Talton, 2003-03-03 Boyd and Talton have collected poems prayers and prose that bring the anger and frustration of racial conflict to light and ultimately to a place of reconciliation and healing Contributors to this collection range in age from teenagers to the elderly and include men and women from a wide variety of racial and ethnic backgrounds all of whom speak honestly of their own experiences heartbreaks and hopes

Race and Prayer Malcolm Boyd, 2003-03-03 The damage done by hatred and prejudice based on race sexual orientation religion or gender runs very deep The damage is often invisible but it simmers beneath the surface anyway In Race and Prayer Malcolm Boyd and Chester Talton have collected poems prayers and prose that bring the anger and frustration to light and ultimately they hope to a place of reconciliation and healing Race and Prayer is divided into five sections Suffering and Anger Prejudice and Hatred Diversity Reconciliation and Healing and Growth in Understanding and Sharing Contributors to this collection range in age from teenagers to the elderly and include men and women from a wide variety of racial and ethnic backgrounds all of whom speak honestly of their own experiences heartbreaks and hopes Twelve cartoons from three time Pulitzer Prize winner Paul Conrad editorial cartoonist at the Los Angeles Times add to the power of this collection

A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further

The Living Church, 1945 Faithful Celebrations Sharon Ely Pearson, 2018-10-17 Activities for celebrating secular and sacred seasons of the year For use in churches schools camps at home Many of our experiences in life happen when several generations are together at church at home in our communities Holidays and family events are times for celebration learning rituals food and fun This edition of Faithful Celebrations focuses on the months of January and February when secular holidays can become times to think about how we live out the gospel message in celebrating national holidays with more than a day off from school or sending a greeting card Each event to be celebrated includes key ideas a cluster of activities to experience the key ideas a list of materials needed full instructions for implementation background history and information music art recipes and prayer resources to use in a small intimate or large multi generational group For children youth adults or any combination of ages
