Racism and Anti-Racism Today Amanuel Elias,2024-05-02 Acknowledging efforts to dismantle racism at multiple levels this book examines racism and anti racism as interconnected rather than isolated issues proposing a framework for effective anti racist policy and practice

Perspectives on Racism and the Human Services Sector Carl E. James,1996-01-01 Today s social services agencies are faced with the challenge of responding to the diverse needs and expectations of a growing multicultural population This volume examines race and racism in Canada from historical and contemporary perspectives and explores the extent to which these factors operate within social services systems related to immigration settlement the justice system health and education The contributors including practitioners educators and policy makers argue for specific changes in current approaches to service delivery and provide practical suggestions for services that make it possible for various communities to be served more effectively The collection also proposes an anti racism approach to service provision to produce a system that is beneficial to all Canadians particularly Aboriginals and racial and ethnic minorities

Working through Whiteness Cynthia Levine-Rasky,2012-02-01 What is whiteness What is gained by claiming it as a critical perspective in anti racism work How do whiteness studies both redeem and assert the white subject Working through Whiteness explores these questions through essays by Canadian American British and Australian scholars reflecting the broad array of academic inquiry into whiteness in the areas of law ethics education feminism politics psychology sociology criminology and social geography Rarely has knowledge of whiteness as the practice of social domination been drawn from this far and wide By embracing the leading edge in critical theory this book is a crucial addition to the growing literature on whiteness

Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2000 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World

Race and Social Analysis Caroline Knowles,2003 Caroline Knowles combines biographical and spatial analysis to provide an up to date account of the ways race and ethnicity operate in a global context She argues that race and ethnicity is intricately woven into the social landscapes in which we live

Illuminating the Blackness Habeeb Akande,2016-05-01 Illuminating the Blackness presents the history of Brazil s race relations and African

Muslim heritage The book is divided into two parts Part I explores the issue of race anti black racism white supremacy colourism black beauty and affirmative action in contemporary Brazil Part II examines the reports of African Muslims travels to Brazil before the Portuguese colonisers the slave revolts in Bahia and the West African Muslim communities in nineteenth century Brazil The author explores the black consciousness movement in Brazil and examines the reasons behind the growing conversion to Islam amongst Brazilians particularly those of African descent The author also shares his insights into the complexities of race in Brazil and draws comparisons with the racial histories of the pre modern Muslim world including a comparative analysis of the East African Zanj slave rebellions in ninth century Baghdad with the West African Hausa and Yoruba slave rebellions in nineteenth century Bahia

Contesting Development Philip McMichael, 2010-02-17 At a time when the development promise is increasingly in question with dwindling social gains the vision of modernity is losing its legitimacy and coherence This moment is observable through the lens of critical struggles of those who experience disempowerment displacement and development contradictions In this book case studies serve as an effective means of teaching key concepts and theories in the sociology of development This collection of cases all original never previously published and with framing essays by Phillip McMichael has been written with this purpose in mind An important additional feature is that the book as a whole reveals the limiting assumptions of development and suggests alternate conditions of possibility for social existence in the world today In that sense the book pushes the boundaries of thinking about development and makes an important theoretical contribution to the literature

Race, Ethnicity, And Nationality In The United States Paul Wong, 2021-09-02 This book is intended for use in advanced undergraduate and graduate level courses on race and ethnicity and on diversity in America It was first conceived as a collective project of the Research and Resident Scholar Program in Comparative Race Relations at Washington State University which was established in 1994 with support from the Rockefeller Foundation A number of the participating authors are established scholars in racial ethnic studies and several have published award winning bestsellers Others are relative newcomers to the field who were invited to join the project because they were doing important work on less well covered topics such as relations between African Americans and Chicano Latino Americans

