

UNESCO STRATEGY FOR GENDER EQUALITY IN AND THROUGH EDUCATION

A world where gender equality in and through education is achieved, assuring girls and boys, women and men, equal rights and opportunities for education and empowerment, and the power and agency to shape their lives and futures.

Education systems are gender-transformative and promote gender equality

Teachers and school staff assure gender-equitable spaces and practices so all learners can thrive

Learning content and materials promote gender equality and are free from gender stereotypes

Non-discriminatory policy and legislation ensures all children's right to education

School management ensures safe learning environments, free from SRGBV

Gender-responsive national education sector plans guide strategic investments

Strengthened monitoring frameworks advance gender equality in education

Education Management Information Systems routinely assess gender inequalities

SDG-4 monitoring contributes to greater accountability for gender equality results

Girls and women are empowered through education for a better life and a better future

Education programmes build women's literacy and skills for life and work

CSE builds students' knowledge, values and skills for gender equality and healthy lives

Sanitation and menstrual hygiene support ensures girls' dignity and rights

Boys and men challenge inequalities and harmful gender norms

Girls and women have equal access to TVET, and build skills for the world of work

Digital skills education strengthens skills for life and work, and girls' potential in ICT

Gender norms support women's participation in STEM fields, or any profession of their choice

Inter-ministerial cooperation mechanisms address child marriage, and other rights violations

IMPLEMENTATION PLAN

THEMATIC PRIORITIES

Better data to inform action

Better legal, policy and planning frameworks to advance rights

Better teaching and learning practices to empower

IMPLEMENTATION MECHANISMS

Coordination supported by Gender Equality in Education Section

Gender competencies built across the Education Sector

Expanded partnerships at global, regional and national levels

Leadership and advocacy in the three thematic priority areas

Annual action plans and resource mobilisation

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

We are rights-based

We aim to transform

We support country ownership

We are grounded in evidence

We work in partnership

Note: CSE= comprehensive sexuality education; ICT= information and communication technologies; SDG= Sustainable Development Goal; SRGBV= school-related gender-based violence and TVET= technical and vocational education and training

The Study Of Primary Education Colin Conner,Brenda Lofthouse,2003-10-04 The four books are intended to be used by students taking BEd or PGCE courses and by teachers in service taking diploma or higher degree courses in primary education The material extracted can by used by tutors as a focus for seminars or as reading to back up lectures and by students as a source for essays or as a starting point for further reading The books are not intended to be read straight through from cover to cover but can be selectively and flexibly used at various stages in the course For convenience the extracts have been organized into a number of sections Volume 1 comprises extracts which examine primary education from historical ideological philosophical sociological and psychological perspectives Volume 2 deals with curriculum studies Volume 3 with school organization and management and Volume 4 with teaching and classroom studies Because of limitations of space primary education has been confined to the education of children aged 5 to 11 though the compilers acknowledge that in doing so they may offend those teachers in nursery or middle schools who regard themselves justifiably as primary practitioners

Equity and Efficiency? Lynn Davies,1990 Inherent in the educational policies of most countries are concerns to make education both more efficient and more equitable In theory these goals are not incompatible However this book examines the reasons why in practice the harmonization of equity and efficiency has not proved feasible

Radicalism, Anti-Racism and Representation Alastair Bonnett,2023-02-14 First published in 1993 Radicalism Anti Racism and Representation is a study set within a wider political context for the discussion of racial representation and anti racism The second half of the book is devoted to interview based exploration of the ambiguities and political characteristics of race equality consciousness amongst public educators It is shown that there is no one anti racism Different ideals and assumptions have been arrived at within different historical and geographical contexts It is suggested that this intellectual plurality provides a resource for those wishing to rethink anti racism in the light of its contemporary malaise The study also explores and explains the development of self critical reflexive anti racist and radical consciousness amongst educators The book provides the first sociological study of anti racism Indeed it is the first to provide a substantive critique of anti racism from outside the New Right It is also the first to look at this phenomenon geographically and to compare anti racism in multiracial and white areas This book will be of interest to students of human geography sociology history ethnic studies and race studies Culture and Society Rosamund Billington,Sheelagh

