Shevchenko's Unforgotten Journey:

Shevchenko's Unforgotten Journey George Stephen Nestor Luckyj, 1996 Fieldwork in Ukrainian Children's Literature Mateusz Świątlicki, Anastasia Ulanowicz, 2025-03-24

Fieldwork in Ukrainian Children's Literature showcases the work of prominent scholars of children's literature from Ukraine and the diaspora as it traces the history of books written, marketed for, and circulating among young people since the rise of Ukraine's nationhood in the nineteenth century. This book encompasses a full range of texts and genres: e.g. fiction, nonfiction, poetry, picturebooks, graphic novels, with special attention given to the most important authors and works as defined by aesthetics, literary excellence, popularity, or historical and cultural significance. In its focus on ideology and historical context, the collection takes an interdisciplinary and transnational approach. It places titles and trends in broader context, considering the socio-political situation, changing taste, and the history of institutions that shape the production and reception of children's literature. The collection addresses folklore and the beginnings of a distinct tradition of Ukrainian children's literature produced in the nineteenth century; the role played by children's literature in the maintenance of the Ukrainian literary tradition during the Soviet era; and the flourishing Ukrainian book market with the appearance of numerous new genres and forms, and the growing significance of Ukrainian books around the world. The collection highlights the importance of familiarizing non-Ukrainian students and scholars of children's literature with the richness of the country's literary history and cultural distinctiveness. Fieldwork in Ukrainian Children's Literature is intended primarily for scholars of children's literature and culture, including specialists in the fields of literary studies, education, and Slavic studies.

Laboratory of Modernity Serhiy Bilenky, 2023-10-15

When the powers of Europe were at their prime, present-day Ukraine was divided between the Austrian and Russian empires, each imposing different political, social, and cultural models on its subjects. This inevitably led to great diversity in the lives of its inhabitants, shaping modern Ukraine into the multiethnic country it is today. Making innovative use of methods of social and cultural history, gender studies, literary theory, and sociology, Laboratory of Modernity explores the history of Ukraine throughout the long nineteenth century and offers a unique study of its pluralistic society, culture, and political scene. Despite being subjected to different and conflicting power models during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, Ukraine was not only imagined as a distinct entity with a unique culture and history but was also realized as a set of social and political institutions. The story of modern Ukraine is geopolitically complex, encompassing the historical narratives of several major communities, including ethnic Ukrainians, Poles, Jews, and Russians, who for centuries lived side by side. The first comprehensive study of nineteenth-century Ukraine in English, Laboratory of Modernity traces the historical origins of some of the most pressing issues facing Ukraine and the international community today.

The Immeasurable World William Atkins, 2018-07-24

Winner of the Stanford Dolman Travel Book of the Year UK, William Atkins is an erudite writer with a wonderful wit and gaze, and this is a new and exciting beast of a travel book. Joy Williams: In the classic literary tradition of Bruce Chatwin and Geoff Dyer, a rich and exquisitely written account of travels in eight deserts on five continents that evokes the timeless allure of these remote and forbidding places One third of the earth's surface is classified as desert Restless unhappy in love and intrigued by the Desert Fathers who forged Christian monasticism in the Egyptian desert William Atkins decided to travel in eight of the world's driest hottest places the Empty Quarter of Oman the Gobi Desert and Taklamakan deserts of northwest China the Great Victoria Desert of Australia the man made desert of the Aral Sea in Kazakhstan the Black Rock and Sonoran Deserts of the American Southwest and Egypt's Eastern Desert Each of his travel narratives effortlessly weaves aspects of natural history historical background and present day reportage into a compelling tapestry that reveals the human appeal of these often inhuman landscapes
