Sherlock Holmes: The Boscombe Valley Mystery Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, We were seated at breakfast one morning my wife and I when the maid brought in a telegram It was from Sherlock Holmes and ran in this way Have you a couple of days to spare Have just been wired for from the west of England in connection with Boscombe Valley tragedy Shall be glad if you will come with me Air and scenery perfect Leave Paddington by the 11 15 What do you say dear said my wife looking across at me Will you go I really don't know what to say I have a fairly long list at present Oh Anstruther would do your work for you You have been looking a little pale lately I think that the change would do you good and you are always so interested in Mr Sherlock Holmes cases I should be ungrateful if I were not seeing what I gained through one of them I answered But if I am to go I must pack at once for I have only half an hour My experience of camp life in Afghanistan had at least had the effect of making me a prompt and ready traveller My wants were few and simple so that in less than the time stated I was in a cab with my valise rattling away to Paddington Station Sherlock Holmes was pacing up and down the platform his tall gaunt figure made even gaunter and taller by his long grey travelling cloak and close fitting cloth cap It is really very good of you to come Watson said he It makes a considerable difference to me having someone with me on whom I can thoroughly rely Local aid is always either worthless or else biassed If you will keep the two corner seats I shall get the tickets We had the carriage to ourselves save for an immense litter of papers which Holmes had brought with him Among these he rummaged and read with intervals of note taking and of meditation until we were past Reading Then he suddenly rolled them all into a gigantic ball and tossed them up onto the rack
