Luís de Camões is world famous as the author of the great Renaissance epic The Lusads but his large and equally great body of lyric poetry is still almost completely unknown outside his native Portugal In The Collected Lyric Poems of Luís de Camões the award winning translator of The Lusads gives English readers the first comprehensive collection of Camões's sonnets songs elegies hymns odes eclogues and other poems more than 280 lyrics altogether all rendered in engaging verse Camões 1524-1580 was the first great European artist to cross into the Southern Hemisphere and his poetry bears the marks of nearly two decades spent in north and east Africa the Persian Gulf India and Macau From an elegy set in Morocco to a hymn written at Cape Guardafui on the northern tip of Somalia to the first modern European love poems for a non European woman these lyrics reflect Camões's encounters with radically unfamiliar peoples and places Translator Landeg White has arranged the poems to follow the order of Camões's travels making the book read like a journey The work of one of the first European cosmopolitans these poems demonstrate that Camões would deserve his place among the great poets even if he had never written his epic

Propertius Propertius, 2016-07-07 The Roman poet Propertius is best known as the writer who perfected the Latin love elegy a technical as much as a psychological and cultural feat Propertius has been admired for both his metrical genius and the modernity of his narrative flow Many of the poems here pay tribute to Cynthia Propertius's romantic obsession but the scope of these 107 elegies is broad Propertius's poetry offers a fascinating look into life in the Augustan age addressing social political and historical subjects A contemporary of Virgil and Horace Propertius has influenced scores of poets from Ovid to Housman to Pound His poetry appears here for the first time in a dual language edition with the translations facing the original Latin Rendered into English by a poet who is also one of the nation's pre eminent Propertius experts the volume brings Propertius's difficult mix of vernacular and high literary allusion into contemporary language Cynthia was the first She caught me with her eyes a fool who had never before been touched by desires Love cast down my look of constant pride and he pressed on my head with his feet until he taught me to despise chaste girls perversely and to live without plan Already it's been a whole year that the frenzy hasn't stopped when for all that the gods are against me The Dream of the Poem

Enough to Say It's Far Chaesam Pak,2006-07-23 This is the first English translation of selected poems by one of the most important and unusual modern poets of South Korea In contrast to the strident political protests found in the poetry of many of his contemporaries Pak Chaesam's work is characterized by intimate portraits of place nature childhood and human relationships and by indirection nostalgia and reflectiveness Often focused upon the border of this world and some other Pak writes with a spareness of presentation but a cornucopia of imagery meticulously exploring objective and subjective realms of existence and memory Encouraging the reader to see and listen and to allow the sensory to reshape the analytical Pak's poetry opens up new realms of experience A fellow Korean poet described Pak's poetry as being the most exquisite expression of the Korean sense of han or melancholy Brief Homage to Pluto and Other Poems Fabio Pusterla,2023-04-11 Pusterla is a contemporary Swiss poet who writes in Italian This volume is a selection from Pusterla's six most recent books of poetry published in Italian The poems create a solid sense of place mountains lakes streams villages occasionally a city They move from precise and delicate observations of creatures plants and atmosphere to harshly historical and sociological pieces wounded by Italy's past and present. They find striking and unpredictable ways into their subjects often ending on a surprising crystallized image. And in the series editors' words, the translations compel throughout through their cadence, pacing, assonance, and tactful alliteration, their texture and their touch. The effect of the whole of the supple verse renderings and the prose poetry is of lively variety in theme, point of view, and form. Pusterla Schutt in this manuscript emerges as an authentic original, passionate albeit subtle voice.

C. P. Cavafy C. P. Cavafy, 2020-05-05 C. P. Cavafy 1863-1933 lived in relative obscurity in Alexandria and a collected edition of his poems was not published until after his death. Now, however, he is regarded as the most important figure in twentieth-century Greek poetry, and his poems are considered among the most powerful in modern European literature. Here is an extensively revised edition of the acclaimed translations of Edmund Keeley and Philip Sherrard, which capture Cavafy's mixture of formal and idiomatic use of language and preserve the immediacy of his frank treatment of homosexual themes, his brilliant re-creation of history, and his astute political ironies. The resetting of the entire edition has permitted the translators to review each poem and to make alterations where appropriate. George Savidis has revised the notes according to his latest edition of the Greek text.

Voices of Modern Greece, 2021-08-10 This anthology is composed of recently revised translations selected from the five volumes of work by major poets of modern Greece offered by Edmund Keeley and Philip Sherrard during the past two decades. The poems chosen are those that translate most successfully into English and that are also representative of the best work of the original poets. C. P. Cavafy and Angelos Sikelianos are major poets of the first half of the twentieth century. George Seferis and Odysseus Elytis, who followed them, both won the Nobel Prize in literature. Nikos Gatsos was a very popular translator, lyricist, and critic.

