Dictionary of Occupational Titles ,2003 Spatializing Practices of Regional Organizations during Conflict Intervention Jens Herpolsheimer,2021-02-28 This book studies relevant actors and practices of conflict intervention by African regional organizations and their intimate connection to space making addressing a major gap regarding what actually happens within and around these organizations Based on extensive empirical research it argues that those intervention practices are essentially spatializing practices based on particular spatial imaginations contributing to the continuous construction and formatting of regional spaces as well as to ordering relations between different regional spaces Analyzing the field of developing practices of conflict intervention by the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and the African Union AU the book contributes a new theory oriented analytical approach to study African regional organizations ROs and the complex dynamics of African peace and security based on insights from Critical Geography As such it helps to close an empirical gap with regard to the internal modes of operation of African ROs as well as the lack of their theorization It demonstrates that contrary to most accounts intervention practices of African ROs have been diverse and complexly interrelated involving different actors within and around these organizations and are essentially tied to the space making This book will be of key interest to students and scholars of African Politics Governance Peace and Security Studies International or Regional Organizations and more broadly to Comparative Regionalism International Relations and International Studies
