Shirin Neshat, Two Installations Bill Horrigan, Shirin Neshat, 2000 One of the most exciting and important young artists of the past decade Iranian born Shirin Neshat has addressed issues of nation colonialism and gender in a variety of media always challenging our preconceptions about art and society She is particularly renowned for her film installations which have been featured at several Whitney Biennials and this new catalogue accompanies Rapture and Fervor the second and third films in a trilogy exploring the social political and psychological dimensions of women's experience in contemporary Islamic societies The emphasis here is on the interplay between the explicit text and the implicit subtext in Islamic ritual and how the emotions stirred up by these rituals can take on mercurial and contradictory forms Shirin Neshat Steven Henry Madoff, Mahnaz Afkhami, 2015 This catalogue is published in conjunction with the exhibition Shirin Neshat Facing History organized by the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden Smithsonian institution Washington DC May 18 September 20 2015 Title page verso Translation and Transgression in the Art of Shirin Neshat Erin C. Devine, 2023-10-05 Precisely 30 years after the debut of her provocative photo portraits this book chronicles the early career of Iranian American artist Shirin Neshat In its first 20 years Neshat's work weaved viewers into complex readings of women and power in Iran Yet her images also drew criticisms of exoticizing Muslim women and later video installations were accused of lacking political assertion during stormy relations between the West and the Islamic world Now broadly recognized as a social justice artist this volume chronicles Neshat's evolution from photography to film from personal to political expression and expands existing scholarship to investigate underserved contexts for her work including the cinematic turn and emergent theories of globality in contemporary art Neshat's hyphenated identity was often attenuated by reductive and exoticizing discourses therefore this volume draws attention to her transnational methodologies informed by strategies of appropriation performativity and embodiment while articulating Persian visual and literary traditions Complicating simplistic ethnographies her disruption of neo Orientalist paradigms and representations has led audiences to reconsider Islamophobic Islamism and gender repressions that are political psychological and above all cross cultural This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history photography cinema studies performance transnational and global studies women's studies and Iranian studies
