Discourses from Latin America and the Caribbean Eleonora Esposito, Carolina Pérez-Arredondo, José Manuel Ferreiro, 2018-09-13 This edited collection brings together the latest research on discourse and society in Latin America and Caribbean in one volume Employing cross cutting approaches to current political institutional and media discourses it bridges existing theoretical and analytical gaps between the socio political macro issues and the micro aspects of linguistic analysis to provide fresh insights that deconstruct the complex socio political power dynamics in Latin America and the Caribbean Across eight chapters this volume explores the regions thorny relationship with their complex histories of colonialism and slavery as well as the ongoing multifaceted constructions of hegemonic and counter hegemonic identities at the individual regional and national levels In doing so it demonstrates the unique and rich particularities of these regions and why it is that they challenge many conventional dogmas and methods across the Social Sciences This book will be of particular interest to scholars working in Discourse Studies Sociology Politics Anthropology and Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Rethinking Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods John H Stanfield II, 2016-06-03 This collection of original work demonstrates the new ways in which particular research methodologies are used valued and critiqued in the field of race and ethnic studies Contributing authors discuss the ways in which their personal and professional histories and experiences lead them to select and use particular methodologies over the course of their careers They then provide the intellectual histories strengths and weaknesses of these methods as applied to issues of race and ethnicity and discuss the ethical practical and epistemological issues that have influenced and challenged their methodological principles and applications Through these rigorous self examinations this text presents a dynamic example of how scholars engage both research methodologies and issues of social justice and ethics This volume is a successor to Stanfield s landmark Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods The Spiral of [Anti-Other Rhetoric] Elisabeth Le,2006-08-22 How do media inform our representations of the Other and how does this influence intercultural international relations While officially dialogues between different national societies are conducted by diplomats in bilateral and multilateral settings in practice journalists also participate every day in such dialogues through the phenomenon of the international media echo in which they report on each others societies Until now media have only been investigated for their potential role in the foreign policy of specific states In a case study involving media in three national cultures and languages French American and Russian this book presents an interdisciplinary framework that combines quantitative and qualitative analyses for the study of the international media echo in an intercultural international relations perspective In particular the fundamental functioning of spirals of anti Other rhetoric i e media wars is examined in a Critical Discourse Analysis approach completed with Social Identity Theory and International Relations theories Recontextualizing Humor Villy Tsakona,2020-02-10 Humor may surface in numerous and diverse contexts which at the same time determine how humor works its form and its functions and consequences for interlocutors Adopting a sociolinguistic and discourse analytic perspective this study is aligned with approaches to humor exploring the variety of humorous genres the wide range of sociopragmatic functions of humor and the more or less dissimilar perceptions speakers may have concerning what humor is what it means and how it works The chapters of this book propose a new theoretical approach to the analysis of humor by bringing context into focus Furthermore the study explores how we can teach about humor within a critical literacy framework creating classroom space for everyday humorous texts that are part of students social realities and simultaneously taking into account that humor may yield multiple disparaging and often conflicting interpretations This book is intended to appeal to humor researchers from various disciplines such as linguistics media studies cultural studies literary studies sociology anthropology folklore as well as to professionals or researchers in education Issues in Latino Education Mariella Espinoza-Herold,Ricardo González-Carriedo,2017-04-21 Candid and illuminating this text exposes the educational realities of Latinos U S and foreign born in K 12 public schools in the Western United States from the students own perspectives Through the testimonies of students who struggled to graduate from high school issues that are often oversimplified and commonly misunderstood are brought to life The students themselves offer pragmatic solutions to reduce the unchanging academic gap among culturally diverse groups Their accounts are then compared with the viewpoints of a range of K 12 teachers on matters of community learning race culture and school politics Examining in depth the question of how to best educate a growing culturally and linguistically diverse student population this critical case study provides food for thought and provokes reflection on the critical role that human interactions and networking play in attaining one s dreams and human aspirations Changes in the Second Edition Updated demographics New chapter The Role of the Media in the Transmission of Ideologies Related to Latino Students Updated conclusions and study implications Explorations in

