Who's Afraid of Human Cloning? Gregory E. Pence, 1998-11-05 Human cloning raises the most profound questions about human nature our faith in ourselves and our ability to make decisions that could significantly alter the character of humanity In this exciting and accessible book Gregory Pence offers a candid and sometimes humorous look at the arguments for and against human cloning Originating a human being by cloning Pence boldly argues should not strike fear in our hearts but should be examined as a reasonable reproductive option for couples Pence considers how popular culture has influenced the way we think about cloning and he presents a lucid and non technical examination of the scientific research and relevant moral issues in the cloning debate This book is a must read for anyone who is concerned about the impact of technology on human life and for those with interests in medical ethics sociology and public policy Rachel's Valentine Crush Angela Darling, 2013-12-03 When a crush goes both ways it s the sweetest thing Rachel has had a secret crush on Brody the cute sweet guy from her church choir for a while now But when Brody becomes a famous pop star and leaves school to go on tour he becomes the object of every girl s crush Rachel is happy for Brody but she s also a little heartbroken that things between them might never be the same But when Brody releases a new song about his own secret crush some of the lyrics make Rachel think that maybe just maybe Brody is singing about her Could it be Rachel is about to find out along with every other girl at school when Brody returns home on Valentine s Day to give a concert and reveal the identity of his secret crush textured exploration of fear and remorse the mysteries of love and the complicated tensions that ring down the generations from parent to child Conjuring the entwined lives of teachers and students in two schools and two generations on either side of the Atlantic A Watch of Nightingales stands alongside The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie and Goodbye Mr Chips as a testament to the responsibilities rewards and risks of teaching This is a book of luminous insight and quiet but telling wisdom about youth and maturity and the bridge of loss and remorse that connects them Liza Wieland's is a mature and deeply moving vision conveyed in prose that sings as sure and clear as the birds of her title Peter Ho Davies author of The Welsh Girl Praise for Liza Wieland There is a nobility and boldness to her characters that lends them a heroism missing from much modern fiction and makes these stories wholly absorbing adventures of the heart Ron Hansen author of Exiles A Novel Liza Wieland understands down to the bone how loneliness and love compel her characters to make their impossible choices Not only does she have a searing intelligence and wisdom her prose is by turns graceful and astonishing Jane Hamilton author of A Map of the World Liza Wieland is the author of four previous works of fiction The Names of the Lost Discovering America You Can Sleep While I Drive and Bombshell as well as a volume of poems Near Alcatraz Her work has been awarded two Pushcart Prizes as well as fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts the Christopher Isherwood Foundation and the North Carolina Arts Council She teaches creative writing and literature at East Carolina University in Greenville North Carolina

Person, Polis, Planet David Schmidtz,2011-11-01 This volume collects thirteen of David Schmidtz s essays on the question of what it takes to live a good life given that we live in a social and natural world Part One defends a non maximizing conception of rational choice explains how even ultimate goals can be rationally chosen defends the rationality of concern and regard for others even to the point of being willing to die for a cause and explains why decision theory is necessarily incomplete as a tool for addressing such issues Part Two uses the tools of analytic philosophy to explain what we can do to be deserving what is wrong with the idea that we ought to do as much good as we can why mutual aid is good but why the welfare state does not work as a way of institutionalizing mutual aid and why transferring wealth from those who need it less to those who need it more can be a bad idea even from a utilitarian perspective Most ambitiously Part Two offers an overarching pluralistic moral theory that defines the nature and limits of our obligations to each other and to our individual selves Part Three discusses the history and economic logic of alternative property institutions both private and communal and explains why economic logic is an indispensable tool in the field of environmental conflict resolution In the final essay Schmidtz brings the volume full circle by considering the nature and limits of our obligations to nonhuman species and how the status of nonhuman species ought to enter into our deliberations about what sort of life is worth living The Elimination of Morality Anne Maclean,2005-08-12
