

The background of the book cover is a textured, layered composition. At the top, there are horizontal bands of red and yellow. Below these, a large, light-colored rectangular area contains the title and author's name. The bottom half of the cover features a dark, brownish ground with several vertical, tree-like structures. Each structure has a long, thin trunk and a complex, branching root system. The trunks are made of wood or a similar material, and some have small, dark, rectangular openings. The roots spread out across the ground, creating a dense, interconnected network. The overall style is reminiscent of a woodcut or a textured print.
