Film as a Medium of Seduction Marcus Stiglegger, 2024-03-14 The seduction theory defines film in a broader sense as a medium of seduction based on the French concept of séduction It is a theoretical approach influenced by continental philosophy and classical film theory linked to a three stage analytical model The book introduces the theoretical foundations and using various classical and contemporary examples from film history presents a genuine method of film analysis The Hysteric Eleanor Bowen, Laura González, 2023-04-01 Examining historical clinical and artistic material in both written and visual form this book traces the figure of the contemporary hysteric as she rebels against the impossible demands made upon her Exploring five traits that commonly characterise the hysteric as an archetype a specific body mimetic abilities a shroud of mystery a propensity to disappear and a particular relationship to voice the authors shed light on what it means to be hysterical as a form of rebellion and resistance This is important reading for scholars of sociology gender studies cultural studies and visual studies with interests in psychoanalysis art and the characterisation of mental illness Feminist Trauma Theologies Karen O'Donnell, Katie Cross, 2025-01-30 Throughout the study of trauma theology runs a lineage that is deeply feminist As traumatic experience is being more frequently acknowledged in public this book seeks to articulate an explicit understanding of feminist trauma theology for the first time Bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines this book explores the relationship between trauma and feminist theologies highlighting methodological theological and practical similarities between the two The MeToo and ChurchToo movements sexual abuse scandals gender based violence pregnancy loss and the oppression of women in church spaces are all featured as important topics With contributions from a diverse team of scholars this book is an essential resource for all thinkers and practitioners who are trying to navigate the current conversations around theology suffering and feminism Listening to Trauma, 2014-11-25 Interviews and intimate photographic portraits of witnesses to the collective and cultural significance of trauma This new collection from Cathy Caruth features interviews with a diverse group of leaders in the theorization of and response to traumatic experience in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Crossing the boundaries of discipline and profession Caruth s subjects include literary theorists and critics psychoanalysts psychiatrists psychologists political activists filmmakers public intellectuals institutional leaders and researchers Exploring the intertwining of the intellectual and personal dimensions of experience each interview is accompanied by Caruth s intimate photographic portrait of its subject Caruth chose her subjects because of their impact on her thinking as well as their significant role as witnesses to the collective and cultural significance of trauma The individuals profiled here are innovators in the theory of trauma Part I in the clinical activist or testimonial interventions in trauma Part II or in the creation or modification of institutions that provide therapeutic artistic or legal responses to traumatic events Part III Two of the interviews first appeared in Caruth s landmark 1995 work Trauma Explorations in Memory The rest were conducted between 2011 and 2013 after the field of trauma studies expanded significantly Representing both the foundation of trauma research and cutting edge approaches to the topic this collection will be useful to practitioners with an interest in post traumatic stress disorder as well as scholars exploring the multiple dimensions of profound human experience A portion of the proceeds from sales of this book will go to the Grady Nia Project for abused suicidal and low income African American women

The Cambridge Companion to Freud Jerome Neu,1991-11-29 This volume covers all the central topics of Freud s work from sexuality to neurosis to morality art and culture The Interpretation of the Flesh Teresa Brennan,2002-09-11 The riddle of femininity like Freud s reference to women s sexuality as a dark continent has been treated as a romantic aside or a sexist evasion rather than a problem to be solved In this first comprehensive study Teresa Brennan suggests that by placing these theories in the context of Freud s work overall we will begin to understand why femininity was such a riddle for Freud

Mysteries in History Paul D. Aron,2005-11-07 This work is an engaging exploration of the process of historical research following historians as they search for solutions to the greatest mysteries of all time Award winning author Paul Aron takes readers on a journey through great historical mysteries through the ages Entertaining in themselves the stories also show that history is not merely living but lively The reader who comes to the book thinking history is boring will leave with a changed outlook with regard to both the subject matter and the process of writing history Each chapter is a carefully and thoroughly researched presentation not of popularized accounts but of valid historical scholarship Chronologically arranged the essays show the historical process in action For each disputed historical point theories arise become standard wisdom and then are revised as additional information becomes available This book reveals the mechanics of that process including spirited debate swashbuckling archaeology and the application of modern science to ancient questions

Inventing the Child John Zornado,2013-10-18 Now in paperback Inventing the Child is a highly entertaining humorous and at times acerbic account of what it means to be a child and a parent in America at the dawn of the new millennium J Zornado explores the history and development of the concept of childhood starting with the works of Calvin Freud and Rousseau and culminating with the modern consumer childhood of Dr Spock and television

The volume discusses major media depictions of childhood and examines the ways in which parents use different forms of media to swaddle educate and entertain their children Zornado argues that the stories we tell our children contain the ideologies of the dominant culture which more often than not promote happiness at all costs materialism as the way to happiness and above all obedience to the dominant order

Seduction, Suggestion, Psychoanalysis Philippe van Haute, Jozef Corveleyn, 2001 This book makes clear that the problem of seduction and suggestion raises major psychoanalytic and more generally philosophical problems that are still of great importance for the self understanding of contemporary humankind
