Securing South Africa's Democracy Defense Development And Security In Transition:

Securing South Africa's Democracy G. Cawthra, 1997-07-16 This book examines the defence and security challenges facing the new South Africa in the context of development and nation building priorities The transformation of security policy during the transition from apartheid and since the April 1994 elections is examined Challenges facing the defence force and the police service are examined and the relationships between defence development and domestic and external security are explored in an integrated way which points to a policy framework for security in the developing world Securing South

Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra, 1997 The Obligation of Empire James J. Hentz, 2021-12-14 Some of the nation's most respected scholars of international affairs examine the debates over U S grand strategy in light of U S security policies and interests in tactical regions around the world The contributors begin by describing the four grand strategies currently competing for dominance of U S foreign policy neo isolationism argues that the United States should not become involved in conflicts outside specifically defined national interests selective engagement proposes that the United States despite its position as the world's only remaining superpower should limit its involvement in foreign affairs cooperative security advocates that the United States is not and should not act as an imperial country primacy asserts that the United States is an empire and therefore it should conduct an expansive foreign policy Focusing on regions that present new challenges to U S grand strategy such as Sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and Latin America the contributors offer the most current examinations of U S policies and assess the effectiveness of competing strategies in each region The Obligation of Empire offers an innovative set of foreign policy initiatives that explore the tensions between global agendas and regionalist approaches Contributors Andrew J Bacevich Doug Bandow Dale Davis Thomas Donnelly James J Hentz Clifford Kiracofe Charles Kupchan Jeffrey Stark S Frederick Starr and Brantley Womack James J Hentz associate professor of international studies at the Virginia Military Institute is the coeditor of New and Critical Security and Regionalism Beyond the Nation State Securing South Africa's Democracy Gavin Cawthra, 1997 Defensive Restructuring of the Armed Forces in

Southern Africa Bjørn Møller, Gavin Cawthra, 2019-01-15 Published in 1997 the work explores the reorientation of security policies and the accompanying restructuring of the armed forces going on in Southern Africa under entirely new circumstances Democracy has come to South Africa the civil wars in Angola and Mozambique have ended and the region is establishing a regional framework for cooperation While covering the entire region a special focus is placed on South Africa which is predestined to play a leading role but which is struggling with the legacy of the apartheid regime and its repeated aggressions against neighbouring states A defensive restructuring of the South African of the South African military is an element in the building of mutual trust The implications of such defensive restructuring to a non offensive defence are described in detail In addition to the analytical contribution the work also contains central documents and a bibliography

Governing Insecurity Gavin Cawthra, Robin Luckham, 2003-04 The authors of this volume explore the challenges of establishing democratic accountability and control over the military and other security establishments in countries which have either been the victims of authoritarian military rule or wracked by violent internal conflict The book examines both successful democratic transitions and failed ones A wide range of cases is covered including Algeria Bosnia and Herzegovina Chile the Congo Ghana Nigeria Sierra Leone South Africa Sri Lanka and Turkey The possible role of regional interventions and institutions notably in West Africa and the Balkans is also examined

Demilitarisation and Peace-Building in Southern Africa Peter Batchelor, 2018-12-17 First published in 2004 this work is based on a collaborative research project this trilogy considers the dynamics of demilitarisation and peace building in southern Africa in the aftermath of major violent conflicts The overall aim of the research is to support and facilitate the achievement of sustainable peace and human development in southern Africa by analysing demilitarisation and peace building processes in the region and identifying policy options and interventions for peace building The central focus of the research is the extent to which demilitarisation following the termination of wars has contributed to broad processes of peace building in the affected region Has the military in southern Africa downsized and refocused towards new roles Has there been a peace dividend allowing more investment in economic and human development thereby dealing with some of the root causes of conflict Volume I provides a conceptual framework for the analysis of demilitarisation and peace building processes applicable particularly in the southern Africa context This volume argues that a broad concept of peace building has to take into account economic political social and cultural factors at the local national and regional level

Ibss: Political Science: 1998 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 2000-02 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures this series provides the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences Arranged by topic and indexed by author subject and place name each bibliography lists and annotates the most important works published in its field during the year of 1997 including hard to locate journal articles Each volume also includes a complete list of the periodicals consulted

Beyond Settlement Vanessa E. Shields, Nicholas Baldwin, 2008 Political ideological and ethnic conflicts have resulted in countless deaths the creation of millions of refugees the destruction of livelihoods and widespread human suffering to say nothing of the economic destruction This book examines institution building and security sector reform in conflict states by analyzing eighteen case studies covering eleven countries and six decades With regard to institution building there is an analysis of four democratic levers elections the legislature the executive and devolution focusing on how the structure and function of these political institutions contribute to the management and reduction of conflict and to the consolidation of fragile democracies Concerning security sector reform there is an analysis of how military police and intelligence institutions are reformed in states that are coming out of conflict states that are moving beyond settlement Some of the conflicts in this study are ongoing Palestine while others have been resolved Spain South Africa while still others are in a peace building or immediate post conflict stage Northern Ireland

