institution building and cultural transmission among European Sikhs   Globalization and Transnational Migrations Oluyato Adesina,2009-03-26 The past three decades have proved extremely challenging for Africa and its peoples both at home and in the Diaspora Coincidentally these were also the decades that globalization reached maturity and that the world became more interconnected and interdependent The paradox of globalization for Africa has included increase in marginalization poverty inequality migration and instability This book highlights global asymmetries by interfacing the notion of one world or flat world with the challenges thrown up by transnational migration brain drain citizenship identity multiculturalism religion and ethnicity It presents researches and discourses on globalization across disciplines and across regions and fosters ongoing inquiry into important assumptions beliefs and perspectives about the implications of globalization for Africa and Africans It covers major areas of concern movement of refugees xenophobia transition from economic migration to citizenship challenges of integration and conflict of identity The authors investigate the experiences of Africans in various economic sectors and geographical locations and the trends in hegemony inequality cultural changes and the dynamics of social movements and struggles Through illuminating narratives and copious explanations this book assists readers to make sense of globalization and the position of Africa and Africans in it   National Identity Richard R. Verdugo,Andrew Milne,2016-06-01 National identity has been the subject of much controversy and debate Some have even suggested dropping the concept entirely One group Essentialists argue that national identity is fixed cultural based on birth and ancestry Another viewpoint is posited by Postmodernists who argue that national identity is malleable invented or imagined As alternatives some have suggested that national identity is a hybrid of both Essentialist and Postmodernist views And still others bypass this argument and suggest that national identity should be based on civic factors such as shared values and norms about citizenship While controversy and debate are healthy exercises in any science at some point order must be established if science is to proceed The present volume is based on the idea that national identity is an ideal type concept it does not completely capture reality but is used for analytic purposes In addition rather than focusing on these theoretical debates we pursue research with the idea that results from research will contribute to the field of national identity Three areas of national identity are discussed theoretical national and individual Two chapters focus on the major theories about national identity provide critiques and make suggestions about the topic In section two six chapters provide case studies of national identity on Scotland Ireland Russia Bosnia Herzegovina Germany and France In section three two case studies focus on immigrants and the challenges they face in forming their identities especially identifying with their host countries Belgium and the United Kingdom Several important conclusions may be gleaned from the contributions of the present volume To begin with while national identity is a slippery concept if the field wishes to move beyond debate about fundamentals it would be well advised to view the concept as an ideal type as suggested by the great German scholar Max Weber Secondly the case studies included in the present volume indicate that national identity is not only based on ethnicity and culture but on such external factors as governance regimes and their changes economic crises wars and other forms of aggressive activity and social demographic changes in a population These factors affect a population at the national level For immigrants at the individual level developing national identity is greatly affected by four interrelated factors 1 the degree to which they are accepted by members of the host society 2 immigrants language skills and physical appearances 3 how well they are able to balance their host national identity their ethnic identity and acceptance of their native country 4 and their generational status Generally at the national and individual levels context and circumstances matter in developing national identity   Ireland 1798-1998 Alvin Jackson,2025-05-27 The new edition of Alvin Jackson s highly influential survey of 200 years of Irish history Ireland 1798 1998 War Peace and Beyond is the most up to date original and authoritative survey of modern Irish history available in a single volume Leading historian and author Alvin Jackson draws on new research and the latest scholarship to provide a sustained and coherent historical narrative of the varieties and interconnections of the Irish political experience Each chapter examines a major political issue with a particular focus on the tension between Irish nationalism and unionism and beginning with the creation of militant republicanism and militant loyalism in the 1790s Throughout the book Jackson offers striking and perceptive insights into the key issues and personalities of the period Now in its third edition this acclaimed volume provides expanded coverage of the most recent political developments in Ireland both North and South An entirely new epilogue examines the impacts of the Good Friday Agreement the global banking crisis Brexit and COVID 19 on Irish politics and institutions supported by an updated chronology and bibliography Presenting a fresh interpretation of modern Irish political history Ireland 