Video Production Workshop Tom Wolsky, 2013-01-25 Video Production Workshop is the first book written to be accessible and appealing to a younger digitally savvy audience interested in learning the full range of skills involved in planning and executing a video project. It introduces all the digital tools and basic techniques in sequence for readers to build proficiency and gain a well rounded mastery of the art and craft of video production. Author Tom Wolsky begins with lessons in video editing and camera handling and then moves on to scripting and storyboarding a production. Readers then step through a series of exercise projects. Separate chapters explore how to light different types of scenes as well as how to obtain well recorded sound. The book is designed both for independent students as well as for classroom use and it includes lessons on video journalism and its rights responsibilities and ethics. Related techniques for interviewing and working in a live studio are also presented. The book concludes with lessons in post production techniques especially motion graphics and special effects. The downloadable resources are packed with DV footage for projects plus demo plug ins and free software. The Art of the Filmmaker Peter Markham, 2023 The Art of the Filmmaker The Practical Aesthetics of the Screen explores the filmmaker's intention and method their creation and capture of the fiction on the screen and their formulation of the elements of the frame as a designed address to the audience. Positing practical aesthetics as a resource of visual communication central to cinematic art this book examines the concepts fundamental to the selective processes of the filmmaker and offers the reader highly informed textual analyses of specific films to explain the how and why of cinematic decision making. After general consideration of language and cinema Peter Markham sets out categories essential to the reader in their understanding of the filmmaker's art dramatic narrative elements before the lens screen language the shot camera editing sound and music. Furthermore Markham provides insight into how a comparison of the film with its screenplay can reveal the evolution of the filmmaker's storytelling strategies. This book also includes case studies of scenes and sequences from three films by contemporary filmmakers Hereditary Ari Aster Moonlight Barry Jenkins and Nomadland Chloe Zhao. Screenshots are used to illustrate the concepts articulated in the carefully constructed text. This book is intended for the student of filmmaking its practitioners students and scholars of film studies and film theory for those in media studies and arts programs and for lovers of movies.