The Poetess Counts to 100 and Bows Out Ana Enriqueta Terán, 2009-02-09 Ana Enriqueta Terán is arguably Venezuela's finest poet. Celebrated throughout the Spanish-speaking world, she is almost unknown among anglophones. Until now, only a handful of her poems have been translated into English, giving at best a diluted impression of a uniquely intense imagination. This bilingual edition reveals the power and beauty of this poet's Spanish poems through English versions of corresponding force. It invites readers to enter Terán's world, a world at once strongly Venezuelan and universally human, imbued with great beauty, sardonic humor, pitiless compassion, lucid wisdom, and joyful affirmation. Selected from several volumes of Terán's work, these poems span half a century of composition and show an extraordinary range in both form and substance. Some are written in closed forms, some in free verse. Some are carefully evocative representations of the landscapes and cityscapes that have nourished the poet's intelligence and imagination. Others are dramatic character studies. All are infused with Terán's rare sensibility and realized through language that manages to be at once graceful, urgent, and explosive. This volume is a treasure for all lovers of poetry.

Deal Struck with Happiness How much sweetness to make right the night and this clutch of anemones near thin, smooth, consoling stones, stones, havens of southern weather. Of a woman who watches Cepheids quaver among lightbursting mangroves. Of a woman who offers cat's eyes and clematis only. Islands for the sake of setting right her deal struck with happiness C. P. Cavafy C. P. Cavafy,2024-11-05 The acclaimed translation of the most important modern Greek poet C P Cavafy 1863 1933 is the most important figure in twentieth century Greek poetry and his poems are considered among the most powerful in modern European literature Edmund Keeley and Philip Sherrard s celebrated English translation of Cavafy s collected poems captures the poet s mixture of formal and idiomatic language the immediacy of his frank treatment of homoeroticism his brilliant re creation of history and his astute political ironies This English only volume is a classic of modern poetry In Hora Mortis / Under the Iron of the Moon Thomas Bernhard,2024-05-14 Haunting and darkly humorous poems by the internationally acclaimed Austrian novelist playwright and memoirist Thomas Bernhard 1931 1989 has been compared to Kafka and Beckett and critics have ranked his novels among the masterpieces of the twentieth century But in fact he began his career in the 1950s as a poet publishing three books of well received verse before turning to fiction In Hora Mortis Under the Iron of the Moon is the first book of his expressionist like poetry to be published in English Bringing together Bernhard s second and third books of poetry the collection s short untitled lyrics reveal his early explorations of themes that would continue to preoccupy him in his novels plays and other writings especially his intense ambivalence toward the land and people of Austria and their then recent Nazi past As the translator James Reidel writes in his preface Bernhard found Austrian soil to be like a hair shirt and a blanket It is a killing ground but with a postcard setting In poems that both subvert and pay homage to such influences as Georg Trakl Bernhard begins to develop his characteristic dark humor while exploring themes of nature death meaninglessness and faith

National Book Critics Circle Award and her fellow poet and translator Yuki Tanaka present the first collection in English of Takiguchi's ingenious playful and erotic poems complete with an introduction and the original Japanese texts on facing pages. Takiguchi's obvious interest in style is perfectly wed to his daredevil rhetorical antics. His poems read as if they could have been written today yet they are so original that they couldn't have been written by anyone else. Bang and Tanaka's skillful colloquial translations offer English readers a long overdue introduction to this important poet. The Greener Meadow Luciano Erba, 2007 Publisher description

Nothing is Lost Edvard Kocbek, 2004-03-16 This is the first comprehensive English language collection of verse by the most celebrated Slovenian poet of modern times and one of Europe's most notable postwar poets. Edvard Kocbek 1904-1981. The selections introduce the reader to the full spectrum of Kocbek's long and distinguished career starting with the pantheist and expressionist nature poems of his early period and continuing through the politically engaged poetry written during and after World War II to the philosophical and metaphysical meditations of his fecund late period. Readers will be struck by the originality and freshness of Kocbek's sinewy and intense vision rendered into fluid and idiomatic English by two experienced translators. The Slovenian texts appear on the facing pages. The opening stanza of Moon with a Halo: The man beside me was killed. He had a mother who bore him and a father who made him toys. He had a brother and a playful uncle and a little girl with blond braids. He had a wooden cart and a wooden horse. A trunkful of colored dreams and a brook where he used to fish.

Sounds, Feelings, Thoughts Wislawa Szymborska, 2020-05-05 Translated and Introduced by Magnus J Krynski and Robert A Maguire. Regarded as one of the best representatives since World War II of the rich and ancient art of poetry in Poland, Wislawa Szymborska 1923-2012 is in the translators' words "that rarest of phenomena: a serious poet who commands a large audience in her native land." The seventy poems in this bilingual edition are among the largest and most representative offering of her work in English, with particular emphasis on the period since 1967. They illustrate virtually all her major themes and most of her important techniques. Describing Szymborska's poetry, Magnus Krynski and Robert Maguire write that her verse is marked by high seriousness, delightful inventiveness, a prodigal imagination, and enormous technical skill. She writes of the diversity, plenitude, and richness of the world, taking delight in observing and naming its phenomena. She looks on with wonder, astonishment, and amusement but almost never with despair.
