overseas to signal the collapse of dominant social order and to relay moral messages and represent socio political debates

Science and Civilisation in China: Volume 6, Biology and Biological Technology, Part 3, Agro-Industries and Forestry Joseph Needham, Christian Daniels, Nicholas K. Menzies, 1996-06-20 Contains two separate works The first by Christian Daniels is a comprehensive history of Chinese sugar cane technology from ancient times to the early twentieth century Dr Daniels includes an account of the contribution of Chinese techniques and machinery to the development of world sugar technology in the pre modern period devoting special attention to the transfer of this technology to the countries of South East and East Asia in the period after the sixteenth century The second by Nicholas K Menzies is a history of forestry in China A final section compares China s history of deforestation with the cases of Europe and Japan

Metals and Monies in an Emerging Global Economy Arturo Giráldez, 2022-03-01 The literature on early modern monetary history is vast and rich yet overly Eurocentric This book takes a global approach It calls attention to the fact that for example Japan and South America were dominant in silver production while China was the principal end market key areas for transshipment included Europe and Africa India and the Middle East Europeans were often just middlemen Other monetized substances gold copper and cowries must also be viewed globally The interrelated trades in metals and monies are what first linked worldwide markets and disequilibrium within the silver market in the 16th and 17th centuries was an active cause of this global trade

The Naval Miscellany Susan Rose, 2020-11-25 This seventh volume of Naval Miscellany contains documents which range in date from the late thirteenth century to the Korean War They illustrate the many different ways in which the naval forces of the crown have served the realm Topics covered include the role of ships in campaigns against Scotland under Edward I and Edward VI the protection of the Iceland fishery in the days of the Commonwealth government and the operation of prize courts during the wars against France in the eighteenth century Moving on to the nineteenth century the supply of timber to the Royal Navy is examined while two contributions deal with surveying off the west coast of Africa and another prints a diary kept by a member of the Naval Brigade operating onshore in the Zulu War The most recent contributions deal with the origins and development of the Royal Australian Navy up to the 1950s Two more controversial subjects are also included the first gives more information about the storage of cordite on battle cruisers in 1916 and the battle of Jutland the second documents the relief of Admiral North from Gibraltar in 1940 There is something here for every enthusiast for naval history and for all students of the relevant periods