Africa's Challenge to International Relations

Theory K. Dunn, T. Shaw, 2001-02-20 Africa has been noticeably absent in international relations theory This new collection of essays by contemporary Africanists convincingly demonstrates the importance of the continent to every theoretical approach in international relations This collection breaks new ground in how we think about both international relations and Africa re examining such foundational concepts as sovereignty the state and power critically investigating the salience of realism neo liberalism liberalism in Africa and providing new thinking about regionalism security and identity

The Government of Disasters Lydie Cabane, 2023-09-22 This book examines the history of disaster management in South Africa showing how experts professionals and policymakers have crafted and implemented disaster policies from the mid twentieth century to the present day It assesses the ways in which states become concerned with disasters the extent to which disaster management contributes toward state formation and who and what disaster management protects It also considers the ways in which the politics of protection continuously shift as political regimes change In telling the story of how policies surrounding disaster protection have evolved in South Africa the book demonstrates how the security apparatus that shaped disaster management was re oriented in the twenty first century towards development alongside bureaucratic reforms that aimed to democratize the state By examining the wider context of the globalization of disaster management it also highlights the often unrecognised role of experts from Africa Latin America and Asia in shaping global disaster policies The book will appeal to scholars and students of disaster governance public policy state formation and African politics

Chinese Aid and African Development D. Bräutigam, 1998-06-21 Since 1957 more than 45 African countries have received aid from China yet until recently little has been known about the effectiveness or impact of this assistance Bräutigam provides the first authoritative account of China's experience as an aid donor in rural Africa In a detailed and highly readable analysis the author draws on anthropology economics organization theory and political science to explain how China s domestic agenda shaped the design of its aid and how domestic politics in African countries influenced its outcome      Comparative Constitutionalism and Good Governance in the Commonwealth John Hatchard,Muna Ndulo,Peter Slinn,2004-07-08 The central role that good effective and capable governance plays in the economic and social development of a country is now widely recognised Using the Commonwealth countries of eastern and southern Africa this book analyses some of the key constitutional issues in the process of developing strengthening and consolidating the capacity of states to ensure the good governance of their peoples Utilising comparative material the book seeks to draw lessons both positive and negative about the problems of constitutionalism in the region and in doing so critically addresses the legal issues involved in seeking to make constitutions work in practice      Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick Fawn,2009-04-30 A collection of leading international scholars examine the concept of regions from a range of perspectives and assess leading contemporary examples      The Elusive Promise of NGOs in Africa S. Dicklitch,1998-07-13 Dicklitch challenges the dominant discourse of neo liberalism which places NGOs and civil society at the forefront of democratization and development in Africa Based on nine months of field research in Uganda the study draws on evidence from the successfully liberalizing country and shows how NGO potential for democratization and development has been subverted by state directives structural and historical conditions as well as the internal limitations of NGOs      Crises of Governance in Asia and Africa Sandra J. MacLean,Fahimul Quadir,2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Investigating the relations between ethnicity and governance in Asia and Africa and going well beyond traditional and orthodox treatments this volume is not only a stimulating text but also an invaluable tool for original and innovative research      Racism and Public Policy Y. Bangura,R. Stavenhagen,2005-04-05 In a time when racism is on the rise as a source of conflict and social justice has been increasingly demanded by the civic society this collection stands as a timely reminder that to ignore the racial factor in the globalization forces is as mistaken as eliminating class analysis The essays published here supplement the literature of comparative race relations from the standpoint of the theory of institutional racism and its effect on public policies such as immigration citizenship security and policing      The United Nations in Southeast Asia and the South Pacific Roderic Alley,2016-07-27 This study of the United Nations in Southeast Asia and the South Pacific evaluates the organization s role and performance in Cambodia and over refugees regarding human rights development environment and the needs of women within regional cooperation and as an instrument of state policy These cases illustrate how multilateral conduct through the United nations provides a barometer indicating the intensity with which policy initiatives and values are sustained by relevant governmental interests alike In the regional settings considered conduct towards and within the UN has amplified unresolved value differences regarding relations with major powers sustainability and national identity      Securing Sierra Leone, 1997-2013 Peter Albrecht,Paul Jackson,2015-06-19

Between 1991 and 2002 Sierra Leone was wracked by a devastating civil war and the complete collapse of state institutions. Since then however the UK's contribution to post war reconstruction has been widely held up as an example of successful stabilisation and state building particularly of the country's security and justice institutions. Securing Sierra Leone 1997-2013 examines how the process of state building through security sector reform developed in Sierra Leone and the impact of this experience on international conceptualisations of such reform as well as on international interventions more broadly. The study is the most detailed of its kind based on a comprehensive analysis of UK engagement in Sierra Leone between 1997 and 2013 including a host of first hand accounts from key local and international actors. This monograph shows why the UK intervention in Sierra Leone has been a relative success. However it also questions the sustainability of state building efforts that are driven by concepts of the liberal state. In Sierra Leone critical challenges remain not least in the combination of a particular vision of what a state should look like and the unrealistic expectations of progress on the part of the international community.
