Rememberance Day, 1998 Edinburgh Companion to Modern Jewish Fiction David Brauner, 2015-06-07 Provides critical overviews of the main writers and key themes of Anglophone Jewish fiction This collection of essays represents a new departure for and a potentially redefining moment in literary Jewish Studies. It is the first volume to bring together essays covering a wide range of American, British, South African, Canadian, and Australian Jewish fiction. Moreover, it complicates all these terms, emphasising the porousness between different national traditions and moving beyond traditional definitions of Jewishness. For the sake of structural clarity, the volume is divided into three parts: American Jewish Fiction, British Jewish Fiction, and International and Transnational Anglophone Jewish Fiction, but many of the essays cross over these boundaries and speak to each other implicitly as well as on occasion explicitly. Extending and redefining the canon of modern Jewish fiction, the volume juxtaposes major authors with more marginal figures, revising and recuperating individual reputations, rediscovering forgotten and discovering new work, and in the process remapping the whole terrain. This volume opens windows onto vistas that previously had been obscured and opens doors for the next generation of studies that could not proceed without a wide-ranging visionary empiricism grounding their work.

The Edinburgh Companion is a paradigm-changing event, and nothing in Jewish literary studies that follows can fail to pay close attention to it.

Key Features Highlights the rich diversity of the field and identifies its key themes, including immigration, the Diaspora, the Holocaust, Judaism, assimilation, antisemitism, and Zionism. Analyses the main trends in Anglophone Jewish fiction and situates them in historical context. Discusses the place of Anglophone Jewish fiction in relation to critical debates concerning transatlanticism and transnationalism, ethnicity and identity politics, postcolonial studies, feminist studies, and Jewish Studies. With a preface by Mark Shechner, the volume contains 28 essays by contributors including Vicki Aarons (Trinity University, Texas), Debra Shostak (Wooster College, Ohio), Ira Nadel (University of British Columbia), Efraim Sicher (Ben-Gurion University), Phyllis Lassner (Northwestern University), Sue Vice (University of Sheffield), Lori Harrison Kahan (Boston College), Ruth Gilbert (University of Winchester), Beate Neumeier (University of Cologne), and Sandra Singer (University of Guelph). David Brauner is Professor of Contemporary Literature at The University of Reading. Axel Staer is Reader in Comparative Literature at the University of Kent, Canterbury.

Modern Classic Short Novels Of Science Fiction Gardner Dozois, 2014-10-28. The novella is, in the words of Gardner Dozois, a perfect length for a science fiction story: long enough to enable you to flesh out the details of a strange alien world or a bizarre future society, and yet still short enough for the story to pack a real punch. The thirteen masterpieces assembled in Modern Classic Short Novels of Science Fiction travel to the farthest reaches of the imagination through realms of immortality, along alternate paths of time, and across vast galaxies to explore the best of all imaginable worlds.
