Shock And Awe New Reports:

Air Force Magazine ,2003 War Made Invisible Norman Solomon,2024-09-10 With a new preface by the author on the Gaza war An unflinching expos of the hidden costs of American war making written with an immense and rare humanity Naomi Klein by one of our premier political analysts Every election cycle candidates across the political spectrum repudiate what has become one of the most consequential and enduring components of American foreign policy the forever war Yet once the ballots have been cast and the camera crews go home the American war machine chugs along in almost complete obscurity The journalist and political analyst Norman Solomon s War Made Invisible is a gripping and painful study Noam Chomsky of the mechanisms behind our invisible but perpetual national state of war From ever compliant journalists serving as little more than stenographers for the Pentagon to futuristic military technology horrifying in its destructive power that makes dropping a bomb or pulling the trigger on a drone strike more of an abstraction than a moral calculation Solomon s staggeringly important intervention Naomi Klein exposes the profoundly human consequences at home and abroad of the bipartisan commitment to war making In an era of increasing global instability in which it is all too easy to succumb to despair Solomon pierces the manufactured fog of war and casts sunlight the best disinfectant on the propaganda that fuels perpetual war Amy Goodman Now in paperback with a new preface by the author on the Gaza war Solomon s incisive ever timely analysis provide s the fresh and profound clarity that our country desperately needs Daniel Ellsberg now more than ever Air Force and Space Digest ,2003 The Integrated News Spectacle James Robert Compton,2004 The Integrated News Spectacle examines the rational organization of control of popular news forms It uses spectacular media events such as the mourning of Princess Diana the Monica Lewinsky presidential scandal and the Gulf wars of 1991 and 2003 as entry points into a discussion of the broader context surrounding an integrated system of commodity production distribution and exchange James R Compton critiques the generally accepted notion of tabloidization associated with media spectacles and situates these dramatic narratives within a broad historical context Drawing on the work of Guy Debord David Harvey and Pierre Bourdieu this book explains how the power relationships associated with media events can best be comprehended by revealing the practical application of the logic of spectacle a logic characterized by the transposable circulation and promotion of cultural commodities The Discourse Trap and the US Military J. Michaels,2013-03-19 This book proposes the idea of a discourse trap in which the discourses and associated terminology devised for political or military reasons can entrap policymakers by motivating or constraining their actions Ugly War, Pretty Package Deborah L. Jaramillo,2009-09-25 Deborah L Jaramillo investigates cable news presentation of the Iraq War in relation to high concept filmmaking High concept films can be reduced to single sentence summaries and feature pre sold elements they were considered financially safe projects that would sustain consumer interest beyond their initial theatrical run Using high concept as a framework for the analysis of the 2003 coverage of the Iraq War paying close attention to how Fox News and

CNN packaged and promoted the U S invasion of Iraq Ugly War Pretty Package offers a new paradigm for understanding how television news reporting shapes our perceptions of events Under Lincoln's Hat Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Foundation,2016-10-01 What is the oldest artifact linked to Abraham Lincoln What does a poem written when he was just a schoolboy say about his character Taking its cue from The History of the World in 100 Objects the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum have selected 100 items from their extensive and rare collection that will give readers an intimate glimpse into the turning points of Lincoln s life and presidency From a page taken from his sum book to the gloves Lincoln wore the night he was assassinated these objects reveal a sense of the man and his times in a fresh and immediate way Handsomely designed with more than 125 photographs visually complimenting the text Under Lincoln s Hat will be a gorgeous reading book and a great gift for anyone interested in one of the most iconic figures in American history

Disappearing War Christina Hellmich,2017-02-03 The battles fought in the name of the war on terror have re ignited questions about the changing nature of war and the experience of war for those geographically distant from its real world consequences What is missing from our highly mediated experience of war What are the intentional and unintentional processes of erasure through which the distortion happens What are their consequences Cinema is a key site at which questions about our highly mediated experience of war can be addressed or more significantly elided Looking at a range of films that have provoked debate from award winning features like Zero Dark Thirty and American Sniper to documentaries like Kill List and Dirty Wars as well as at the work of visual artists like Harun Farocki and Omer Fast this book examines the practices of erasure in the cinematic representation of recent military interventions Drawing on representations of war related death dying and bodily damage this provocative collection addresses what s missing in existing scholarly responses to modern warfare in film studies as well as in politics and international relations The News Media At War Tarek Cherkaoui,2017-01-30 Tarek Cherkaoui reveals how geo political and ideological legacies of the past which divide the world into a dichotomy of us against them play a dominant role in reinforcing the ensuing polarisation of our media News as Entertainment Daya Kishan Thussu,2008-01-09 Thussu brings to this project the passion for news of a socially committed former journalist the political economy of his international relations education and a formidable assembly of global detail examining the recent explosion of infotainment John Downing Southern Illinois University Thussu s account of war as infotainment the Bollywoodization of news and the emergence of a global infotainment sphere is as compelling as it is alarming This is a significant and essential book for anyone interested in exploring the connections between news journalism informed citizenship and democracy Bob Franklin The Cardiff School of Journalism Media and Cultural Studies Richly detailed and empirically grounded this first book length study of infotainment and its globalization by a leading scholar of global communication offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of this emerging phenomenon Going beyond both geographically and theoretically the dumbing down discourse largely confined to the Anglo American media the book argues that infotainment may have an important ideological role a diversion in which soft news masks the hard realities of neo liberal imperialism Chapters include a historical appraisal of infotainment the infrastructure for its globalization as well as coverage of recent wars on television news as high tech infotainment and the growing synergies between Hollywood and Bollywood originated infotainment A global infotainment sphere is emerging the book argues within which competing versions of news from 24 7 news networks to bloggers coexist Accessible engagingly written and robustly argued the book combines analyses of theoretical debates on infotainment with extensive and up to date comparative data

