drawing out the underlying principles for contemporary application Designed for theologians scholars students of the Bible and anyone with a keen interest in understanding the Old Testament this guide is a vital resource It is not merely a commentary but a tool for study reflection and deepening faith

Cushites in the Hebrew Bible Kevin Burrell, 2020-01-13 Cushites in the Hebrew Bible offers a reassessment of Cushite ethnographic representations in the biblical literature as a counterpoint to misconceptions about Africa and people of African descent which are largely a feature of the modern age Whereas current interpretations have tended to emphasize unfavourable portraits of the people biblical writers called Cushites Kevin Burrell illuminates the biblical perspective through a comparative assessment of ancient and modern forms of identity construction Past and present modes of defining difference betray both similarities and differences to ethnic representations in the Hebrew Bible providing important contexts for understanding the biblical view This book contributes to a clearer understanding of the theological historical and ethnic dynamics underpinning representations of Cushites in the Hebrew Bible

'Race Is Everything' David Bindman, 2023-07-17 A timely and revealing look at the intertwined histories of science art and racism Race Is Everything explores the spurious but influential ideas of so called racial science in the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth centuries and how art was affected by it David Bindman looks at race in general but with particular concentration on attitudes toward and representations of people of African and Jewish descent He argues that behind all racial ideas of the period lies the belief that outward appearance and especially skull shape as studied in the pseudoscience of phrenology can be correlated with inner character and intelligence and that these could be used to create a seemingly scientific hierarchy of races The book considers many aspects of these beliefs including the skull as a racial marker ancient Egypt as a precedent for Southern slavery Darwin race and aesthetics the purported Mediterranean race the visual aspects of eugenics and the racial politics of Emil Nolde

The Cult of the Seer in the Ancient Middle East V.

MacDermot,1971 A Contribution to Current Research on Hallucinations Drawn from Coptic and Other Texts History in Black Yaacov Shavit,2013-11-12 The development of Afrocentric historical writing is explored in this study which traces this recording of history from the Hellenistic Roman period to the 19th century Afrocentric writers are depicted as searching for the unique primary source of culture from one period to the next Such passing on of cultural traits from the ancient model from the classical period to the origin of culture in Egypt and Africa is shown as being a product purely of creative history

A Companion to Ancient Egyptian Art Melinda K. #### 80 Old Testament Characters of World History:

Chronological, Historical and Archaeological Evidence Gerard Gertoux,2016-02-27 Despite the fact that the name of many characters mentioned in the Old Testament like David King of Israel have been recently confirmed by archaeology as well as their epoch and the events in which they were involved most archaeologists continue to deny the historicity of the Bible they view as pious fiction or a mythical account They argue that the major events in the Bible such as the victory of Abraham against Chedorlaomer an unknown king of Elam around 2000 BCE the victory of Moses against an unknown Pharaoh around 1500 BCE or the victory of Esther an unknown Persian Queen against an unknown vizier of Xerxes never existed because they left absolutely no evidence They also explain that according to what we know today these events could not have occurred These logical arguments are impressive but a precise chronological analysis based on absolute dates coupled with a rigorous historical investigation shows that all those major events really took place at the dates and places ethnic populations and material cultures in countries associated with theorizations of white identity The chapters contribute to postcolonial research by documenting the colonial style treatment of minority groups by exploring the anomalies and complexities that emerge when binary systems are seen from the perspective of the fine and applied arts and by representing the voices of those who produced images or objects that adopted altered or critiqued ethnographic and anthropological information In doing so Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe uncovers instances of unexpected connections establishes the fabricated nature of ethnic identity and challenges the certainties of racial categorization
