Shipwrecked on the Island of Skree Cameron Thomas,2004-04 In this engaging adventure a young sailor named Barnaby gets caught in a storm on the Sassaway Sea and is shipwrecked on the mystical island of Skree The wonderful animal characters he meets the adventures they share and the things they build together are all vividly rendered in hand painted illustrations Themes of community understanding and friendship are present throughout the story as Barnaby learns that being different doesn't mean he can't get along and be friends with the people he encounters The rhyming component in the story provides a musical rhythm for children and increases their vocabulary and reading skills School Library

Island of the Lost Joan Druett,2007 In January of 1864 five sailors from the wrecked schooner Grafton are stranded on remote and icy Auckland Island some three hundred miles from New Zealand An isolated speck in the Southern ocean it is a godforsaken place with winds howling at sixty miles an hour rain three hundred days a year and an almost impenetrable coastal forest Under the leadership of Captain Thomas Musgrave these men defy their slim chance of survival They build a cabin and incredibly a forge where they manufacture every single nail as well as most of their tools Miraculously all the Grafton men survive for nearly two years before finally building a getaway vessel and setting off on one of the most courageous sea voyages ever Meanwhile on the opposite end of the same island twenty miles of impassable cliffs and chasms away the ship Invercauld wrecks during a horrible gale in May 1864 Nineteen men struggle ashore They eventually succumb to utter anarchy and only three survive Using the survivors journals award winning maritime historian Joan Druett tells a gripping cautionary tale about leadership endurance and the fine line between order and chaos Publisher before another and when I reached our boat was glad to avail myself of what provision my companions had prepared for me and of what rest I could obtain During my absence the remainder of the party had brought the oars spars and other things from the opposite side of the haul over and deposited them near the boat to be in readiness when we next launched her Here we remained some days detained as usual by stress of weather and violent winds which prevented our crossing the bay but as soon as the wind abated and the atmosphere became more settled and favourable we dismantled our hut launched the boat and putting some additional spars found upon the shore into it in conjunction with those we formerly had we pulled across the bay and landed on the opposite side between Captain Matley s Island and the Bluffs which were more to the eastward Here we again hauled our boat up and built her into a hut rj usual intending to use this as our night station for a time until we had removed our building materials to Long Point where we had determined upon erecting our house After a day or two of rest we proceeded with our work which now consisted in carrying the spars c to their destination and in doing this we had to travel along the series of stony