Blood on Our Hands Nicolas J. S. Davies, 2010 America's crimes against the people of Iraq were shielded from public scrutiny by what senior U S military officers called the quiet disguised media free approach developed in Central America in the 1980s The echo chamber of the Western corporate media fleshed out the Pentagon's propaganda to create a virtual Iraq in the minds of the public feeding a political discourse that bore no relation to the real war it was waging the country it was destroying or the lives of its inhabitants Davies takes apart the wall of propaganda surrounding one of history's most significant military disasters and most serious international crimes non-existent WMDs the equally fictitious centuries old sectarian blood feud in Iraq and the secrecy of the dirty war waged by American led death squads He places each aspect of the war within a context of illegal aggression hostile military occupation and popular resistance to uncover the brutal reality of a war that has probably killed at least a million people From publisher description

Evaluation and Stance in War News Louann Haarman, Linda Lombardo, 2011-10-20 In a world in which advanced communication technologies have made the reporting of disasters and conflicts also in the form of breaking news a familiar and normalised activity the information we present here about television news reporting of the 2003 war in Iraq has implications that go beyond this particular conflict Evaluation and Stance in War News functions as a tool kit for the critical evaluation of language in the news both as raw data in need of interpretation and as carefully packaged products of information management in need of unpacking The chapters offer an array of theoretical and empirical instruments for revealing identifying sifting weighing and connecting patterns of language use that construct messages These messages carry with them world views and value systems that can either create an ever wider divide or serve to build bridges between peoples and countries

American Shame Myra Mendible, 2016-03-29 Essays examining the role of shame as an American cultural practice and how public shaming enforces conformity and group coherence On any given day in America's news cycle stories and images of disgraced politicians and celebrities solicit our moral indignation their misdeeds fueling a lucrative economy of shame and scandal Shame is one of the most coercive painful and intriguing of human emotions Only in recent years has interest in shame extended beyond a focus on the subjective experience of this emotion and its psychological effects The essays collected here consider the role of shame as cultural practice and examine ways that public shaming practices enforce conformity and group coherence Addressing abortion mental illness suicide immigration and body image among other issues this volume calls attention to the ways shaming practices create and police social boundaries how shaming speech is endorsed judged or challenged by various groups and the distinct ways that shame is encoded and embodied in a nation that prides itself on individualism diversity and exceptionalism Examining shame through a prism of race sexuality ethnicity and gender these provocative essays offer a broader understanding of how America's discourse of shame helps to define its people as citizens spectators consumers and moral actors An eclectic anthology it offers the readers more than one argument and perspective which makes the volume itself lively and rich Ron Scapp coeditor of Fashion Statements On Style Appearance and Reality Strategic Terror Beau Grosscup, 2013-07-18 Presenting a global history of aerial bombardment this book shows how certain European powers initiated aerial bombardment of civilians after World War I and how it was an instrument of choice in World War II Beau Grosscup shows that such methods used initially as a means of terrorizing native populations in Africa and the Middle East have become the primary form of terrorism in more recent decades While such strategic terror is not classed as terrorism in the West this reflects an unwillingness to confront the human costs and immorality of aerial bombardment Grosscup argues that if terrorism is to be diminished the role of aerial bombing in sustaining global violence must be recognized Icons of War and Terror John Tulloch, R. Warwick Blood, 2012-07-26 This book explores the ideas of key thinkers and media practitioners who have examined images and icons of war and terror Icons of War and Terror explores theories of iconic images of war and terror not as received pieties but as challenging uncertainties in doing so it engages with both critical discourse and conventional image making The authors draw on these theories to re-investigate the media global context of some of the most iconic representations of war and terror in the international risk society Among these photojournalistic images are Nick Ut's Pulitzer Prize winning photograph of a naked girl Kim Phuc running burned from a napalm attack in Vietnam in June 1972 a quintessential ethnic cleansing image of massacred Kosovar Albanian villagers at Racak on January 15 1999 which finally propelled a hesitant Western alliance into the first of the new humanitarian wars Luis Simco's photograph of marine James Blake Miller the Marlboro Man at Fallujah Iraq 2004 the iconic toppling of the World Trade Centre towers in New York by planes on September 11 2001 and the Falling Man icon one of the most controversial images of 9/11 the image of one of the authors of this book as close up victim of the 7/7 terrorist attack on London which the media quickly labelled iconic This book will be of great interest to students of media and war sociology communications studies cultural studies terrorism studies and security studies in general Southwestern Mass Communication Journal, 2003
