Daredevil at the Wheel Tony St. Clair,2025-03-04 On Fourth of July weekend in 1924 Marion Martins flies past some of the best race car drivers of her time and takes home two trophies from the famous North Shore racetrack in Chicago In 1926 on the beaches of Daytona Florida Joan LaCosta breaks a world speed record at 145 miles per hour But Martins and LaCosta never face one another on the close knit circuit of early American auto racing That s because they are just two of the identities adopted by the elusive woman born Marion Carver By the late 1920s this enigmatic woman became a household name in auto racing several household names in fact though she d be best known as Joan LaCosta Adopting and discarding personas almost as often as she changes tires LaCosta defies death shuns social norms and keeps her competition in the rearview mirror While driving as fast as she can away from a complicated past she survives violent wrecks race collisions and onboard fires in front of sell out crowds But fame danger and failed relationships take their toll In 1929 as the Great Depression looms LaCosta broke and broken commits to one last daring stunt the attempted robbery of a Chicago high society matron in the city s most glamorous high rise Coverage of the dramatic trial sells out papers from coast to coast and after fame turns to infamy LaCosta sheds her identity one last time and disappears from public view

The Hindu Index ,2004 National Races Richard McMahon,2019-08-01 National Races explores how politics interacted with transnational science in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This interaction produced powerful racialized national identity discourses whose influence continues to resonate in today s culture and politics Ethnologists

anthropologists and raciologists compared modern physical types with ancient skeletal finds to unearth the deep prehistoric past and true nature of nations These scientists understood certain physical types to be what Richard McMahon calls national races or the ageless biological essences of nations Contributors to this volume address a central tension in anthropological race classification On one hand classifiers were nationalists who explicitly or implicitly used race narratives to promote political agendas Their accounts of prehistoric geopolitics treated national races as the proxies of nations in order to legitimize present day geopolitical positions On the other hand the transnational community of race scholars resisted the centrifugal forces of nationalism Their interdisciplinary project was a vital episode in the development of the social sciences using biological race classification to explain the history geography relationships and psychologies of nations National Races goes to the heart of tensions between nationalism and transnationalism politics and science by examining transnational science from the perspective of its peripheries Contributors to the book supplement the traditional focus of historians on France Britain and Germany with myriad case studies and examples of nineteenth and early twentieth century racial and national identities in countries such as Russia Italy Poland Greece and Yugoslavia and among Jewish anthropologists

Angel in Black Tom Gillispie, 2008-02 Angel in Black Remembering Dale Earnhardt Sr is filled with personal memories of the man known as the Intimidator in NASCAR circles These stories all come from the people who knew him best Earnhardt was far more complex than those who did not know him well might have expected His life ended tragically in February 2001 when he was killed during the last lap of the Daytona 500 His untimely death at the age of forty nine shocked the racing world and the world at large In Angel in Black Remembering Dale Earnhardt Sr the Intimidator is remembered through hundreds of anecdotes stories and insights recounted by fellow drivers team members NASCAR officials and friends and associates Together they offer a unique and touching reminiscence of one of the greatest and most charismatic race car drivers ever to climb behind the wheel NASCAR's Rookie of the Year in 1979 Earnhardt forged a career that included seven NASCAR national championships seventy six career wins and over 34 million in prize money more than any other driver has ever won Earnhardt was as tough as they come behind the wheel also earning the name of Ironhead in part because of his reputation for never backing down on the track where close calls at nearly 200 miles per hour are frequent and often deadly Angel in Black also shows the generous considerate side of him as a friend colleague and family man An earlier shorter version of this book was published in 2001 under the title I Remember Dale Earnhardt About one third of the material in Angel in Black comes from the first edition and the rest is largely new material The Half Century Magazine ,1917
