A One World Religion is Coming Part 2 Leslie Dutcher, 2024-05-17 Bible prophecies say that in the end time all religions will become one Revelation 13:8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world KJV It says clearly that everyone will worship the Antichrist and his one world religious system except for those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life The Bible goes on to teach us that there are penalties for those who do not submit to the Antichrist by worshiping him and his one world religious system This is a continuation of the explanation of the coming one world religion

Dialogue Among the Faith Communities Lucien F. Cosijns, 2008 After twenty five centuries of rapid human evolution dialogue has now come to be a word and concept of daily use in the media and a theme of discussion all over the world In this current period of our human history the centuries long struggle for survival and our belligerent confrontation with each other is being replaced by a new era of collaboration in dialogue The most intriguing aspect of this new dialogue is that the interfaith conversation has extended worldwide within the past fifteen years Ultimately this new conversation has resulted in efforts towards a corroborative dialogue between the world of faiths and the political world This book's aim is to sketch this striking movement in its philosophical and religious evolution and expression

International Development and Local Faith Actors

Kathryn Kraft, Olivia J. Wilkinson, 2020-03-17 This book explores the interplay and dialogue between faith communities and the humanitarian development community Faith and religion are key influencers of thought and practice in many communities around the world and development practitioners would not be able to change behaviours for improved health and social relations without the understanding and influence of those with authority in communities such as religious leaders Equally religious leaders feel responsibilities to their communities but do not necessarily have the technical knowledge and resources at hand to provide the information or services needed to promote the well being of all in their scope of influence The book demonstrates that partnerships between humanitarian development practitioners and religious communities can be mutually beneficial exchanges but that there are also frequently pitfalls along the way and opportunities for lessons to be learned by each party Delving into how humanitarians and faith communities engage with one another the book focuses on building knowledge about how they interact as peers with different yet complementary roles in community development The authors draw on the Channels of Hope methodology a tool which seeks to engage faith leaders in addressing social norms and enact social change as well as other related research in the sector to demonstrate the many ways in which humanitarian and development policy makers and practitioners could achieve more systematic engagement with faith groups This book is an important contribution to the growing body of literature on faith and development and will be useful both to researchers and to practitioners working with faith communities