Bangura,2021-09-20 In the wake of the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis the debate between proponents of Black Lives Matter and All Lives Matter has been reignited For proponents of Black Lives Matter the slogan All Lives Matter is not a call for inclusiveness but a criticism of the Black Lives Matter movement On the other hand advocates of All Lives Matter insist their slogan is about diversity and colorblindness The contributors included in Black Lives Matter vs All Lives Matter A Multidisciplinary Primer approach the subject from fields as wide ranging as sociology mathematics linguistics business politics and psychology to name a few This collection adds complexity and international perspectives to the debate allowing these seemingly simple quarrels over phrasing to be unpacked from many angles A refreshing variety of looks at one of the defining social movements of the last decade and the reaction to it this collection will be valuable to those seeking to understand these movements in ways beyond how they are typically framed Global Perspectives on Human Migration, Asylum, and Security Akrivopoulou, Christina M.,2017-11-30 Unstable social climates are causing the displacement of large numbers of people around the world Thus the issue of safe replacement arises causing the need for new policies and strategies regarding immigration Global Perspectives on Human Migration Asylum and Security is a timely reference source for the latest research on the challenges risks and policies of current relocation and refugee flows as well as address security problems in relation to these aspects of immigration Featuring coverage on a wide variety of topics and perspectives such as terrorism racism and human rights this publication is ideally designed for academicians policy makers researchers and practitioners seeking current research on the current societal happenings of refugee integration around the world

Speaking Spanish in the US Janet M. Fuller,Jennifer Leeman,2020-06-02 This book introduces readers to basic concepts of sociolinguistics with a focus on Spanish in the US The coverage goes beyond linguistics to examine the history and politics of Spanish in the US the relationship of language to Latinx identities and how language ideologies and policies reflect and shape societal views of Spanish and its speakers Accessible to those with no linguistic background this book provides students with a foundation in the study of language and society and the opportunity to relate theoretical concepts to Spanish in the US in a range of contexts including everyday speech contemporary culture media education and policy The book is a substantially revised and expanded 2nd edition of Spanish Speakers in the USA including new chapters on the history of Spanish in the US the demographics of Spanish in the US and language policy and expanded chapters on language ideologies race identity media and education A Spanish language edition of this book is also available <https://www.multilingualmatters.com/page/detail/K/9781800413931> The Necropolitical Theater Jeffrey K. Coleman, 2020-05-15 The Necropolitical Theater Race and Immigration on the Contemporary Spanish Stage demonstrates how theatrical production in Spain since the early 1990s has reflected national anxieties about immigration and race Jeffrey K Coleman argues that Spain has developed a necropolitical theater that casts the non European immigrant as fictionalized enemy one whose nonwhiteness is incompatible with Spanish national identity and therefore poses a threat to the very Europeanness of Spain The fate of the immigrant in the necropolitical theater is death either physical or metaphysical which preserves the status quo and provides catharsis for the spectator faced with the notion of racial diversity Marginalization forced assimilation and physical death are outcomes suffered by Latin American North African and sub Saharan African characters respectively and in these differential outcomes determined by skin color Coleman identifies an inherent racial hierarchy informed by the legacies of colonization and religious intolerance Drawing on theatrical texts performances legal documents interviews and critical reviews this book challenges Spanish theater to develop a new theatrical space Jeffrey K Coleman proposes a convivial theater that portrays immigrants as contributors to the Spanish state and better represents the multicultural reality of the nation today

Reading Donald Trump Jeremy Kowalski, 2018-08-29 This book provides a scholarly assessment and analysis of the Trump campaign and early presidency This assessment and analysis is important not only to help provide some coherence to the turbulent and unpredictable character of Trumpism but to contribute to establishing a scholarly foundation for future works that will provide assessments of the Trump presidency in its mid and later stages Given the divisive and destructive capacity of Trumpism and its political and social implications both domestically and internationally understanding the distinctive political phenomenon of Trumpism is necessary if resistance to this transformative moment in American political history is to be successful This book collects a series of short scholarly contributions on various themes related to Trumpism by scholars from disciplines in both the Humanities and Social Sciences Origin Narratives Macarena Garcia-Gonzalez, 2017-05-18 The first of its kind this volume unpacks the cultural construction of transnational adoption and migration by examining a sample of recent children s books that address the subject Of all European countries Spain is the nation where immigration and transnational adoption have increased most steeply from the early 1990s onward Origin Narratives The Stories We Tell Children About Immigration and International Adoption sheds light on the way contemporary Spanish society and its institutions re define national identity and the framework of cultural political and ethnic values by looking at how these ideas are being transmitted to younger generations negotiating a more heterogeneous environment This study collates representations of diversity migration and colonial otherness in the texts as well as their reception by the adult mediators through reviews paratexts and opinions collected from interviews and participant observation In this new work author Macarena Garcia Gonzalez argues that many of the texts at the wider societal discourse of multiculturalism which have been warped into a pedagogical synthesis underwrite the very racism they seek to combat Comparing transnational adoption with discourses about immigration works as a new approach to the question of multiculturalism and makes a valuable contribution to an array of disciplines Racialization and Language Michele Back, Virginia Zavala, 2018-09-03 Drawing on frameworks from applied linguistics and critical discourse analysis this volume employs a linguistics approach to understanding race and racism in Latin America with a particular focus on Peru Building on recent debates in Peru on cultural and biological definitions of race the book seeks to re examine the relationship between race and culture not as a dichotomy but as one rooted in and shaped by specific historical moments Similarly the volume uses this discussion as a jumping off point from which to explore notions of identity informed by language as used in local context rather than as a fixed social category Offering new perspectives on discursive practices of race and racism in Peru and Latin America this collection is key reading for students and researchers in sociolinguistics applied linguistics anthropology and Latin American studies

