Shepherds Daniel C. Fredericks, 2017-04-27 How does God manage his entire creation Has he had a plan a theme a metanarrative or something else which he follows that gives a unity to all of his efforts Shepherds describes the relationship between the Creator and his creation a relationship that is structurally integrated by the very core of who God is There is a design within creation that radiates from his personal unique being What God created and how he manages it is a marvelous extension of who he is and how he acts This relationship between God and his creation is not patterned only on his essence or being but on his powerful and loving will and acts Rather than a literary grid to which theme and metanarrative attempt to subject God s relationship with humanity Shepherds recognizes that all of creation bears the eternal design emanating from God s very nature Scripture is not a story about Israel or the church it is not simply a story of redemption it is a window into the eternal design by which God created reality and will eternally sustain that creation Shepherd Leadership

Knepper,2014-05-31 Question Everything was written for everyone who has ever heard something in their religious teaching that did not seem quite right ever had some questions about the Biblical basis for their church's traditions and are wondering if there might be straight forward answers to what may have been bothering them for many years It is a great step of courage and risk to challenge the traditions foundations and strongholds of one's faith particularly when that faith has been handed down from generation to generation but it is risk with the significant reward of peace and confidence that can only be obtained through God's Word. The reader should be brave when comparing what they always thought with what the Bible has to say. As every individual faces eternity, they will not be accompanied by their ancestors, their Ministers or Priests, nor their best friends or loved ones; their eternal destiny will be based on how they responded to God's Holy Word.
