Limbert,2011-10-01 In the fourteenth century Persian city of Shiraz poets composed scholars studied mystics sought hidden truths ascetics prayed and fasted drunkards brawled and princes and their courtiers played deadly games of power This was the world of Shams al Din Mohammad Hafez Shirazi a classical poet who remains broadly popular today in his native Shiraz and in modern Iran as a whole and among all lovers of great verse traditions As John Limbert notes Hafez s poetry is inseparable from the Iranian spirit a reflection of Iranians intellectual and emotional responses to events But if Hafez s endurance derives from the considerable charm of his work it also arises from his sure grounding in the life of his day from a setting so deftly explored by his verse that his depictions of it retain a timeless relevance To fully comprehend and enjoy Hafez and thus to understand a root force in modern Iranian consciousness we must know something of the city in which he lived and wrote In this book Limbert provides not only a rich context for Hafez s poetry but also a comprehensive perspective on a fascinating place in a dynamic time His portrait of this elegant witty poet and his marvelous city will be as valuable to medievalists students of the Middle East and specialists in urban studies as it will be to connoisseurs of world literature      Saints hommes de Chiraz et du Fārs Denise Aigle,2023-09-20 In Saints hommes de Chiraz et du Fārs Pouvoir soci t et lieux de sacralit Xe XVe s Denise Aigle studies the spiritual role but also the political one played by the Sufi shaykhs From the tenth century Fārs was a a land of holiness with Shaykh Kab r in Shiraz and Murshid al D n Ab Is q in K zar n This research is based on hagiographic sources historical chronicles literary sources and archival documents The author shows how the pre Islamic history of Fārs was integrated into spiritual Islam thanks to the mystical speculations of the Sufi shaykhs The particular interest of this research is its contribution to the history of L rist n a region that has long remained terra incognita Thanks to handwritten hagiographic documents preserved in several private libraries we discover the existence and the role of spiritual masters until now totally unknown      Saints and Their Cults Stephen Wilson,1985 This is a paperback edition of a collection of ten papers by different authors on the cult of saints first published in hard covers in 1983

The Buwayhid Dynasty in Iraq 334H./945 to 403H./1012 John Donohue, 2021-10-11. A study of the development of political and social institutions in Baghdad, center of the Abbasid Caliphate in that neglected period between Abbasid collapse and the coming of the Seljuk Turks. Three brothers, Daylemite mercenaries from the southern Caspian, succeeded in establishing a dynasty that lasted nearly a century, controlling Iraq, a good part of Iran, and the Gulf. The period has been labeled the Iranian intermezzo, but careful examination shows that the dynasty shaped the basic institutions to which the Seljuks would fall heir: the chief amirate, the system of army fiefs, and the bureaucracy. It was a period of profound change and dislocation which fostered an open and creative cultural atmosphere. The Caliphate, bereft of power, was re-established as the center of authority and legitimation. Beauty in Sufism Kazuyo Murata, 2017-04-05. According to Muhammad, God is beautiful and He loves beauty. Yet Islam is rarely associated with beauty, and today a politicized Islam dominates many perceptions. This work tells a forgotten story of beauty in Islam through the writings of celebrated but little-studied Sufi scholar and saint Ruzbihan Baqli (1128-1209). Ruzbihan argued that the pursuit of beauty in the world and in oneself was the goal of Muslim life. One should become beautiful in imitation of God and reclaim the innate human nature created in God's beautiful image. Ruzbihan's theory of beauty is little known, largely because of his convoluted style and eccentric terminology in both Persian and Arabic. In this book, Kazuyo Murata revives Ruzbihan's ideas for modern readers. She provides an overview of Muslim discourse on beauty before Ruzbihan's time, an analysis of key terms related to beauty in the Qur'an and in Ruzbihan's writings, a reconstruction of Ruzbihan's understanding of divine, cosmic, and human beauty, and a discussion of what he regards as the pinnacle of beauty in creation: the prophets.

Voices in Verses Farhat Hasan, 2024-11-21 This book opens up an archive of women's verses found in the extant but overlooked women's biographical compendia tazkira i zenana written in the nineteenth century As commemorative texts these compendia written in Urdu draw our attention to their memories celebrated and contested in cultural spaces In drawing connections between memory and literature this study contests the commonplace assumption that the literary public sphere was markedly homosocial and gender exclusive and argues instead that the women poets coming from a wide variety of social groups actively participated in shaping the norms of aesthetics and literary expression they introduced fresh signifiers and signifying practices to apprehend their emotions experiences and world views This work suggests that the women's tazkiras performed an act of epistemic disobedience contesting not only the British imperial representations of India but also the Indo Muslim modern reformers on issues of domesticity conjugal companionship and love and desire
