No Road Leading Back Chris Heath, 2024-09-03 This by turns shattering and hope giving account of prisoners who dug their way to freedom from the Nazis is both a stunning escape narrative and an object lesson in the ways we remember and continually forget the particulars of the Holocaust No Road Leading Back is the remarkable story of a dozen prisoners who escaped from the site where more than 70 000 Jews were shot in the Lithuanian forest of Ponar after the Nazi invasion of Eastern Europe in 1941 Anxious to hide the incriminating evidence of the murders the S S later in the war enslaved a group of Jews to exhume every one of the bodies and incinerate them all in a months long labor an episode whose specifics are staggering and disturbing even within the context of the Holocaust From within that dire circumstance emerges the improbable escape made by some of the men who dug a tunnel with bare hands and spoons while they were trapped and guarded day and night an act not just of bravery and desperation but of awesome imagination Based on first person accounts of the escapees and on each scrap of evidence that has been documented repressed or amplified since this book resurrects their lives while also providing a complex urgent analysis of why their story has rarely been told and never accurately Heath explores the cultural use and misuse of Holocaust testimony and the need for us to face it and all uncomfortable historical truths with honesty and accuracy

The Palgrave Handbook of Holocaust Literature and Culture Victoria Aarons, Phyllis Lassner, 2020-01-24 The Palgrave Handbook of Holocaust Literature and Culture reflects current approaches to Holocaust literature that open up future thinking on Holocaust representation The chapters consider diverse generational perspectives survivor writing second and third generation and genres memoirs poetry novels graphic narratives films video testimonies and other forms of literary and cultural expression In turn these perspectives create interactions among generations genres temporalities and cultural contexts The volume also participates in the ongoing project of responding to and talking through moments of rupture and incompleteness that represent an opportunity to contribute to the making of meaning through the continuation of narratives of the past As such the chapters in this volume pose options for reading Holocaust texts offering openings for further discussion and exploration The inquiring body of interpretive scholarship responding to the Shoah becomes itself a story a narrative that materially extends our inquiry into that history

Conversations with Families of Children with Disabilities Victoria I. Puig, Susan L. Recchia, 2020-06-03 Conversations with Families of Children with Disabilities creates a space for diverse families of children with disabilities to share their stories with pre service and in service teachers Specifically designed for professionals preparing to work with families of children with disabilities this text invites the reader to listen in as families reflect on their personal journeys in conversation with the authors This powerful book helps educators develop a deeper understanding of families and enhance their capacity for authentic partnerships

Parenting Representations Ofra Mayseless, 2006-04-10 The study of parents from their own perspective not just as socializing agents of their children has been long neglected This book summarizes and presents the new and surging literature on parenting representations namely parents views emotions and internal world regarding their parenting Within this area several prominent researchers typically coming from the attachment tradition suggested various ways of assessing parenting representations mostly by way of semi structured interviews This book presents their conceptualizations and includes detailed descriptions of their interviews and their coding schemes In addition a review and summary of the growing number of findings in this domain and an integrated conceptualization that serves a theoretical base for future research are presented Finally the clinical implications of the study of parenting representations are discussed at large Clinical notions and conceptualizations regarding parenting representations are presented and thoroughly discussed including detailed case studies that demonstrate among other things intergenerational transmission of representations