Recognizing Race and Ethnicity Kathleen J. Fitzgerald, 2020-06-03 This best selling textbook explains the current state of research in the sociology of race ethnicity emphasizing white privilege the social construction of race and the newest theoretical perspectives for understanding race and ethnicity It is designed to engage students with an emphasis on topics that are meaningful to their lives including sports popular culture interracial relationships and biracial multiracial identities and families The new third edition comes at a pivotal time in the politics of race and identity Fitzgerald includes vital new discussions on white ethnicities and the politics of Trump and populism Prominent attention is given to immigration and the discourse surrounding it police and minority populations and the criminal justice system Using the latest available data the author examines the present and future of generational change New cases studies include athletes and racial justice activism removal of Confederate monuments updates on Black Lives Matter and Native American activism at Standing Rock and against the Bayou Bridge pipeline Reshaping the University Rauna Kuokkanen, 2011-11-01 In the past few decades the narrow intellectual foundations of the university have come under serious scrutiny Previously marginalized groups have called for improved access to the institution and full inclusion in the curriculum Reshaping the University is a timely thorough and original interrogation of academic practices It moves beyond current analyses of cultural conflicts and discrimination in academic institutions to provide an indigenous postcolonial critique of the modern university Rauna Kuokkanen argues that attempts by universities to be inclusive are unsuccessful because they do not embrace indigenous worldviews Programs established to act as bridges between mainstream and indigenous cultures ignore their ontological and epistemic differences and while offering support and assistance place the responsibility of adapting wholly on the student Indigenous students and staff are expected to leave behind their cultural perspectives and epistemes in order to adopt Western values Reshaping the University advocates a radical shift in the approach to cultural conflicts within the academy and proposes a new logic grounded in principles central to indigenous philosophies Curriculum and the Teacher Nigel Norris, 2014-06-03 Bringing together seminal papers from the Cambridge Journal of Education around the theme of curriculum and the teacher this book explores the changing conceptions of curriculum and teaching and the changing role of the teacher in curriculum development The SAGE Handbook of Prejudice, Stereotyping and Discrimination John F Dovidio, Miles Hewstone, Peter Glick, Victoria M Esses, 2010-07-12 The SAGE Handbook of Prejudice Stereotyping and Discrimination provides comprehensive coverage on the state of research critical analysis and promising avenues for further study on prejudice stereotyping and discrimination Each chapter presents in depth reviews of specific topics describing the current state of knowledge and identifying the most productive new directions for future research Representing both traditional and emerging perspectives this multi disciplinary and truly international volume will serve as a seminal resource for students and scholars Race Relations in Britain Tessa Blackstone, Bhikhu Parekh, Peter Sanders, 2005-06-27 Bringing together distinguished experts in the field of race relations this book addresses questions which are increasingly relevant in the current socio political context of Great Britain The kind of visions of multicultural Britain which are currently being canvassed and the problems which ethnic minorities continue to face are addressed together with an examination of the new policy initiatives which are needed to tackle these problems Race Relations in Britain falls into three parts which analyse contemporary trends articulating a vision of multicultural Britain and exploring important theoretical controversies identify the obstacles that stand in the way of a racism free Britain looking at current policy in areas such as immigration employment education the criminal justice system as well as the role of the media offer a vision of a multi cultural Britain advancing new policies based on current research Odd Tribes John Hartigan Jr., 2005-11-14 An ethnographic and theoretical account of the construction of whiteness through the study of the lives of white working class Americans A Promise And A Way Of Life Becky Thompson, 2001-08-07 The first in depth look at white people's activism in fighting racism during the past fifty years Not since the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 1960s when many white college students went south to fight against Jim Crow laws has white antiracist activity held the public's attention Yet there have always been white people involved in fighting racism In this passionate work Becky Thompson looks at white Americans who have struggled against racism offering examples of both successes and failures inspirations practical philosophies and a way ahead A Promise and a Way of Life weaves an account of the past half century based on the life histories of thirty nine people who have placed antiracist activism at the center of their lives Through a rich and fascinating narrative that links individual experiences with social and political history Thompson shows the ways both public and personal in which whites have opposed racism during several social movements the Civil Rights and Black Power movements multiracial feminism the Central American peace movement the struggle for antiracist education and activism against the prison industry Beginning with the diverse catalysts that started these activists on their journeys this book demonstrates the contributions and limitations of white antiracism in key social justice movements Through these stories crucial questions are raised Does antiracist work require a repudiation of one's whiteness or can that identity be transformed through political commitment and alliances What do white people need to do to undermine white privilege What would it take to build a multiracial movement in which white people are responsible for creating antiracist alliances while not co-opting people of color Unique in its depth and thoroughness A Promise and a Way of Life is essential for anyone currently fighting racism or wondering how to do so Through its demonstration of the extraordinary personal and social transformations ordinary people can make it provides a new paradigm for movement activity one that will help to incite and guide future antiracist activism

'Race' and Sport Kevin Hylton, 2008-08 Offering a genuinely cutting edge review of critical race theory this book opens the field to a wide readership of students and researchers The Racial Contract Charles W. Mills, 2014-05-29 The Racial Contract puts classic Western social contract theory deadpan to extraordinary radical use With a sweeping look at the European expansionism and racism of the last five hundred years Charles W Mills demonstrates how this peculiar and unacknowledged contract has shaped a system of global European domination how it brings into existence whites and non whites full persons and sub persons how it influences white moral theory and moral psychology and how this system is imposed on non whites through ideological conditioning and violence The Racial Contract argues that the society we live in is a continuing white supremacist state Holding up a mirror to mainstream philosophy this provocative book explains the evolving outline of the racial contract from the time of the New World conquest and subsequent colonialism to the written slavery contract to the separate but equal system of segregation in the twentieth century United States According to Mills the contract has provided the theoretical architecture justifying an entire history of European atrocity against non whites from David Hume's and Immanuel Kant's claims that blacks had inferior cognitive power to the Holocaust to the kind of imperialism in Asia that was demonstrated by the Vietnam War Mills suggests that the ghettoization of philosophical work on race is no accident This work challenges the assumption that mainstream theory is itself raceless Just as feminist theory has revealed orthodox political philosophy s invisible white male bias Mills s explication of the racial contract exposes its racial underpinnings

Race in the Shadow of Law Eddie Bruce-Jones,2016-12-01 Race in the Shadow of Law offers a critical legal analysis of European responses to institutional racism It draws connections between contemporary legal knowledge practices and colonial systems of thought arguing that many people of colour experience the law as a part of a racial problem rather than a solution to racial injustice Based on a critical legal ethnography of anti racism work in Europe and with an emphasis on the German context the book positions Black and anti racist perspectives at the centre rather than the margins of critically thinking through the intersection of race and law Combining this ethnography with comparative legal analysis discourse analysis and critical race theory the book develops a critical discussion of the European legal frameworks aimed at regulating racism and particularly institutional racism in policy and policing In linking this critique to the transformative potential of social movements however it goes on to examine the strategic and creative possibility of disrupting conventional modes of engaging and resisting law

Global Linguistic Flows H. Samy Alim,Awad Ibrahim,Alastair Pennycook,2008-10 This cutting edge book located at the intersection of sociolinguistics and Hip Hop Studies brings together for the first time an international group of researchers who study Hip Hop textually ethnographically socially aesthetically and linguistically It is the harvest of dialogue between these two separate yet interconnected areas of study A missing gap in the Hip Hop literature is the centrality and an in depth analysis of the very medium that is used to express and perform Hip Hop language Global Linguistic Flows fills this gap