Interdisciplinary Studies in Pragmatics, Culture and Society Alessandro Capone, Jacob L. Mey, 2015-07-31 This volume is part of the series Pragmatics Philosophy and Psychology edited for Springer by Alessandro Capone It is intended for an audience of undergraduate and graduate students as well as postgraduate and advanced researchers This volume focuses on societal pragmatics One of the main concerns of societal pragmatics is the world of language users We are interested in the investigation of linguistic practices in the context of societal practices praxis to use a term used in the Wittgensteinian and other traditions It is clear that the world of users including their practices their culture and their social aims has to be taken into account and seriously investigated when we deal with the pragmatics of language It is not enough to discuss principles of language use solely in the guise of abstract theoretical tools Consequently the present volume focuses explicitly on the interplay of abstract theoretical principles and the necessities imposed by societal contexts often requiring a more flexible use of such theoretical tools The volume includes articles on pragmatics politeness and anti politeness dialogue joint utterances discourse markers pragmatics and the law institutional discourse critical discourse analysis pragmatics and culture cultural scripts argumentation theory connectives and argumentation language games and psychotherapy slurs the analysis of funerary rites as well as an authoritative chapter by Jacob L Mey on societal pragmatics Tatarstan's Autonomy within Putin's Russia Deniz Dinç, 2021-12-13 This book explores how the Volga Tatars the largest ethnic minority within the Russian Federation a Muslim minority achieved a great deal of autonomy for Tatarstan in the years 1988 to 1992 but then lost this autonomy gradually over the course of the Putin era It sets the issue in context tracing the history of the Volga Tatars the descendants of the Golden Horde whose Khans exercised overlordship over Muscovy in medieval times and outlining Tsarist and Soviet nationalities policies and their enduring effects It argues that a key factor driving the decline of greater autonomy besides Putin's policies of harmonisation and centralisation was the behaviour of the minority elites who were despite their earlier engagement in ethnic mobilization very acquiescent to the new Putin regime deciding that co operation would maximise their privileges

Mediating Ideology in Text and Image Inger Lassen, Jeanne Strunck, Torben Vestergaard, 2006-01-01 While ideology has been treated widely in CDA literature the role played by the interaction of text and image in multiplying meaning and furthering ideological stances has not so far received a lot of attention Mediating Ideology in Text and Image offers a number of approaches to such analysis offering students and academics valuable tools for identifying possible discrepancies between the world and the way it is represented through various mediational means The authors common aim is one of assisting the audience in reading between the lines thus offering a variety of approaches that may contribute to a better understanding of how ideologies possibly work and how they may be denaturalised from text and image The articles in part I look at rhetorical strategies used in meaning construction processes unfolding in various kinds of mass media Part II focuses on the re semiotization of meaning and looks at how analysing the combination of text and image may contribute to a better understanding of ideological processes brought about by multimodal resources Foreword by Ruth Wodak

A Corpus-Based Analysis of Discourses on the Belt and Road Initiative Muhammad Afzaal, 2023-01-20 This book adopts a corpus based critical discourse analysis approach and examines a corpus of newspaper articles from Pakistani and Indian publications to gain comparative insights into the ideological construction of China's Belt and Road Initiative BRI and the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC within news discourses This book contributes to the works on perceptions of BRI in English newspapers of India and Pakistan A multi billion dollar project of BRI or the One Belt One Road OBOR CPEC symbolizes a vision for regional revival under China's economic leadership and clout Propelled by the Chinese Premier's dream to revive the Chinese economy as well as to restructure and catalyze infrastructural development in Asia BRI is aimed at connecting Asia via land and sea routes with Europe Africa and the Middle Eastern states