1798 1998 War Peace and Beyond Offers thought provoking analyses of Irish political parties leaders institutions and movements Interweaves social economic and cultural material relevant to the main political themes Covers segments of Irish society not commonly represented in political history texts Stimulates readers to consider familiar historical issues or personalities from new perspectives Ireland 1798 1998 War Peace and Beyond Third Edition is an invaluable resource for undergraduate and graduate students working on Irish and British political history as well as general readers in search of an incisive stylish and accessible account of the last two centuries of Ireland s past   History, Memory and Migration Irial Glynn,2012-05-04 By conversing with the main bodies of relevant literature from Migration Studies and Memory Studies this overview highlights how analysing memories can contribute to a better understanding of the complexities of migrant incorporation The chapters consider international case studies from Europe North America Australia Asia and the Middle East   Recognition, Equality and Democracy Jurgen De Wispelaere,Cillian McBride,Shane O'Neill,2013-10-18 This volume brings together a range of theoretical responses to issues in Irish politics Its organising ideas recognition equality and democracy set the terms of political debate within both jurisdictions For some there are significant tensions between the grammar of recognition concerned with esteem respect and the symbolic aspects of social life and the logic of equality which is primarily concerned with the distribution of material resources and formal opportunities while for others tensions are produced rather by certain interpretations of these ideas while alternative readings may by contrast serve as the basis for a systematic account of social and political inequality The essays in this collection will explore these interconnections with reference to the politics of Northern Ireland and the Republic The Republic has gone through a period in which its constitution was the focus for a liberal politics aimed at securing personal autonomy while Northern Ireland s political landscape has been shaped by the problem of securing political autonomy and democratic legitimacy While the papers address key questions facing each particular polity the issues themselves have resonances for politics on each side of the border   Educational Policies and Practices of English-Speaking Refugee Resettlement Countries ,2019-05-27 Since 2014 the international community has felt overwhelmed by refugees and asylum seekers searching for opportunities in which to rebuild their lives Indeed large numbers can result in turmoil and concern in resettlement countries and with national citizens A climate of fear can result especially if perpetuated by politicians and media that suggest negative effects resulting from immigration Caught in the crossfire of social and political disagreements about migration are children most of whom are not included in decisions to leave their homelands This edited book examines their academic challenges from the perspective of the six English speaking refugee resettlement countries Our hope is not only to compare challenges but also to describe successes by which teachers and policymakers can consider new approaches to help refugee and asylum seeking children Educational Policies and Practices of English Speaking Refugee Resettlement Countries offers perspectives from established and new scholars examining educational situations for refugees and asylum seekers The top three resettlement countries are the United States Canada and Australia For its size New Zealand is also proportionately a country of high resettlement New to resettlement are the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland Thus this collection includes wisdom from countries that began resettlement during World War Two as well as newcomers to the process In 2018 UNHCR numbers of displaced people reached a record high of 68 5 million Policymakers teachers social service providers and the general public need to understand ways to help resettled refugees become productive members in their new countries of residence Contributors are Samantha Arnold Asih Asikin Garmager Melanie Baak Sally Baker Zhiyan Basharati Briana Byers Merike Darmody Lucia Dore Ain A Grooms Maria Hayward Asher Hirsch Amanda Hiorth Caroline Lenette Leslie Ann Locke Duhita Mahatmya Jody L McBrien Rory Mc Daid Helen Murphy Tara Ross Jan Stewart and Elizabeth P Tonogbanua   Policing and Social Marginalisation in Ireland Aogán Mulcahy,Eoin O'Mahony,2005   The Making of a Left-Behind Class Fred Powell,Margaret Scanlon,Pat Leahy,Hilary Jenkinson,Olive Byrne,2024-03-04 Despite the high aspirations of young people from disadvantaged communities they face barriers that are frustrating the realisation of their educational ambitions This book analyses the left behind phenomenon and shows how education has become the new divide in Western society It explains how denied educational equality and frustrated opportunity are undermining social cohesion and what we can do about it It challenges meritocratic thinking and the efficacy of widening participation as a policy for social inclusion Combining analysis of educational disadvantage at an international level and among Travelling communities with empirical data derived from fieldwork with parents teachers and students in the European Union Ireland this book offers fresh thinking and new hope in relation to young people left behind in the opportunity structure The Cambridge Social History of Modern Ireland Eugenio F.