Strawbridge,Lenore Greensides,Annette Fitzsimons,1991-08-30 This text explores the difficulties of defining a sociology of culture emphasising the complex interdisciplinary nature of cultural studies and the variety of theoretical contributions from sociology literature history and anthropology Intended for a wide range of undergraduates the text covers areas not usually included in cultural studies together with those more familiar to the field It deals with the development and breakdown of key conceptual distinctions like structure culture culture knowledge objective reality subjective experience and the implications for the study of culture Education in Divided Societies T. Gallagher,2004-10-18 All societies contain ethnic divisions Traditionally education has acted to promote social integration but with the acknowledgement of diversity do we know which system best promotes positive inter community relations Education in Divided Societies examines the experience of a range of systems including those which provide common schools and those which place minorities in separate schools The book argues that structures do not guarantee outcomes and that processes of dialogue and interconnected social systems provide the route to the future Class, Race and Gender in Schools Scottish Council for Research in Education,1992 The Educational Institute of Scotland a trade union representing approximately 80% of Scottish teachers is committed to an anti racist anti sexist education system which in pursuing excellence for each learner will also advance social equality The conference reported in this document was designed to further this commitment Papers presented in this collection include 1 Research and Practice in Pursuit of Social Justice in Education by Sheila Riddell and Sally Brown 2 Social Class in Scottish Education by Lindsay Paterson 3 Social Class and Educational Disadvantage Are the Schools to Blame by David Hughes 4 Racism and Education Issues for Research and Practice by David Gillborn 5 Turning a Multi Cultural and Anti Racist Education Policy into Practice by Helene Witcher 6 Gender and Education Progressive and Conservative Forces in the Balance by Sheila Riddell 7 Gender Issues Policy into Practice by Sheena Erskine 8 The Inter Connections of Gender Class and Ethnicity within Educational Contexts by Rowena Arshad 9 Bringing about Change in the Culture of a School by Margaret Macintosh and 10 Equality in Education Old Dilemmas and New Possibilities by Sally Brown and Sheila Riddell The book also contains a preface and a list of nine suggested further readings LBG Equity Or Excellence? Educ & C James

Lynch,Celia Modgil,Sohan Modgil,2014-07-10 First published in 1992 The books aim to engage with a broad audience aiming at new laicized paradigms of understanding capable of being shared with a wider international public This series of books is committed to the premise that racism and all other forms of negative prejudice are detrimental to a harmonious and healthy pluralist world society and that it is the duty of all good democratic citizens to combat them but that there are many valid routes by which such prejudice can be challenged and that there are other kinds of prejudice and abuse which must also be combatted This is the third volume in a series of four books dedicated to a re examination of cultural diversity and its implications for education and schooling

Educating the Gendered Citizen Madeleine Arnot, 2009 Globalisation and global human rights are the two major forces in the twenty first century which are likely to shape the sort of learner citizen created by the educational system Schools will be expected to prepare young men and women for national as well as global citizenship Male and female citizens will need to adapt to new social conditions only some of which will encourage gender equality This book offers a unique introduction to the contribution that sociological research on the education of the citizen can make to these national and global debates It brings together for the first time a selection of influential new and previously published papers by Madeleine Arnot on the theme of gender education and citizenship It describes feminist challenges to liberal democracy the gendered construction of the good citizen and citizenship education it explores the implications of social change for the learner citizen and offers alternative gender sensitive models of global citizenship education Reaching right to the heart of current debates the chapters focus on feminist democratic values in education teachers constructions of the gendered citizen European languages of citizenship the inclusion of women s rights into English citizenship textbooks gender struggles for equality in school pedagogy and curriculum the implications of personalised learning for the individualised learner citizen globalisation and the construction of a global ethic for citizenship education It will be an invaluable text for all those interested in citizenship education gender studies sociology of education educational policy studies critical pedagogy and curriculum studies and international or comparative education

The Oxford Handbook of the History of Education John L. Rury, Eileen H.
