The Essential LDS Collection provides a comprehensive exploration into the multifaceted world of Latter day Saint thought and tradition. This anthology presents a tapestry of religious discourse from theological expositions and historical analyses to personal reflections and religious poetry. It spans various literary styles, inviting readers to grapple with the profound implications of the Latter day Saint faith. Each piece has been carefully curated to highlight pivotal doctrines and historical events, offering a transformative journey through the intricate landscape of Latter day Saint beliefs and practices. Among the included works, certain accounts stand out for their depth and clarity, providing insight into the enduring spirit of the LDS community. The contributing authors are some of the most prominent figures in LDS history, including Wilford Woodruff, Eliza R. Snow, and Joseph Smith Jr., who collectively embody the rich historical and cultural legacy of their faith. Their writings capture the heart of the Latter day Saint movement, reflecting its 19th century roots and continuing evolution. As part of vibrant religious and literary movements, they blend personal conviction with scholarly inquiry, enriching the narrative with perspectives from different eras. The anthology showcases the writers' symbiotic relationship with the cultural currents of their times. For any reader interested in religious studies, The Essential LDS Collection offers a unique opportunity to immerse in diverse perspectives and styles concerning LDS theology and history. This collection promises not only educational value but delivers a breadth of insights into the spiritual ethos that drives its contributors. Delve into the dialogues fostered between these varied works and appreciate the depth ensuing from collective voices that articulate a vibrant faith tradition in enduring literary forms.

From the Church to the Kingdom Douglas Hatten, 2011-07-16 Alfred Loisy famously wrote Jesus preached the Kingdom but what came was the church This statement was designed to reveal an important truth In the year

2000 a thought came to rest very powerfully in my conscience It is the end of the Church Age and the beginning of the Kingdom Age It permeated the very core of my being Despite the emphasis many place on the church Jesus mentioned the church only twice in all four Gospels By way of contrast He spoke continually about the Kingdom New Testament Christianity wasn't a denomination It was a movement It was a radical spiritual revolution They did not join a denomination but made a covenant with God and became a part of a wider community of believers Those who came into this new and everlasting covenant with God would be referred to as the church or the Body of Christ Their goal was to bring forth the Kingdom of God through the manifest power of Christ within them Back cover The Western Journal and Civilian ,1854
