Sexual Stratagems Patricia Erens,1979-01-01 Women and Film E. Ann Kaplan,1988 Analyzes the treatment of women in American movies and examines the themes of a variety of contemporary movies made by women Cinema in Muslim Societies Ali Nobil Ahmad,2017-10-02 This book collates a comprehensive range of fascinating essays by leading authors on film from across the Muslim world Responding to political and theoretical misconceptions about Islam and Muslim culture it covers North African Arab and Asian cinemas in a rich series of industry histories single film studies and detailed analyses of celebrated directors Cinema in Muslim Societies is innovative and timely in its explicit engagement with vexing questions of Islamic aesthetics political activism socialism and the role of women in Muslim contexts The authors explore a wide variety of topics from cinematic art and poetry to religious identity and pornography Debated extensively at a programme of public talks and screenings at the Institute of Contemporary Arts in London in 2011 this volume remains supremely relevant in a world of polarising identities and political violence engulfing Muslim societies and the West This book was originally published as a special issue of Third Text Centring Women in Bollywood Biopics Chandrava Chakravarty,Sneha Kar Chaudhuri,2024-10-28 This book explores the dramatic rise in popularity of the women s biopic in contemporary Bollywood within the context of wider cultural shifts over the past decade Delving into the societal shifts reflected in the genre both on and off screen the book explores the contours of individual agency and the centring of women in Indian cinema The book offers new insight into women centric Hindi biopics a fast rising genre carving out a tradition of its own with female directors and actors contributing to this rising postfeminist celebration of women s agency and individuality The authors posit that the alternative narratives created by Bollywood and accepted by mainstream audiences have become a catalyst to elevate women or female actors to protagonists without the need to conform to the sexist mores of mainstream Bollywood This book will be of interest to scholars researchers and upper level students in the areas of film studies media industries gender and feminism and South Asian studies Sex and Sexuality in Modern Screen Remakes Lauren Rosewarne,2019-06-19 Sex and Sexuality in Modern Screen Remakes examines how sexiness sexuality and revisited sexual politics are used to modernize film and TV remakes This exploration provides insight into the ever evolving and ever contested role of sex in society and scrutinizes the politics and economics underpinning modern media reproduction More nudity kinky sex and queer content are increasingly deployed in remakes to attract and to titillate a new generation of viewers While sex in this book refers to increased erotic content this discussion also incorporates an investigation of other uses of sex and gender to help a remake appear woke and abreast of the zeitgeist including feminist reimaginings and girl power make overs updated gender roles female cast swaps queer retellings and repositioned gazes Though increased sex is often considered a sign of modernity gratuitous displays of female nudity can sometimes be interpreted as sexist and anachronistic in turn highlighting that progressiveness around sexuality in contemporary media is not a linear story Also examined therefore are remakes that reduce the sexual content to appear cutting edge and cognizant of the demands of today's audiences

The Monstrous-Feminine Barbara Creed, 2015-09-04 In almost all critical writings on the horror film woman is conceptualised only as victim In The Monstrous Feminine Barbara Creed challenges this patriarchal view by arguing that the prototype of all definitions of the monstrous is the female reproductive body With close reference to a number of classic horror films including the Alien trilogy T

Shot/Countershot Lucy Fischer, 2014-07-14 Do films made by women comprise a counter cinema radically different from the dominant tradition Feminist film critics contend that women filmmakers do present from a distinctive vision or countershot and Lucy Fischer argues persuasively for this view In rich detail this book relates the idea of a counter cinema to theories of intertextuality and locates it in the broad context of recent feminist film literary and art criticism Fischer also employs an original critical model of the dialogue between women's cinema and film tradition in the very organization of the book Each chapter discusses a theme or genre such as the musical the double the myth of womanhood and the figure of the actress counterposing two or more works from the feminist and from the dominant cinema What emerges is a fascinating picture of a women's film tradition that not only addresses but reworks and remakes the mainstream cinema Fischer successfully combines two main strains of feminist criticism the deconstructive critique of the dominant culture from a feminist standpoint and the study of a feminist counterculture Examining films from Persona and The Lady from Shanghai to Girlfriends and Sisters or the Balance of Happiness the book offers fresh interpretations of individual works and can incidentally serve as an introduction to the field of feminist film criticism Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

A Woman's View Jeanine Basinger, 2013-09-04 Now Voyager Stella Dallas Leaver Her to Heaven Imitation of Life Mildred Pierce Gilda these are only a few of the hundreds of women's films that poured out of Hollywood during the thirties forties and fifties The films were widely disparate in subject sentiment and technique they nonetheless shared one dual purpose to provide the audience of women primarily with temporary liberation into a screen dream of romance sexuality luxury suffering or even wickedness and then send it home reminded of reassured by and resigned to the fact that no matter what else she might do a woman's most important job was to be a woman Now with boundless knowledge and infectious enthusiasm Jeanine Basinger illuminates the various surprising and subversive ways in which women's films delivered their message Basinger examines dozens of films exploring the seemingly intractable contradictions at the convoluted heart of the woman's genre among them the dilemma of the strong and glamorous woman who cedes her power when she feels it threatening her personal happiness and the self abnegating woman whose selflessness is not always as noble as it appears Basinger looks at the stars who played these women and helps us understand the qualities the right off screen personae the right on screen attitudes the right faces that made them personify the woman's film and equipped them to make believable drama or comedy out of the crackpot plots the conflicting ideas and the exaggerations of real behavior that characterize these movies In each of the films the author discusses whether melodrama screwball comedy musical film noir western or biopic a woman occupies the center of her particular universe Her story in its endless variations of rags to riches boy meets girl battle of the sexes mother love doomed romance inevitably sends a highly potent mixed message Yes you women belong in your proper place that is content with the Big Three of the woman's film world men marriage and motherhood but meanwhile and paradoxically see what fun glamour and power you can enjoy along the way A Woman's View deepens our understanding of the times and circumstances and attitudes out of which these movies were created
